

OBAMA SOCIAL SEC

A BOMBHELL investigation has ripped the lid off President Barack Obama's deepest secrets, exposing that he uses a PHONY Social Security number as part of an elaborate scheme to conceal that he is not a natural born U.S. citizen!

Now as the evidence against him mounts, sources tell GLOBE the handsome Democrat is ineligible to serve as Commander-in-Chief and his days in the Oval Office are numbered!

At the heart of the new scandal is a shocking probe by top private investigators who insist the Social Security number Obama uses couldn't possibly be authentic - and provides indisputable proof he's a fraud who shouldn't be in the White House.

GLOBE SPECIAL REPORT

"Mark my words, this will be the final nail in the coffin for Obama's presidency," declares a Washington, D.C., insider. "He can say whatever he wants about his birth, but the numbers on his Social Security card don't lie!"

The explosive Social Security revelation adds to a growing wave of outrage over Obama's stonewalling. And in GLOBE's special report, sources reveal his:

- Desperate attempts to hide dozens of Kenyan relatives, ordering them to stay under the radar in a bid to cover up his roots.
- Fury over efforts of his family to publicize his African heritage.
- Bogus tale about how he proposed to Michelle in America to conceal that he REALLY popped the question in Kenya.
- Fears that an African cousin's tell-all book will blow his presidency out of the water.
- Ongoing refusal to release all of his personal records, including what he claims to be his official long-form Hawaiian birth certificate.

042-BARACK

"Where there's this much smoke, there's a blazing fire!" declares the insider. "The heat on Obama is only going to get stronger."

And the newly discovered Social Security scam is certain to fan the flames of the controversy, say sources. Records indicate Obama's card was issued between 1977 and 1979, when he was a teen living in Hawaii. During that time he also attended college in Los Angeles.

Yet his Social Security number begins with 042. Experts say those digits reflect the zip code of the applicant and show the card came from Connecticut! However, there is no record of Obama being anywhere near that state during those years. And he makes no mention of Connecticut in his autobiography, Dreams From My Father.

Changed the subject

"The Social Security number he's using is a fake," private investigator Susan Daniels tells GLOBE. "There is no possible way he could have been issued it. And that's felony fraud!"

When Obama's Social Security number was questioned at a White House news conference, press secretary Robert Gibbs artfully changed the subject and moved on without ever answering the charges.

Robert Siciliano, CEO of IDTheftSecurity.com and an expert on identity theft, also says Obama's Social Security number doesn't make sense.

"Sometimes Social Security numbers are issued in states where people don't live, but there has to be a good reason for it," he explains. "In the case of President Obama, I don't know what a good reason would be." Investigator Daniels believes she has the answer. "I think he was a foreign exchange student born outside the U.S. and broke the law," she charges. "It's all a big cover-up. There is no way Obama should have gotten a Connecticut Social Security number. "How much more sure than 100 percent can I be that he is committing a felony?" The Beltway insider adds, "There can only be one reason why Obama would use a phony Social Security number - he's trying to hide where he really came from." Obama is also trying to safeguard his secrets overseas, say sources. He's demanding that his Kenyan relatives keep their mouths shut about his past. And he's said to be incensed his cousin Roy Obama, 29, is publicizing the President's heritage near Lake Victoria, even though Roy is using the proceeds from guided tours to combat poverty in the region. be fighting a losing battle. As GLOBE previously reported, his grandmother Sarah has already blurted out that she was present at his birth at a hospital in Mombasa.

And sources say another cousin in Africa is now penning a tell-all book in which she insists she was also at his birth in Kenya. She claims he was given a false ID and Social Security number to make it look like he was born in the U.S.
As GLOBE also reported, those accounts are supported by a Kenyan birth certificate that shows Obama was born in Mombasa's Coast Province General Hospital.
"Obama just can't escape the scrutiny over his birthplace," says another insider. Even First Lady Michelle has added to the scandal. During a 2008 speech, she slipped up by referring to her husband's "home country of Kenya."

'Lying to America'
Now, Michelle is at the center of another controversy about their 17-year marriage. Just two years ago, she said in an interview her hubby popped the question at a trendy Chicago restaurant. But Obama's African relatives insist he proposed at the family compound at Kendu Bay, on the shores of Lake Victoria. And his kinfolk even give tours of the mud hut where they say he asked for Michelle's hand in marriage.
"So the Obamas are even lying to America about that," blasts the first insider. "They say he got engaged in Gordon's, a fancy restaurant on Chicago's Clark Street that's now called NAHA.

"This is clearly yet another attempt to hide his Kenyan roots."
Meanwhile, back in America, Obama continues to stifle all attempts to get information about his past.
Along with his official long-form birth certificate from Hawaii, he has steadfastly refused to release education, passport, medical, baptism and other documents that could reveal he is not "a natural born citizen" and is ineligible to be President under the U.S. Constitution.
"There is a massive cover-up of his past," fumes the first insider. "It's time he admitted the truth!"
