FILED IN THE
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

DEC 12 2005

JAMES R. LARSEN, CLERK
DEPUTY
RICHLAND, WASHINGTON

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT RICHLAND

James S. Gordon, Jr., Plaintiff, vs.

Impulse Marketing Group, Inc.,
Defendant

Impulse Marketing Group, Inc.,
Third-Party Plaintiff,

v.

Bonnie F. Gordon, Jamila Gordon,
James Gordon III, and Jonathan
Gordon, Third-Party Defendants

Case No.: CV-04-5125-FVS

REPLY/ RESPONSE TO
DEFENDANT AND THIRD PARTY PLAINTIFF'S SECOND
AMENDED THIRD PARTY
COMPLAINT AND THIRD
AFFIDAVIT OF THIRD-PARTY
DEFENDANTS, BONNIE F.
GORDON, JAMILA GORDON,
JAMES S. GORDON III, AND
JONATHAN GORDON

TO: Clerk of the Court

AND TO: Floyd E. Ivey, Attorney for Third-Party Plaintiff

1 The following affidavit will include a response to the five causes of 2 actions by Impulse, because third party defendants do not know which 3 elements are more properly placed in each document or section.

4 Therefore, Third Party Defendant(s) declare(s) as follow(s):

- 5 1) We, individually, are, Bonnie F. Gordon, Jamila Gordon,
6 James Gordon III, and Jonathan Gordon - named third party 7 defendant in the above captioned lawsuit. We are each over the 8 age of 18 and are otherwise competent to testify.
- 9 2) No breach of contract took place by third party defendants as 10 there was no meeting of the minds and no consideration 11 exchanged (no benefit of the bargain in Impulse's words). In 12 fact, the only contract to exist between Impulse and third party 13 defendants is the attached – Exhibit 1. It was sent to Impulse 14 and/or its marketing parties at least 70 times during 2004 –
15 commencing January 27, 2004. Exhibit 1A is the ownership 16 information from the Registrar (Network Solutions) of the 17 Impulse domain, "impulsemg.com". And the email address
18 systemadmin@IMPULSEMG.COM is Impulse's official contact 19 email for its domain – it is the address to which the contract 20 was sent. No contract whatsoever was introduced by Impulse or 21 its unnamed marketing partners. Impulse has produced no 22 facts of the existence of any other contract – only the mere 23 suggestion of same. As a result, Impulse's claim regarding 24 breach of contract is without merit – unless the breach is stated 25 in terms of Impulse NOT paying the $500 per email fee to

1 Plaintiff and/or third party defendants required by the only 2 extant contract between the parties.

- 3 3) Plaintiff's attached email complaint (Exhibit 2) was 4 simultaneously sent to his Internet Service Provider, Impulse 5 or its marketing agent's Internet/network service provider, the 6 Federal Trade Commission, and the Washington State Attorney
7 General's Office (these email addresses are visible in the email).
8 This complaint represents just one of approximately 50 such 9 complaints regarding Impulse's spamming practices which was 10 sent to these authorities in an effort to stop the spamming by 11 Impulse and its agents. These complaints defeat Impulse's 12 allegations of continually soliciting emails from Impulse and its 13 unnamed third party marketers as the effect of the complaints 14 could/would be to terminate the service of the spammer(s), in 15 question – thereby ending the receipt of emails from that 16 spammer. The timing of the complaints in the fall of 2003 also 17 defeat the twin claims of indemnity and contribution as 18 Impulse and/or its agents unilaterally elected to continue 19 sending email to "gordonworks.com" after Impulse and its 20 agents were "put on notice" that its commercial ads were 21 unwanted at "gordonworks.com" via 50+ complaints, 70+
22 messages which included a contract for the receipt of unwanted 23 email (i.e. Exhibit 1), and a lawsuit which was filed against it.
24 Nonetheless, Impulse has sent over three hundred emails to 25 "gordonworks.com" since the inception of the lawsuit by Plaintiff. And Impulse's agents have sent tens of thousands of 1 emails to "gordonworks.com" despite thousands of requests to 2 stop. Therefore, Impulse's twin claims of indemnity and 3 contribution are without merit. Impulse's actions or lack 4 thereof are the direct cause of any loss/liability, which it now 5 faces. Additionally, Impulse has done nothing to mitigate the 6 ongoing damages to opposing party(ies). As a matter of equity, 7 Impulse's liability can not be transferred to the party(ies), 8 which have/has made the only verifiable attempts to stop the 9 email.

