UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

ABRAHAM GUERRERO,
Plaintiff,
v.
WAL-MART STORES, INC., a For-Profit Corporation,
Defendant.

No. 15-cv-03060LRS
STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Defendant in the above-captioned lawsuit possesses information related to the subject matter of this action that is confidential and the parties recognize that in the course of discovery proceedings it may be necessary to disclose such information. The parties agree that such confidential information is properly usable by other parties solely in connection with these proceedings and wish to ensure that all such information shall be kept confidential and shall not be used for any purpose other than the proceedings in this case. Accordingly, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), to protect the trade secrets and confidential business information of Defendant, the parties to this action, by and through their respective counsel, hereby stipulate to the following protective order (“Protective Order”) for the protection of 1 confidential information, documents, and other things produced or given as part of the 2 disclosure, discovery or litigation process.

3 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

4 1. When used in this Order, the word “documents” means all written, 5 recorded electronic or graphic matter whatsoever, however created and whatever the 6 medium on which it was produced or reproduced.

7 2. “Confidential Information,” as used herein, means:

8 (a) Business information of a proprietary or confidential kind or character; and

9 (b) that is produced or disclosed in response to interrogatories, requests for 10 production or documents or tangible things, subpoenas, questioning at depositions or 11 other testimony, or otherwise in connection with responses to demands for discovery; 12 and

13 (c) that is designated as “Confidential” and in accordance with this Stipulation 14 and Protective Order. In designating information as “Confidential”, a party will make 15 such designation only as to that information that in good faith it believes contains 16 confidential information entitled to the disclosure limitations provided by this 17 Protective Order.

18 3. The parties and their counsel shall not use the Confidential Information 19 provided to them for any purpose other than this lawsuit, or any of its appeals, 20 obtained pursuant to discovery in the above-entitled action.

21 4. The Confidential Information produced under this Stipulated Protective 22 Order may be reviewed only by:

23 A. The parties;
24

1 B. The attorneys in this case for the party receiving the information and 2 their regularly employed staff including secretaries, legal assistants,
3 paralegals and legal copy services;

4 C. Court Reporters should the confidential information be marked as a 5 deposition exhibit or otherwise produced in a deposition.

6 D. Experts retained by the parties as consulting experts or testifying 7 experts.

8 E. As to the parties and their counsel, they will be bound by and will honor 9 all conditions and provisions of this Stipulation and Protective Order.
10 They will provide the persons, described in D, with a copy of this 11 Stipulation and Protective Order and require them to agree to comply 12 with its terms and have them sign Exhibit A, attached, Agreement to Be 13 Bound by Protective Order.

14 F. Any witness who is an employee or former employee of Wal-Mart may 15 be questioned about the Confidential Information during his or her 16 deposition.

17 G. Any confidential document may be raised or discussed in the Courtroom 18 subject to such rulings as the Court may direct regarding such 19 documents.

20 5. Any person not listed in paragraph 4 is precluded from access to the 21 Confidential Information. The parties, and their counsel, and the other individuals 22 identified in paragraph 4 who receive Confidential Information are precluded from 23 sharing the substance or content of the Confidential Information with any other 24 individuals or entities. To prevent unnecessary disclosure the parties agree that no 25 non-party fact witnesses may attend depositions as observers.

1 6 Designations of information as “Confidential” shall be made as follows:

2 (a) In the case of documents produced by a party, or in a party’s
3 written responses to discovery requests, by informing the opposing party in writing
4 that the documents are designated Confidential or by conspicuously stamping page 5 containing such information with the appropriate designation except that where the 6 whole of a document contains Confidential Information the designation on the first 7 page of the document is sufficient;

8 (b) In the case of documents produced by nonparties, by providing a 9 notice in writing to all other parties so identifying such documents within ten (10) 10 business days after receiving copies of such produced documents;

11 (c) In the case of deposition testimony, by a statement on the record at 12 or reasonably near the time of such testimony. A party may also designate deposition 13 testimony as “Confidential” within ten (10) days of receipt of the written transcript of 14 such testimony.

15 (d) In producing original files and records for inspection, no marking 16 need be made by the producing party in advance of the inspection. Thereafter, upon 17 selection of specified documents for copying by the inspection party, the producing 18 party shall mark as “Confidential” the copies of such documents as may contain 19 Confidential Information at the time the copies are produced to the inspecting party or 20 may inform the other party in writing which documents are confidential.

21 (e) Subject to the future terms of a formal agreement between the 22 parties concerning the reasonable scope and parameters of electronic discovery, to the 23 extent such information exists, in producing non-paper media (e.g., audiotape, 24 computer disks, devices, etc.), the outside of the medium or its container, if any, shall 25 be conspicuously marked with the proper designation. Documents on non-paper

1 media shall be marked, when possible, manual electronically-applied “Confidential”
2 designations as set forth in (a).

3 (f) A non-party may claim the protection of this Protective Order for 4 Confidential Information that it provides pursuant to discovery demands in this action
5 by designating such information in accordance with the provisions of this Paragraph 6 of this Protective Order.

7 7. Except as provided in this paragraph, the Confidential Information shall 8 not be filed by the parties as public record with the court, unless 8 days advance 9 notice is given to the designating party’s counsel. The party asserting any 10 confidentiality right under this Order hereby consents that the date for hearing on any 11 motion in which the other party seeks to use Confidential Information may be 12 extended, upon that party's request, to allow for the notice provision stated herein.

13 8. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall prejudice or preclude 14 any party from applying to the court for additional or different protective relief in 15 respect of the Confidential Information, should the need arise during this litigation, 16 nor shall anything in this Stipulated Protective Order preclude or prevent any party 17 from seeking relief from the court pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order or in 18 respect of other discovery requests. This Protective Order does not affect or alter a 19 party’s rights to refuse to produce information properly subject to the attorney-client 20 privilege or attorney work-product doctrine, or otherwise object to, and seek relief 21 from, another party’s discovery requests.

22 9. Nothing herein shall prevent disclosure beyond the terms of this Order if 23 each party designating the information as “Confidential” consents to such disclosure

24 10. The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this 25 litigation. The confidential information shall be returned to counsel for the party

1 providing it or destroyed within thirty (30) days following completion of this lawsuit,
2 including any appellate review.
