This matter comes before the Court on the Report and Recommendation (R&R) of United States Magistrate Judge Ivan D. Davis, dated August 15, 2019, Dkt. 72, on Plaintiff's Motion for Entry of Default Judgment as to Certain Defendants, Dkt. 58. Defendants did not object to the R&R. The Clerk of Court is instructed to enter judgment pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55 in favor of Plaintiff Juul Labs, Inc. and against each of the Defendants identified in Appendix A, in the amount of $4,000,000 per defendant. It is further ORDERED that:

(1) Defendants are permanently enjoined from making, using, selling, or offering for sale unauthorized products containing the Juul Labs Trademarks;

monies currently restrained in Defendants' financial accounts as partial payment of the above-identified damages within five (5) business days of the date of this Order; and

(4) Until Plaintiff has recovered full payments of the monies owed to it by any

Defendants, Plaintiff shall have ongoing authority to serve this Order on PayPal or AliPay in the event that any new PayPal or AliPay accounts controlled or operated by Defendants are identified. Upon receipt of the Order, PayPal and AliPay shall within two (2) business days (a) locate all accounts and funds connected to Defendants or Defendants' internet stores, and (b) restrain and enjoin such accounts or funds that are not U.S. based from transferring or disposing of any money or other of Defendants' assets; and within ten (10) business days (c) release all monies restrained in Defendants' PayPal and AliPay accounts to Plaintiff as partial payment of the above-identified damages.