- 10 4) I/we have seen and/or am/are aware of the repository of 11,000+ 11 (eleven thousand plus) separate and distinct complaints made 12 by Plaintiff. If one believes Impulse's rendition of the facts, 13 these 11,000 actual and verifiable complaints would have to 14 have been made contemporaneously with the alleged repeated 15 opting-in and opting-out fiction proffered by it. Such a 16 proposition is nonsensical and counter-productive to anyone 17 allegedly wanting to promote a scheme to cause Impulse and its 18 unnamed third party marketers to send them more email as 19 the Plaintiff's complaints would put alleged spammers out of 20 business frustrating an alleged scheme to entrap Impulse et al.
- 21 5) We, individually, have never signed up to receive email from 22 any web site, which identified itself as Impulse Marketing 23 Group, Inc. using the email addresses identified as part of this 24 lawsuit. And Impulse has introduced no facts which 25 demonstrate culpability on my/our part(s). Email sent to Bonnie Faye Gordon, Emily Abbey and James S. Gordon, Jr.

1 are attached to this affidavit as each indicate a true and correct
2 subscriber profile (Exhibit 3) contradicting the false allegations 3 made by Impulse. In other words, each email address is 4 accurate and true; the recipient's name is accurate and true; 5 and the street address is accurate and true – these three 6 components are the essential elements of an accurate
7 subscriber profile – no other components of the subscriber 8 profiles were alleged to exist and/or to be relevant by Impulse.
9 Impulse has presented no fact or information to illustrate or 10 indicate fraud and deceit – the instant exhibit (#3) is 11 exculpatory in terms of the fraud and deceit allegation.

- 12 6) We, individually, are aware of the email aliases created (using 13 our respective names) by Plaintiff. However, I/we did not create 14 them or use them to solicit emails. Email aliases are as 15 common as nicknames – scores of aliases were used by Impulse 16 in its spam to Plaintiff and third party defendants. A few of 17 Impulse's and/or its agents' aliases are highlighted in Exhibit 2.
- 18 7) We, individually, have never entered into any contract with 19 Impulse Marketing Group, Inc. to send or receive email or to 20 sue or not to sue Impulse other than Exhibit No. 1. The fraud 21 and deceit allegation above was shown to be false. Further, the 22 fact that Impulse and/or its agents still send email to the email 23 addresses bearing the names of the third party defendants, 24 which it claims are bad leads belies this assertion. IF the lead 25 was bad, the email would bounce (or go to an unintended party), no fact or allegation was made by Impulse to 1 substantiate this outcome. IF the lead was bad, an honest 2 company would cease sending emails and otherwise using the 3 lead for profit - no fact or allegation was made by Impulse that 4 it or its agents have stopped using the alleged bad leads. In 5 fact, hundreds of emails are sent to email addresses bearing the 6 names of third party defendants each week from Impulse and 7 its agents. Either Impulse is knowingly buying and selling 8 allegedly bad/fraudulent leads or the leads are good. There can 9 be no tortious interference as alleged by Impulse based on non-10 existent fraud and deceit. It is Impulse and/or its agents which 11 continue to send emails to the "gordonworks.com" domain - 12 long after (two years) it/they were asked to stop.

