

AARP, a tax-exempt social welfare organization organized under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, was formerly the "American Association of Retired Persons." AARP is a nonprofit, nonpartisan membership organization with nearly 40 million members age 50 and over, including over 40,000 members who live outside the United States. People also do not have to be retired to join AARP. In fact, 44 percent of AARP members work part time or full time. For these reasons, AARP shortened its name in 1999 from the American Association of Retired Persons to just four letters: AARP. More information is available on the "AARP History" web page located on AARP's website at http://www.aarp.org/about\_aarp/aarp\_overview/a2003-01-13-aarphistory.html.

Respectfully submitted,
