

EXHIBIT C

Defendants Google Inc., AOL, Inc., IAC Search & Media, Inc., Gannett Co., Inc., and Target Corporation ("Defendants") by counsel, hereby submit the following Objections to Plaintiff's Deposition Designations. Defendants object generally to the introduction of any deposition testimony without a showing by Plaintiff that the witness whose testimony it seeks to introduce is unavailable as required by Federal Rule of Evidence 804 and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 32. Defendants also object to Plaintiff's designations to the extent they include objections made during the depositions. Additionally, Defendants object to Plaintiff's over-designation of deposition testimony, and will be filing a motion to strike Plaintiff's designations.

In addition to these specific objections, Defendants filed motions in limine and Daubert motions, which also address some of Plaintiff's pretrial disclosures.

Defendants also hereby submit their counter-designations, which Defendants request be read with Plaintiff's designations for completeness purposes if Plaintiff's designated testimony is admitted into evidence. If certain of Plaintiff's designations are not admitted, Defendants intend to withdraw the corresponding counter-designations listed below. Additionally, the parties have agreed that if Plaintiff chooses to present only certain portions of its designations rather than the entirety of any such designations, Defendants will be entitled to counter-designate the remainder of the designation. Defendants understand that Plaintiff will not object to the timing of these counter-designations, but reserves all right to object on other admissibility grounds.

Because the admissibility of testimony from a witness depends on the context, the inclusion of testimony from a witness on Defendants' own list of designations is not a waiver and should not be construed as a waiver of the right to object to the testimony or the use of the testimony when offered by Plaintiff. In addition, Defendants reserve the right to use at trial any testimony on Plaintiff's designations.

Below is a key to the Defendants' Objections.
