Defendants.	)	United States District Judge

Jackson filed this civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. By orders entered June 25, 2018 and October 30, 2018, the court advised Jackson that he must notify the court immediately upon his transfer or release and provide the court with a new address. See Docket Nos. 4 and 14. The court warned Jackson that failure to notify the court of a change of address would result in dismissal of his case. Id. On April 19, 2019, an order that was sent to Jackson was returned to the court as undeliverable, with no forwarding address and indicating that Jackson had been released from incarceration. See Docket No. 40. Jackson has not provided the court with an updated address and, therefore, the court has no means of contacting him. Accordingly, I will dismiss this action without prejudice. Jackson is advised that he may refile his claims in a separate action, subject to the applicable statute of limitations.

ENTER: This 24th day of April, 2019.
