Re: I/P Engine, Inc. v. AOL, Inc. et al.

Dear Charles:

I write in response to your March 9, 2012 letter regarding Google's non-infringement contentions. Google is currently working on a second supplemental response to Plaintiff's Interrogatory No. 6. While Google is supplementing its non-infringement contentions, this does not absolve I/P Engine of its failure to provide sufficient infringement contentions in the first instance. Although we have endeavored in good faith to resolve our differences on the contentions, it appears that you are unwilling to further supplement your contentions and that we have reached an impasse. As a result, we are left with no option but to seek intervention from the Court. The remainder of your letter does not warrant a response.

Sincerely,

Emily C. O'Brien
