
IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION,
Plaintiff,

v.

ELITE IT PARTNERS, INC., a Utah
corporation doing business as ELITE IT HOME, and
JAMES MICHAEL MARTINOS, individually and as an officer of ELITE IT PARTNERS, INC.

Defendants.

AMENDED MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER GRANTING RECEIVER'S MOTION TO APPROVE
SALE OF ASSETS

Case No. 2:19-CV-125 RJS-CMR
Chief District Judge Robert J. Shelby
Magistrate Judge Cecilia M. Romero

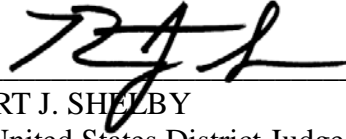

The Court has considered the Receiver's Motion¹ requesting approval to sell certain assets of Elite IT Partners described and on the terms set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreements attached to the Motion as Exhibits A and B.² Finding that the proposed terms of sale are fair and reasonable and additionally finding that good cause exists, under the circumstances, to dispense with the formalities of 28 U.S.C. § 2001 in favor of an expeditious and efficient disposition of the subject assets, the Court GRANTS the Motion and APPROVES the sale of assets on the terms proposed.

² The court previously approved the sale of the assets; however, the approval Order contained an incorrect caption. See Dkt. 126. The court therefore amends its Order by including the caption above.

SO ORDERED this 29th day of July, 2019.

BY THE COURT:
