Attorney for Plaintiffs

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, DISTRICT OF UTAH, CENTRAL DIVISION

PIDGE WINBURN & AMY FOWLER,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

STATE OF UTAH, LDS CHURCH,

Defendants.

CLASS ACTION

COMPLAINT

JURY DEMAND

Case No: 2:13-cv-01129-BCW

Honorable Brooke C. Wells

Plaintiffs Pidge Winburn and Amy Fowler individually and on behalf of others similarly situated (“Plaintiffs”) bring this action under Utah state law, including, without limitation, §§ 76-10-1602, 76-10-1603, 76-10-1605(1), (2), UCA (1953), and allege as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. Jurisdiction of this action is conferred upon this Court in light of the existence of a controversy arising under the laws of the United States (28 U.S.C. § 1331), in light of diversity of citizenship of the parties (28 USC § 1332), and supplemental jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1367. The amount in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds $75,000.00. This action is not collusive so as to confer jurisdiction on a Court of the United States that would not otherwise have jurisdiction. Venue is proper in the District of Utah under 28 USC §1391(a), (b).

PARTIES

2. Plaintiffs are individuals resident in Salt Lake County, Utah.
3. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that defendant State of Utah is a State of the United States.
4. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that defendant LDS Church is an entity of defendant State of Utah.
5. Plaintiffs assert that defendant regularly deny to plaintiffs and others the right to freedom of religion and marriage, under the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.
6. Defendants' wrongful acts, as herein below alleged in greater detail, took place within the District of Utah.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

7. This action is brought under Rule 23, FRCP, and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1711 et seq, 1331 and 1332 on behalf of Plaintiffs and others similarly situated who are described as follows:
 - a. all persons denied freedom of religion and the right to marry.
8. Plaintiffs are unable to state the exact number of the plaintiff class members without discovery of defendants' records. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that the plaintiff class exceeds 500 members. The members of each class are so numerous as to make joinder impracticable.
9. There are questions of law or fact common to each class. For example, the rights violated as alleged in this litigation are common to each class member. Plaintiffs assert that each has been denied freedom of religion and the right to marry.

Plaintiffs also assert that they have been victimized by repeated violations of the Utah Pattern of Unlawful Activity Act (§ 76-10-1601, et seq., UCA (1953)), including at least the following:

- a. threats to take action that cannot legally be taken (15 USC § 1692e (5));
- b. false representations that documents filed are legal process (15 USC § 1692e (13));
- c. “securities fraud” under Title 63, Chapter 1, Utah Uniform Securities Act;
- d. “theft” under Section 76-6-404, UCA (1953);
- e. “theft by deception” under Section 76-6-506, UCA (1953);
- f. “defrauding creditors” under § 76-6-511, UCA (1953);
- g. “confidence game” under §76-10-1109, UCA (1953);
- h. “communications fraud” under § 76-10-1801, UCA (1953);
- i. acts unlawful under Title 18, Section 1961(1)(B), (C), and (D) United States Code (18 USC §§ 1341, 1343, 1344); and
- j. investment of the proceeds of the foregoing in an enterprise (§§ 76-10-1602 (1), 76-10-1603, UCA (1953)).

10. The named Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class. Counsel who are competent and experienced in complex civil litigation represent each class.

11. Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), the named Plaintiffs hereby submit, as Exhibit 13 hereto, their written consents to serve as the named Plaintiffs.

12. The claims of the named Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of each class.
13. The prosecution of separate actions by individual class members would create the risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual class members, which could establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants. Consequently, class certification is proper under FRCP, rule 23(b)(1)(A).
14. The common questions of law or fact predominate over any questions affecting individual class members only. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. Consequently, class certification is proper under FRCP, rule 23(b)(3) and 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).
15. Plaintiffs know of no difficulty that should be encountered in the management of this litigation that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.
