

F.3d 221, 223 (7th Cir. 1993) (recognizing that district court may dismiss suit “for reasons of wise judicial administration . . . whenever it is duplicative of a parallel action already pending in another federal court” (internal quotation marks omitted) (omission in original)); Curtis v. DiMaio, 46 F. Supp. 2d 206, 215 (E.D.N.Y. 1999) (dismissing duplicative complaint and observing that “[i]t is well established that federal district courts possess the power to administer their dockets in a manner that conserves scarce judicial resources and promotes the efficient and comprehensive disposition of cases”), aff’d on other grounds, 205 F.3d 1322 (2d Cir. 2000). Accordingly, the court declines to transfer the matter and dismisses the petition without prejudice. Petitioner is advised that he may continue to pursue the action filed with the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia.

The Clerk is directed to send copies of this memorandum opinion and the accompanying order to the petitioner.
