ORDER OF PUBLICATION

It is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiff shall publish notice of this action, in the manner specified below. Once such publication has occurred and twenty-one (21) days have passed, Plaintiff shall be deemed to have complied with any notice requirements of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d)(2)(A)(ii)(I) and (II) that are applicable to this matter.

1. A copy of this Order shall be published in The Washington Times once within fourteen (14) days after the entry of this Order and an affidavit shall be filed on Plaintiff's behalf, no later than within twenty-eight (28) days after the entry of this Order, describing the steps that have been taken to comply with this Order.

2. That the Defendant domain names listed above (the "Domain Names") are hereby advised:

A. Plaintiff has charged the Domain Names in a complaint with violation of the Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act of 1999 (the "ACPA"), 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d). A copy of the complaint may be obtained from the Plaintiff's attorney: Edwin L. Fountain, Jones Day, 51 Louisiana Avenue N.W., Washington, DC 20001, telephone number (202) 879-3939.

B. In the event Plaintiff prevails against the Domain Name under the ACPA, remedies could include the forfeiture or cancellation of those Domain Names or the transfer of those Domain Names to Plaintiff Entrepreneur Media, Inc.

C. Any answer or other response to the Complaint should be filed with the Clerk of the Court, United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Alexandria Division, 401 Courthouse Square, Alexandria, Virginia 22314-5798 within twenty-one (21) days from the date of publication of this Order in The Washington Times. If no appearance or pleading is filed as required by this Order, this Court may render a judgment against the Domain Names, which could include the forfeiture or cancellation of those Domain Names or the transfer of those Domain Names to Plaintiff Entrepreneur Media, Inc.

Entered this 8th day of June, 2011.
