¹The court notes that although Renoir filed a blank notice of appeal with his complaint, as the court had not yet rendered any judgment at the time the notice was received nor has Renoir had opportunity to review this court's instant Memorandum Opinion and Final Order, the court will construe his premature notice as merely additional evidence submitted with his complaint. Renoir is hereby advised that if he desires to appeal this court's decision he must file a notice of appeal within 30 days of the entry of this Final Order.
