

Plaintiffs move to strike the portions of Sgt. Eldard's declaration that are related to Exhibit B of his declaration as well as Exhibit B. Plaintiffs' main contention is that Sgt. Eldard said he made a comparison between SLCPD records and the dataset provided by Dr. Perry to produce Exhibit B when, in fact, Sgt. Eldard did not make that comparison.³

Defendants concede that Sgt. Eldard relied on Dean Larson, an IT professional within the police department, and staff within the City Attorney's Office to produce Exhibit B.⁴ Mr. Larson pulled the names and birthdates of those within the SLCPD database, who were under the age of 19 when they were added to the database, and staff within the City Attorney's Office compared those names to the individuals included in Dr. Perry's data.⁵

Plaintiffs state, "If Sgt. Eldard or Defendants had described counsel's and Mr. Larson's efforts in Sgt. Eldard's declarations or their opposition brief to class certification, Plaintiffs would not have brought this Motion."⁶ Attached to Defendants' Opposition to this Motion is Mr. Larson's declaration describing the origins of Exhibit B.⁷ The Court, being aware of Exhibit B's factual foundation, will consider it along with Mr. Larson's declaration in its determination of Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification. Therefore, the Court will not strike any portion of Sgt. Eldard's declaration or Exhibit B. Defendants are directed to make Mr. Larson available for deposition within a reasonable time if such a deposition is requested by Plaintiffs.

Plaintiffs' motion also seeks the Court to order Defendants to produce disclosures under Rule 26(a)(1)(B). Magistrate Judge Wells already ruled on this part of the Motion and this portion of the Motion is moot.⁸

It is therefore

ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Motion to Strike (Docket No. 140) is DENIED.
