Rub-a-Dub-Double

in Reader Questions by Guigar
Thursday, February 21, 2008 - 11:45 PM

A reader writes... I'm a 27-year-old woman who has been married for 18 months. So far, things have been great. My husband is loving and supportive, and we get along well. There is one small problem: He insists on showering with me every day. I thought this was cute at first, but now it's a pain. It's crowded — sometimes I just want to be alone and relax. And when I need to shave my legs, I have to take another shower later. I suggested we shower separately, and he got all hurt and mopey for a few days. How can I get him to shower alone?

For years, cartoonists of all stripes have dreamed about making a living from their comics. But until recently their only avenue of success was through a syndicate or publisher. Now, more and more cartoonists are doing it on their own and self-publishing their comic strips on the Web. This 200-page book from Image Comics takes you through everything you'll need to take your idea from concept to strip...from strip to hobby...and from hobby to full-time job.

Written by four pros who know the ins and outs of the Web — Dave Kellet (Sheldon), Scott Kurtz (PvP), Brad Guigar (Evil Inc.) and Kris Straub (Starslip Crisis) — "How To Make Webcomics" takes you on a step-by-step tour of everything you need to know to make, post and profit from your online comics.

A Real Animal in the Bedroom

in Reader Questions by Guigar

Friday, February 08, 2008 - 09:24 PM

A reader writes... I love my girlfriend very much. We are even planning to buy a place together. However, I am beginning to worry about how I will cope sleeping in a bed every night with two dogs. When I'm at her place, some nights I can't fall asleep as I await the inevitable tousling of covers, trot across the bedroom floor, slurping of water, or bouncing in mid-air to be let outside at 3 a.m. My gal is used to this and has no problem sleeping. I've never had a dog and while I try to be sympathetic, I don't quite see the benefit of having pets in bed. We've put the dogs in a basement pen on a few occasions, but she feels guilty when we do. Problem is, I get up well before dawn for work and I need my rest. We've talked about it and I've expressed my unease but haven't found a solution. Any ideas?

"Do You Like Me NOW?"

in Reader Questions by Guigar

Thursday, January 31, 2008 - 11:45 PM

A reader writes... I'm 18 and the problem is that every time I meet a guy I like I instantly try to do any and everything to make him like me as much as I like him. That means I end up having sex with him and things are great for him, but not for me. He only wants sex or to just be friends. I don't know why, but I always expect men to change. There's a guy I'm seeing now I really like, but could I do anything to make him want me in other ways than just sex? We rarely talk anymore and when we do, it's great, but it doesn't go too deep. I tried leaving him, but I constantly think about him. I feel so lost. Can you help me out?

Tonight's the Night!

in Reader Questions by Guigar

Thursday, January 24, 2008 - 11:45 PM

A reader writes... My husband and I have been married for 20 years.

We have three children and I am committed to the "long term" of this marriage. We seemed sexually compatible during courtship. Shortly after the honeymoon, we had sex less and less. Now we are down to two or three times a year and only if HE feels like it. This just makes me want to cry. Over the years we have tried counselling, medical doctors, testosterone therapy, talking, honesty and everything I can think of. I have learned not to ask, caress or flirt as not to risk repeated rejection. Sometimes I feel like I am slowly dying inside. My husband knows all this and I think he cares and loves me but because he has a very low sex drive, it is not an issue for him. He believes that I am putting too much emphasis on sex in a marriage and that it is not what makes a good marriage. I believe that a true intimate relationship is very important. I have no interest in anyone besides my husband. I guess I am closer and closer to giving up totally. What a shame, part of me feels like I am wasting my life. Am I putting too much emphasis on sex?

R Young Art

Dance & Concert Originals

Figurative Originals

Available Prints

Welcome to the R Young Art website, featuring the original, fine art oil paintings, sketches, drawings and pastel artwork produced by myself, Richard Young. The style of my artwork is modern, yet classical / traditional and occasionally contemporary. The composition and technique I use is influenced and inspired by the realism and romanticism of my favourite post renaissance Masters and their wonderful, timeless masterpieces. Especially Bouguereau... Predominantly figurative, the tendency of my artwork is towards carefully composed anonymity, capturing the emotions and self belief of the subject, rather than characteristic individual representation. The creation of figurative artwork not only depicts the emotions of the artist, it transforms the artist's emotions. Also, it is far easier for all of us to carefully scrutinize figurative artwork and judge its anatomical accuracy, often creating a more personal understanding of specific favourite pieces. My figurative artwork, including portraits and nudes, is sensual and sometimes tastefully erotic. My ballerinas and flamenco / belly / tango dancers are passionate, moody and emotional. My preferred lighting, shading and contrast are dramatic. I simply adore light and am fascinated with its arguably undue influence on any subject. After all, without light, what is art? Unlike the vast majority of past and current artists, I delve extensively between the extremes of highlights and lowlights in my artwork in a chiaroscuro technique, occasionally minimalist, often leaving the viewer's mind to complete the picture and to add depth. I always strive to create an atmosphere in whatever I produce, at the highest possible quality and using a knife, brush, canvas and a very limited colour palette of oil paint or pastels, often alla prima, mixing and blending only on the canvas!

