Third Party Defendants

1 COMES NOW the Plaintiff, James S. Gordon, Jr., and hereby opposes
2 Defendant's "Motion For Authority To Respond To Plaintiff's Statement Of 3 Material Fact And For Rescheduling Of Telephonic Argument."

4
5 The Plaintiff notes at the outset that the factual record before the Court is 6 very limited. The declarations of James S. Gordon, Jr., the declaration of Eric
7 Castelli, the declaration of James A. Bodie, and the declaration of Mr. Philip
8 Huston form the entire factual basis for each of the respective parties' contentions
9 before the court. Cumulatively, this entire record is less than 30 pages, excluding 10 exhibits. Accordingly, it may be the case that the Court is comfortable deciding the 11 motion before it without considering any statement of facts under LR 56.1. If so,
12 the Plaintiff hereby offers to strike its LR 56.1(c) Statement of Facts filed with the 13 Court September 30, 2005 if, and only if, the Court will allow the matter to be 14 heard October 12, 2005, as it is now scheduled. In the alternative, the Plaintiff
15 notes that the Defendant will have every opportunity to argue the facts any way it
16 sees fit at the hearing on October 12th, and therefore objects to the Defendant's
17 motion to, yet again, delay the Court from hearing this motion.
18
19
20
21

22 The Plaintiff concedes that the Plaintiff's motion, filed August 17, 2005, did
23 not include a statement of facts as set forth in LR 56.1(a). The Defendant could

1 have filed a motion to strike the Plaintiff's motion on that basis. But the Plaintiff's
2 failure to file a statement in no way prevented the Defendant from filing its own
3 statement of facts under LR 56.1(b). The Defendant simply chose not to do so.
4 Instead, the Defendant waited until the very last minute, a mere TWO DAYS before
5 the motion is to be heard, and has now asked the Court for more time. The Court
6 should deny this dilatory tactic.
7
8

9 The Defendant has had ample opportunity to file its statement of facts with 10 the Court. It has been almost two months since the Plaintiff filed its original
11 motion. At any time during those two months, the Defendant could have filed a 12 statement of facts or a motion to strike. Indeed, during this time, the Defendant did
13 file a motion to strike which resulted in the motion being moved back two 14 additional weeks. However, Defendant's motion to strike failed to raise any issue
15 regarding the Plaintiff's compliance with LR 56.1, and therefore the objection was 16 arguably waived.
17
18
19

20 During this time period the Defendant also filed an "amended" answer, two 21 motions to shorten time, and a motion to set the motion for telephonic argument.
22 The Defendant should have raised their objection concurrently with any or all of 23 these filings, and could have filed its own statement of facts at any time during this

1 period. The Defendant has only itself to blame for the fact that it has not, even 2 now, done so.

4 CONCLUSION

5 The Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court deny the Defendant's
6 request for authority and rescheduling.