- 13 8) There is no factual inconsistency on page 6, line 20 in 14 defendant's motion in opposition as Plaintiff has created many 15 email accounts and aliases for each of us, which have nothing to 16 do with this lawsuit. My/our email account(s) can be and/or 17 is/are discontinued when it is/are overrun with spam and new 18 email accounts supplant the old ones. Plaintiff has served as an 19 Internet Service Provider as well as a technical resource - he 20 has purchased, built, and upgraded computers (hardware and 21 software) for each of us.
- 22 9) To the best of my/our knowledge there is no such thing as 23 "Impulse-related website terms and conditions". This term 24 appears to have been created to engender a relationship which 25 does not in fact exist - perhaps to provide the veneer of standing. Impulse fails to state its actual ownership or

1 authorship or lack thereof of any contract or web site privacy 2 policy it alludes to.

- 3 10) Third party defendants have filed no lawsuit against anyone for 4 spam – no conspiracy exists by third party defendants against 5 Impulse.
- 6 11) Impulse has sued the wrong party(ies). I/we believe that 7 Impulse lacks standing to assert claims and/or causes of action 8 on behalf of an unrelated unnamed third party(ies) which 9 own(s) the web site(s), in question. The lack of standing alone 10 should defeat its lawsuit against third party defendants.
- 11 12) Impulse has sued the wrong party(ies). It is/was the duty of the 12 rightful owner of the website to ensure true and correct 13 subscriber profiles were sent/sold/exchanged with Impulse. Any 14 claim which arises from an act of omission or commission is 15 properly directed into arbitration with or a lawsuit against the 16 party providing the allegedly defective product, service, or 17 information. No facts exist which illustrate the falsity of any 18 information allegedly provided by third party defendants. To 19 the contrary, this affidavit provides documentary evidence, 20 which tends to exculpate third party defendants in terms of 21 their alleged individual and collective culpability in this matter
22 - actual email from defendant and/or its agents with correct 23 subscriber profile information defeat its specious claims of 24 fraud and deceit. Impulse has failed to provide a single instance 25 of a fraudulent fact regarding the allegedly inaccurate profiles.
- 13) Impulse has sued the wrong part(ies). Therefore, injunctive

1 relief is more properly granted to the recipients of Impulse's 2 emails as the control of what is sent, how, to whom, and when 3 it is sent is at the sole discretion and control of Impulse not 4 third party defendants. Further, having defeated the four prior 5 baseless causes of action by Impulse there is no need for an 6 injunction – unless it is requested by third party defendants to 7 stop emails from Impulse and its agents. Among those emails 8 are solicitations for pornography, counterfeit drugs, stocks and 9 mortgage scams, and other attempts to obtain personally 10 identifying information – possibly for identity theft purposes.

11 14) Documentary evidence is attached, which foils Impulse's cause 12 of action pertaining to breach of contract in the form of Exhibit 13 No. 1. Documentary evidence is attached, which foils Impulse's 14 cause of action pertaining to indemnity and contribution in the 15 form of Exhibit No. 2. Documentary evidence is attached, which 16 foils Impulse's cause of action pertaining to fraud and deceit in 17 the form of Exhibit No. 3. Even if Exhibit No. 3 did not exist, 18 Impulse's non-stop use (for profit), into December of 2005, of 19 the subscriber profiles which it alleges to be false, makes it a 20 liar or a scam artist selling allegedly bad leads. As for Impulse's 21 cause of action pertaining to tortious interference, this claim is 22 without substance as there has been no fraud and deceit (at 23 least not on the part of third party defendants) as it alleges – 24 Impulse can not have it both ways. Finally, without viable 25 causes of action and facts supporting the behaviors it alleges, an injunction is unjust. In light of the facts and information

1 presented above, we trust that this Court will dismiss all 2 claims by Impulse under FRCP 12(b)6.

4 We, individually, declare under penalty of perjury under the laws
5 of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

6 We, individually, reserve the right to set forth affirmative
7 defenses and numerous counterclaims/causes of action against Impulse 8 and John Doe spammers – I/we demand a jury trial, in the event that 9 my/our motion to dismiss Impulse’s lawsuit against third party 10 defendants is denied.