Whether you're a collector, you appreciate the creativity and value of fine art, or you're simply an admirer of skilful and talented visual arts, purchasing, owning and living with an original artistic creation is an exciting and extremely personal experience, be it a figure study, ballerina, dancer, nude, a portrait, or any other form of painting or print. It is also both satisfying and fulfilling, a way of seeing the world differently, seeing yourself differently, opening and challenging your thoughts to a different perspective and wider dimension, arousing your senses and stimulating your mind, let alone uniquely transforming an area of your home to one that you can truly be proud of. Art should be viewed, pondered, admired, exhibited, proudly displayed, carefully scrutinized, and in order to benefit to the fullest extent possible, it should be understood from the perspective of its creator - the professional artist. This is obviously not always quite as simple as it seems, though if a viewer has similar feelings to me about art, he or she will connect with my artwork and better understand me. Art is a thing of beauty, not just an investment. My website, galleries that display my artwork, and exhibitions, should hopefully be a friendly and enjoyable place to look at some of my artwork, irrespective of whether you are interested in purchasing either an original or a print.

I personally invite all art lovers of the purest form, whether you're an established or prospective client, a corporate buyer, an individual seeking knowledge, or you're simply interested in discovering more about my exclusive artwork, to come into my world, enjoy my finest works, and find out more. And thank you for taking the time to visit my website, please do visit again, as new artwork is usually added monthly.

Meanwhile, I can do no better than to quote one of my favourite literary artists Oscar Wilde: "The pleasure that one has in creating a work of art is a purely personal pleasure, and it is for the sake of this pleasure that one creates. The artist works with his eye on the object. Nothing else interests him. What people are likely to say does not even occur to him. He is fascinated by what he has in hand. He is indifferent to others. If my work pleases the few, I am gratified. If it does not, it causes me no pain."

Nude recreation is growing in popularity; over 18% of all Americans would find a visit to a nudist club or other clothes-free experience a highly desirable vacation choice, according to survey results in USA Today. If you and your family have considered giving skinny dipping a try, see yourself as a longtime nudist, or would like to join or visit a nudist club or resort, you're not alone. And you've come to the right place to learn more from the credible voice of reason for nude recreation-The American Association for Nude Recreation.

Dear

COPI

Your Materials Selection Review Form regarding Yahoo Instant Messenger was forwarded to me. I understand that you were unable to use this site because it was blocked by our filter. It was blocked under the category "Instant Messaging." Our library system does not allow instant messaging on our public access computers. To complicate matters further, you would not be able to access this site using a library computer even if we did not block it with our Internet filter. The site requires one to download software, which we do not allow as this would represent a potential security threat. I regret any inconvenience this has caused you. If you would like to discuss this in more detail, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Dan Howard
Director of Public Services

Your email message was forwarded to me. I looked at www.mkcphotography.phanfare.com and received the following message:

Unrecognized Username

The given username is not valid. Please check the URL and try again.
If you need help please consult the Phanfare Support Site.

I tried a slightly different spelling (www.mkcphotography.phanfare.com) and got the same result. www.mkcphotography.phanfare.com is not blocked by our filter. I looked at www.mckphotography.com and found that it does not appear to be a site that our filter would block. Do you think that www.mckphotography.com is the sight you are looking for? If it is, we can likely help you access it. I am sorry about any inconvenience this has caused you. We will do our best to clear this up right away.

Your message was passed along to me. We currently have runescape blocked at some of our library branches because it causes our computers to crash. For example, when one person starts playing on this site using one computer, it causes that computer to lose its connection with other computers in that same library branch, causing those computers to crash. We are working hard to solve this problem and we hope to be able to unblock runescape soon. Until we solve this, we will have to keep it blocked. We know that this is a popular site and we regret any inconvenience this may cause you.

FYI:

By the end of today, Friday October 12th, we will have unblocked Craigslist.org. Barbara and Chad are amazing and have figured out how to block access to Craigslist.org personals, but allow access to the rest of Craigslist.org. We will continue to block access to the personals, but other parts of Craigslist.org will be accessible from our library Internet computers.

I am slowly configuring all the routers to allow Craigslist but block the personal ads.

I mean slowly because I am having to work with each individual router (I have done all the branches up to OKanogan..). My promise is that I will have this completed by late this afternoon or evening.

