28 - No. CV-04-5125-FVS

1 memorandum in opposition to Defendant's motion to strike Plaintiff's statement of 2 facts.

3
4 Included with the Defendant's Response to Plaintiff's Statement of Material
5 Facts is language that purports to be a "motion" to strike Plaintiff's Statement of 6 Material Facts. The Plaintiff hereby respectfully requests that the Court decline this 7 request on both procedural and substantive grounds.
8

9 Substantively, the Defendant's allegation that the Plaintiff's Statement of 10 Material Facts "fails to set forth Plaintiff's facts in a serial fashion" is simply false.
11 The Plaintiff's statement (dkt. 97) consists of consecutively numbered, declarative
12 statements, each with a specific citation to the record. A simple reading of the 13 statement thus demonstrates that the facts are set forth in serial fashion, as required
14 by the rule. The Defendant's other claim is that the statement does not comply
15 with LR 56.1 because it contains "narrative and comment" and "inappropriate
16 argument and legal conclusions." However, the Plaintiff's statement was filed 17 concurrent with the Plaintiff's reply. Accordingly, it followed the instructions of 18 LR 56.1(c) which explicitly invites exactly the type of comment, argument, and 19 conclusions about which the Defendant complains. Even if the Court applies the 20 requirements of LR 56.1(a), there is nothing in the rule that prohibits comment,
21
22
23
24
25

1 argument, and conclusions as long as the facts themselves are set forth in serial
2 fashion. Plainly, the statement complies with both the spirit and the letter of the 3 rule.

5 Procedurally, the Defendant's "motion" should be denied because it fails to 6 follow the local rules. One would think that since the Defendant's motion is a
7 complaint about compliance with the local rules, the Defendant would have been 8 careful to comply with those same local rules when bringing their motion.
9

10 Unfortunately, they didn't. Specifically, LR 7.1(h) requires that any party filing a 11 motion "shall also file a notice setting the time, date and place for a hearing on the 12 motion." The Defendant's Response to Plaintiff's Statement of Material Facts
13 contains no such notice, nor does it even purport to set a time, date or place for a
14 hearing on the motion. LR 7.1(b) requires the moving party "shall serve and file
15 with the motion a memorandum setting forth the points and authorities relied upon
16 in support of the motion." Assuming that the Defendant's Response to Plaintiff's 17 Statement of Material Facts is itself a motion, then no memorandum of points and 18 authorities has ever been filed. Accordingly, under LR 7.1(h)(5), the court may 19 consider this failure as consent on the part of the Defendant "to the entry of an 20 Order adverse" to the Defendant. Alternatively, assuming that the Defendant's 21

25

1 Response to Plaintiff's Statement of Material Facts is itself a memorandum of 2 points and authorities, then no motion has ever been filed. Either way, the 3
4 Defendant's have failed to comply with the rule, and the Court should enter an
5 Order adverse to the Defendant.

6 Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court deny the Defendant's motion to 7
8 strike these facts.
