Exhibit 1

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
NORFOLK DIVISION

I/P ENGINE, INC.

Plaintiff,

v.

AOL INC., et al.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2:11-cv-512

PROPOSED ORDER

Before the Court is the Motion to Seal filed by Defendants Google Inc., Target Corporation, IAC Search & Media, Inc., Gannet Co., Inc. and AOL Inc. (collectively “Defendants”) (“Defendants’ Motion to Seal”) Portions of the Reply in Support of Defendants’ Motion for Summary Judgment (“Defendants’ Reply in Support”) and Exhibits 34 and 36 to the Declaration of Joshua L. Sohn in Support of the Reply in Support of Defendants’ Motion for Summary Judgment (“Certain Exhibits to Sohn the Declaration”). After considering the Motion to Seal, Order and related filings, the Court is of the opinion that the Motion to Seal should be granted. It is therefore ORDERED as follows:

1. Defendants have asked to file under seal Portions of Defendants’ Reply in Support and Certain Exhibits to the Sohn Declaration.

2. There are three requirements for sealing court filings: (1) public notice with an opportunity to object; (2) consideration of less drastic alternatives; and (3) a statement of specific findings in support of a decision to seal and rejecting alternatives to sealing. See, e.g., Flexible

Benefits Council v. Feldman, No. 1:08-CV-371, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93039 (E.D. Va. Nov. 13, 2008) (citing Ashcraft v. Conoco, Inc., 218 F.3d 282, 288 (4th Cir. 2000)). This Court finds that Portions of Defendants' Reply in Support and Certain Exhibits to the Sohn Declaration may contain data that is confidential under the Protective Order entered in this matter on January 23, 2012 (Dk. 85) ("Protective Order"); that public notice has been given, that no objections have been filed; that the public's interest in access is outweighed by the interests in preserving such confidentiality; and that there are no alternatives that appropriately serve these interests.

3. For the sake of consistency with practices governing the case as a whole, Portions of Defendants' Reply in Support and Certain Exhibits to the Sohn Declaration shall remain sealed and be treated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Protective Order.

4. Specifically, the Court finds the following reasons for sealing the requested pleadings:

(1) Portions of Defendants' Reply in Support contain confidential Google technical information which is not generally known, that has economic value and would cause competitive harm if made public;

(2) Exhibit 34 to the Sohn Declaration (excerpt of deposition testimony) contains confidential Google technical information which is not generally known, that has economic value and would cause competitive harm if made public; and

(3) Exhibit 36 to the Sohn Declaration (deposition transcript) describes confidential Google technical information including source code which is not generally known, that has economic value and would cause competitive harm if made public.

5. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Defendants' Motion to Seal is granted and Defendants are permitted to file under seal Portions of Defendants' Reply in Support and Certain Exhibits to the Sohn Declaration. The Court shall retain sealed materials until forty-five (45) days after entry of a final order. If the case is not appealed, any sealed materials should then be returned to counsel for the filing party.
