
IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH, CENTRAL DIVISION

SOLUTIONSTREAM, a Utah limited liability company,

Plaintiff,

v.

3D FOOTPRINTS, an Oregon corporation,

Defendant.

MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER DENYING [14] MOTION FOR DEFAULT ON COUNTERCLAIMS

Case No. 2:17-cv-00605-DN

District Judge David Nuffer

In responding to the complaint by plaintiff SolutionStream, defendant 3D Footprints¹ asserted counterclaims with its answer.² The counterclaims were filed June 15, 2017. After more than seven months, SolutionStream had not filed a response to the counterclaims, although both parties participated in the litigation, including an attorneys planning meeting, in the interim. 3D Footprints has filed a Motion for Entry of Default (the “Motion”).³ Just before the Motion was filed, on the same day, SolutionStream filed its Reply to Counterclaim.⁴ The Motion can be resolved without a response from SolutionStream.

Applying Rule 55(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Motion is denied. Rule 55(a), the rule governing entry of default, provides: “When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend, and that failure is shown by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk must enter the party's default."⁵ At the time the Motion was filed, SolutionStream had not "failed to plead or otherwise defend."⁶ SolutionStream no doubt was alerted to the need to file its response by 3D Footprints' mistaken filing of a motion for default judgment—which must be preceded by entry of default under Rule 55. In any case, a default would not serve the purpose of Rule 55 here, where SolutionStream is actively litigating the case and a response to the counterclaims is now in the record.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion⁷ is DENIED.

Dated February 14, 2018.
