

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
Richmond Division

PRETRIAL SCHEDULE A (Judge Hudson)

This Pretrial Schedule A ("Schedule A") shall govern the schedule of events in this action; and, therefore, it is incorporated into the Scheduling Order to which it is attached.

I. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

A. Conflict With Local Rules Or Federal Rules Of Civil Procedure

Because they govern events incident to trial and the control of the Court's docket, the Scheduling Orders and Pretrial Orders issued by the Court and this Schedule A shall control over any perceived conflicting Local Rule or Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, unless the party perceiving a conflict shall raise it by motion, brief it in the manner required by the Local Rules and demonstrate therein why the perceived conflicting provision of a Pretrial Order, a Scheduling Order or Schedule A should not control.

B. Filing Deadlines And Service Of Papers

1. If any filing deadline set in this Schedule A or the Scheduling Order or a Pretrial Order falls upon a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, service on the opposing counsel or party shall be on the last preceding business day. The papers so served shall be filed with the Clerk on the first business day following the Saturday, Sunday, or holiday. The provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 6 shall not apply to alter the time deadlines established by this Schedule A.

2. All original pleadings shall be filed with the Clerk of Court along with one (1) extra copy for Chambers' use. Pleadings in electronic cases shall be filed with the Clerk in accordance with the Electronic Case Filing (ECF) Policies and Procedures Manual, which may be found on the court's website (www.vaed.uscourts.gov/). Courtesy copy, filing deadline, and other ECF information may also be obtained from the website.

3. Motions with exhibits attached shall be filed on the applicable date in all cases, paper or electronic. One (1) courtesy copy, exhibits included, shall be delivered to Chambers by the next business day.

C. Calculation Of The Dates

For the purpose of calculating dates, the date of trial shall not be counted.

D. Settlement

Counsel shall notify the Court immediately of any settlement. The Court will place the case on the docket for presentation of a final order within fifteen (15) calendar days of notification. If a fully executed order is received prior to the presentation date, the case will be removed from the docket and counsel need not appear. If such an order is not timely submitted, the action will be dismissed by the Court with prejudice on the basis of the representation that the action has been settled.

II. MOTIONS

A. Local Rule 7

Local Rule 7 shall govern the filing of motions in this action, except where otherwise stated. All hearing dates should be arranged with the secretary to the district judge.

B. Discovery Disputes

Counsel are expected to resolve discovery disputes without filing pleadings or involving the Court. In the unusual event that resolution of a discovery dispute requires the filing of motions, they shall be filed, briefed and heard in sufficient time to allow completion of the requested discovery by the discovery cut-off date, taking into account the time allowed for responses and replies under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules, or any other Order of the Court. Any discovery-related issues not raised within five (5) calendar days before the discovery cutoff will be deemed waived.

C. Summary Judgment Motions

1. All motions for summary judgment shall be filed at the earliest possible date consistent with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, but such motions shall be filed no later than fifty (50) calendar days before the scheduled trial date. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the parties may file only one (1) summary judgment motion, consolidating all issues, consistent with Local Rule 7(F)(3).

2. A hearing, if desired, shall be scheduled to take place no later than fifteen (15) calendar days before trial.

D. Motions In Limine

Motions in limine, if any, shall be filed in sufficient time, taking into account the time allowed for responses and replies, to be heard no later than ten (10) days before trial. At the discretion of the Court, hearings on motions in limine that take less than ten (10) minutes may be deferred until the morning of trial, or argued at the final pretrial conference.

III. DISCOVERY

A. Filing Discovery

Except for good cause shown by motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(d), discovery materials shall not be filed with the pleadings or papers in any case. Where specific discovery material may appropriately support or oppose a motion, the specific discovery material in question shall be appended as an exhibit to the motion, or in response thereto, without having been previously filed. Discovery material otherwise permitted to be used at trial may be properly so used, if otherwise admissible, without having been previously filed.

B. Privilege Lists

If a party objects to the production of documents on the grounds of attorney-client privilege, attorney work product doctrine, or any other privilege, the objecting party must provide the requesting party with an inventory list of the documents to which objection is made, together with a brief description of the document, including the date, the author, and the identity of each recipient, and the claimed basis for its protection, all of which shall be sufficient to permit the opposing party to assess the claim of privilege or protection.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the claim of privilege or protection shall be waived unless the inventory and description are served with the objections to the request for production in the time required by the Local Rules.

C. Close Of Discovery

All fact discovery, including all supplementation, shall be concluded no later than fifty-five (55) calendar days before trial.

IV. EXPERTS

1. Local Rule 26 shall govern disclosure and discovery of experts and their reports.

2. Unless the Court orders otherwise for good cause shown, expert witnesses and reports not disclosed as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) and (3) and the deadlines established herein shall not be allowed to testify or be admitted into evidence, as the case may be.

3. Only one expert per discipline is permitted, except by order of the Court.

4. Motions challenging the designation of experts shall be filed at least thirty (30) calendar days before trial.

V. TRIAL PREPARATION PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES

A. Written Stipulations

1. No later than twenty-four (24) calendar days before trial, counsel for each party shall meet and confer in a good faith effort to enter into written stipulations of uncontroverted facts. Counsel are admonished that, as officers of the Court, they are obligated to submit summaries that are fair and accurate. Summaries are to be served for both jury and non-jury trials.

3. No later than fourteen (14) calendar days before trial, all parties shall serve on all counsel, a list of all "fairness" or rebuttal designations and amended summaries, as appropriate.

5. No later than nine (9) calendar days before trial, counsel shall confer to resolve objections to discovery designations. If objections are not resolved, the Court should be notified by appropriate motion at least seven (7) calendar days before trial.

It shall be the responsibility of the objecting party to file the specific discovery designation or summary with the party's objections thereto. All such documents shall be clearly marked, indexed, and easily reviewable.