Dear

Your message was passed along to me. We currently have runescape blocked at some of our library branches because it causes our computers to crash. For example, when one person starts playing on this site using one computer, it causes that computer to lose its connection with other computers in that same library branch, causing those computers to crash. We are working hard to solve this problem and we hope to be able to unblock runescape soon. Until we solve this, we will have to keep it blocked. We know that this is a popular site and we regret any inconvenience this may cause you.

Dan

This request came from the Moses Lake Library and I have not responded to the patron.

This was an oversight on my part. The day I unblocked Craigslist at the branches, ML was experiencing Internet problems and was down. I have updated their router as of this morning to allow craigslist.

I apologize,

BW

Hi, I am 15 years old, and I am requesting that you reconsider the blockage of Msn messaging. This is the only outlet of speaking to my friends during the weekends since I haven't got a phone, and We do not have Internet at home. I need this in order to speak with friends (responsibly of course) and to be able to communicate with them about things going on in the future. This would help me out a lot. Please reconsider.

Dear

Your message was passed along to me. We currently have runescape blocked at some of our library branches because it causes our computers to crash. For example, when one person starts playing on this site using one computer, it causes that computer to lose its connection with other computers in that same library branch, causing those computers to crash. We are working hard to solve this problem and we hope to be able to unblock runescape soon. Until we solve this, we will have to keep it blocked. We know that this is a popular site and we regret any inconvenience this may cause you.

I have not responded to this patrons request which came from Quincy.

I am "assuming" that the sites he was looking at to get the logo were blocked because of our image search filter. When I did a search for the logo on google all the pics across the top of the screen were blocked because they were "google images"

Here are some sites that were not blocked that had the logo (that could be copied). I thought perhaps you would like to include them in your reply

I did not respond to this patron from Omak.

I am not quite sure why she was blocked access to Google. Spoke with the staff last night and it was NOT blocked. I am assuming again that it was not google but perhaps google images.

RE: Review of Flickr.com

As you and I discussed, I reviewed a Material Selection Review Form regarding a patron's experience at the Wenatchee Public Library today. This patron said that she entered the search term "Leif Garrett" on Google on one of the Internet computers at the Wenatchee Public Library this morning at about 9 AM. She encountered a site on the first page of Google responses that said "Leif Garrett Flickr – Shared Photos." She opened that site and saw pictures of naked men. I spoke with her today at about 11 AM. She was unable to determine the site on which she saw these pictures. While she was on the phone, I tried to replicate her experience and was unable to find a site like she described. I apologized for her experience and she indicated that she would contact me if she encountered this site again. Flickr is not blocked by our Internet filter. A review of Flickr Community Guidelines suggests that they do not allow the posting of photos containing nudity or illegal material. They say, "If you would hesitate to show your photos to a child, your mum, or Uncle Bob, that means it needs to be filtered."

Flickr Community Guidelines

Flickr accounts are intended for personal use, for our members to share photos that they themselves have taken.

The following Community Guidelines are here to help you understand what it means to be a member of Flickr. Don't forget that your use of Flickr is subject to these Guidelines and our Terms of Use.

What to do

- Do play nice.
We're a community of many types of people, who all have the right to feel comfortable and who may not think what you think, believe what you believe or see what you see. So, be polite and respectful in your interactions with other members.
- Do upload photos that you've taken.
Respect the copyright of others. This means don't steal photographs that other people have taken and pass them off as your own. (That's what favorites are for.)
- Do moderate your content.
You need to take responsibility for ensuring that what you upload is appropriately flagged. If your judgment proves to be poor, we'll moderate your account to match appropriate ratings for safe search and/or content type and send you a warning.
- Do link back to Flickr when you post your photos elsewhere.
The Flickr service makes it possible to post images hosted on Flickr to outside web sites. However, pages on other web sites that display images hosted on flickr.com must provide a link from each photo back to its photo page on Flickr.
- Do enjoy Flickr!
See the world through others' eyes, participate, find your muse, and expand your horizons!

What not to do

Here's the deal: In most circumstances, we like to give second chances, so we'll send you a warning if you step across any of the lines listed below. Subsequent violations can result in account termination without warning.

- Don't upload anything that isn't yours.
This includes other people's photographs and/or stuff that you've collected from around the Internet. Accounts that consist primarily of such collections may be terminated at any time.
- Don't forget the children.
Take the opportunity to filter your content responsibly. If you would hesitate to show your photos to a child, your mum, or Uncle Bob, that means it needs to be filtered. So, ask yourself that question as you upload your photos and moderate accordingly. If you don't, it's likely that one of two things will happen. Your account will be reviewed then either moderated or terminated by Flickr staff.
- Don't show nudity in your buddy icon.
If we find you doing that, we'll remove it and send you a warning. If we find you doing it again, we'll terminate your account.

