LOCAL CIVIL RULE 7.1 FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

The Biotechnology Industry Organization (“BIO”) is a 501(c)(6) non-profit organization dedicated to providing advocacy and business development support to the biotechnology industry. The organization’s revenue sources include membership dues, sponsorship and registration income from events, advertising in BIO publications and on the bio.org website, income from various services, and interest and investment income. BIO has no parent or subsidiary entities that have issued stock or debt securities to the public, and no publicly held entity (corporate or otherwise) owns a higher than 10% equity stake in BIO (whether in the form of stock or debt securities). Many of BIO's members, however, have issued securities to the public. A list of BIO's more than 1,100 members, affiliates, and associate organizations can be found at www.bio.org.
