Motions

6. A supporting brief must accompany all pretrial motions, unless the motion contains the legal argument necessary to support it or is certified to be unopposed.
7. If any motion, properly filed and briefed, is to be opposed, a brief in opposition must be filed within fourteen (14) days of the date of service of the movant's brief (or within fourteen (14) days of this order if a motion and supporting brief were served before this order). Except for good cause shown, if a brief opposing a motion is not timely filed, the court will consider the motion to be unopposed. If a moving party desires to submit a reply brief, it must be filed within seven (7) days of the date of service of the brief opposing the motion. A surreply brief may not be filed without prior leave of the court.

If no hearing on the motion is necessary, the moving party must file a notice that the motion is ripe for decision, no later than fourteen (14) days after the filing of the last brief on the motion. In any event, if within forty-five (45) days of the filing of any dispositive or nondispositive pretrial motion, no party has scheduled the motion for hearing or advised the court that the motion is ripe for decision, the court may deny the motion with or without prejudice.