- Don't upload content that is illegal or prohibited.
If we find you doing that, your account will be deleted and we'll take appropriate action, which may include reporting you to the authorities.
- Don't vent your frustrations, rant, or bore the brains out of other members.
Flickr is not a venue for you to harass, abuse, impersonate, or intimidate others. If we receive a valid complaint about your conduct, we'll send you a warning or terminate your account.
- Don't be creepy.
You know the guy. Don't be that guy.
- Don't use your account to host web graphics like logos and banners.
Your account will be terminated if we find you using it to host graphic elements of web page designs, icons, smilies, buddy icons, forum avatars, badges, and other non-photographic elements on external web sites.
- Don't use Flickr for commercial purposes.
Flickr is for personal use only. If we find you selling products, services, or yourself through your photostream, we will terminate your account. Any other commercial use of Flickr, Flickr technologies (including APIs, FlickrMail, etc), or Flickr accounts must be approved by Flickr. For more information on leveraging Flickr APIs, please see our Services page. If you have other open questions about commercial usage of Flickr, please feel free to contact us.

Here are some other things to keep in mind:

Other People (their content, their behavior)

You will see all sorts of things on Flickr, some of which may offend you. If you are offended by a photo you can either click away from the photo or you can mark it as poorly moderated by clicking on the "Flag this photo" link on a photo page under "Additional Information". If you think there's immediate cause for concern, you can report content and/or someone's behavior to Flickr staff.

Copyright Infringement

If you see your photographs in another member's photostream, don't panic. This is probably just a misunderstanding and not malicious. A good first step is to contact them and politely ask them to remove it. If that doesn't work, please file a Notice of Infringement with the Yahoo! Copyright Team who will take it from there.

You may be tempted to post an entry in our public forum about what's happening, but that's not the best way to resolve a possible copyright problem. We don't encourage singling out individuals or their photos in our public forum.

In Conclusion

We've crafted these guidelines to ensure that everyone within the community has the experience they want. We're all in this together so it's important that you understand the importance of moderating your content responsibly. If you don't feel that you can abide by our Community Guidelines as outlined above, maybe Flickr isn't for you.

If you ever have any questions or comments, we'd love to hear from you. Please feel free to drop us a line through Flickr Help by Email.

Your message was forwarded to me. I examined www.meebo.com and it appears to be a site that hosts instant messaging services. As I mentioned in a previous message, the North Central Regional Library does not provide access to chat rooms. Because we restrict access to chat rooms, we block access to sites that host instant messaging. I am very sorry about any inconvenience this may cause you. We try very hard to provide fair and equitable access to the Internet on library computers. We do not block access to email and you may want to consider that as an option you can use to communicate with others. There is another website that blocked too. Please and please unblock another website that contains instant messaging, they are not downloading program, it is based on javascript. Some people that doesn't have the computer, they can use it from library but they can't have any access. It's not right, we should be playing fair. We should have any access. That website is not pornographic or whatever, it is safe. So please not being nonsense and unblock these website that is based on javascript. Thank you.

You are correct - we do not allow access to chat rooms or instant messaging services to children or to adults. I understand that our approach to the Internet varies from that of the Sultan Library. I am very sorry that this affects your ability to have access to easier conversation than email provides. We have a new videophone at the Wenatchee Public Library that you may want to check out. It is designed for people with hearing disabilities and it is available free of charge. Please let me know if I can help you use the videophone or in any other way.

My point is, what about an adult? They still cannot have a access to chatroom anyway? I moved in wenatchee valley from Sultan, their library does have the access and now you don't allow? What kind of rule is that.
And why? I am deaf and can't talk on the phone! I only have a access to the meebo.com or aim to get a easy access converstation than the emails does. Please understand that.

Not sure I understand why this is blocked. People that want to find pictures of "inappropriate" things can find them without the image search. If they are motivated to do so, they will. Kind of like every other illegal activity. Please don't make life more difficult for the 99.5% of people using the library resources in an acceptable manner (for instance, using the image search to study for anatomy and physiology).

Your message regarding Google Images was passed along to me. We currently block access to this because it disables our Internet filter, allowing access to materials that may be harmful to minors. I regret any inconvenience this may cause you. North Central Regional Library provides only filtered access to the Internet and we cannot allow access to any site that disables our Internet filter. Prior to today I have been to access this particular website using the library however, today it is restricted.

I am currently unemployed and am seeking employment opportunities from surrounding tribal casinos that include Northern Quest & Couer d' Alene. The most current positions are listed on the websites (including job applications to download) and upon review there is no gambling options available or listed. Each provides information such as events, promotions and employment opportunities.

I do not have a computer at home and i have found the GCD Library to be a tremendous assest in my continued search for employment.

Thank you.

I like to go to google image to find pictures to help in my quilting and find it very frustrating to have it blocked and then not blocked and then blocked again.

This filtering came from your branch on Saturday. Can you please help me investigate the problem? The request is for myspace which should not be blocked. If you don't mind testing it out on the public terminals. I would appreciate it.

Thanks
