Civil No. 3:11CV856

MOTION TO INTERVENE IN AND
BENEFIT FROM THE PENDING LAWSUIT

Movant undersigned is a candidate for President of the United States (see attached). He is currently in New Hampshire campaigning in the New Hampshire primary, where he is broadcasting a 30-minute program over the local television station (www.YouTube.com/Martinin2012, see four-part segmentation of the entire 30-minute program which is appearing on local television).

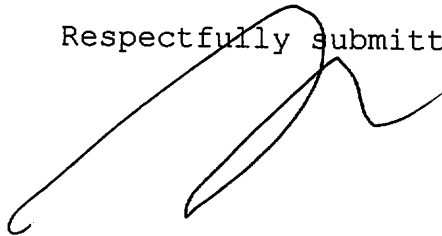

The legislation proposed by the Virginia Attorney General is an insufficient solution, because it benefits the "wealthier" candidates at the expense of the poorer ones, or candidates such as Movant who is forced to self-finance even if he is eligible for federal funding. The AG would confer a benefit on some candidates but not all, by maintaining a second class of disfavored candidates who have to meet more onerous ballot access provisions. In the case of elections for federal office this discrimination is unconstitutional.

Arizona permits candidates to be placed on the ballot by signing simple form, see attached. (Movant has submitted the form for delivery January 9th in Arizona.) Voters should have more choices, not fewer.

Movant asks the Court to (1) allow him to intervene in this lawsuit as a party plaintiff and (2) permit him to obtain the same benefits from the action and any settlement thereof by his co-plaintiffs.

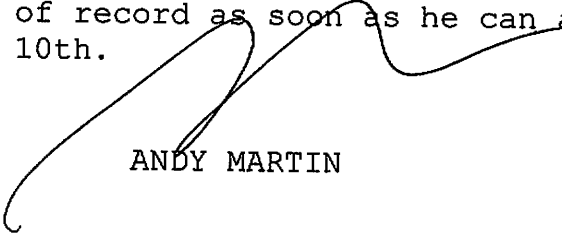

Respectfully submitted,
