
THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

LHF PRODUCTIONS, INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

RUDY BERNAL,

Defendant.

MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER GRANTING IN PART
AND DENYING IN PART MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT

Case No. 2:19-cv-00371-DN

District Judge David Nuffer

Plaintiff LHF Productions, Inc. seeks entry of default judgment, a permanent injunction, and an award of attorney’s fees against Defendant Rudy Bernal.¹ Specifically, Plaintiff seeks an award of $10,000 in statutory damages against Defendant; a permanent injunction enjoining Defendant from directly or indirectly infringing Plaintiff’s copyright in the motion picture London Has Fallen; and an award of costs and attorney’s fees.²

Plaintiff’s counsel in this case is the same as the plaintiff’s counsel in LHF Productions, Inc. v. Gonzales et al., No. 2:17-cv-00103-DN (D. Utah). A complaint³ and motion for default judgment⁴ were filed in Gonzales, which are substantively identical to those filed in this case.⁵ The only relevant differences are: the named defendant.

On October 28, 2020, a Memorandum Decision and Order Granting in Part and Denying in Part Motion for Default Judgment was entered in Gonzales (“Gonzales Memorandum Decision and Order”).⁶ Because this case and Gonzales are substantively identical, the Gonzales Memorandum Decisions and Order’s analysis, findings of fact, and conclusions of law⁷ are adopted in total and apply to Plaintiff’s Motion in this case.

Defendant was served⁸ with Plaintiff’s Complaint; failed to timely appear and respond; and default has entered against Defendant.⁹ Additionally, the factual allegations of Plaintiff’s Complaint, which are deemed admitted,¹⁰ demonstrate that Defendant is liable for willfully infringing¹¹ Plaintiff’s copyright in the motion picture London Has Fallen through use of BitTorrent protocols over the Internet.

Therefore, Plaintiff is entitled to entry of a default judgment against Defendant, which includes an award of statutory damages¹² against Defendant and a permanent injunction¹³ enjoining Defendant from directly or indirectly infringing Plaintiff’s copyright. Plaintiff is also entitled to an award of its costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.¹⁴ But because an award of $750

⁹ Entry of Default Pursuant to FRCP 55(a) as to a Certain Defendant, docket no. 29, filed Jan. 14, 2021. When the court mailed the Entry of Default to Defendant, it was returned as undeliverable due to an outdated address. No new address was available. That does not prevent entry of default judgment against Defendant. Defendant was properly served with the Complaint in this action. Having been properly served, it is Defendant’s responsibility to update his address with the court in the event that he moves to a new address.

ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion¹⁷ is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. Default judgment shall enter in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendant Rudy Bernal.
