14 I. PRELIMINARY MATTERS

15 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(f) permits the Court to 16 "strike from a pleading . . . any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, 17 or scandalous matter." At the hearing, "on its own," Fed. R. Civ. P.
18 12(f)(1), the Court struck paragraph 8 on page 2, paragraph 13 on page
19 3, and paragraph 1 on page 4 from Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Amy
20 Clemmons to Destroy all Non-Essential Medical Records of Plaintiff's, 21 13-CV-5028, ECF No. 136; 13-CV-5036, ECF No. 72; 13-CV-5038, ECF No.

26 ¹ The Court declined to consider this motion at the hearing because Defendants had not yet had the chance to respond, but the Court now considers the motion because Defendants responded on April 24, 2015. ECF No. 77.

1 II. PLAINTIFF'S INJUNCTION REQUEST AND MOTION TO COMPEL

2 Plaintiff asks the Court to issue an injunction or an order to 3 compel WSP employees to allow him access to his legal work and to 4 permit Plaintiff to swap out legal work at least two times a week. He 5 also requests that the Court warn Ms. Clemmons and her clients that 6 sanctions may be imposed if they deliberately prevent Plaintiff from 7 accessing his legal work.

8 In response, Defendants filed a declaration by Custody Unit
9 Supervisor Charles Pease. Mr. Pease states that Mr. Troupe is subject 10 to the same property requirements as other inmates. Mr. Troupe is 11 allowed to keep one box of legal materials in his cell at a time and 12 may swap the legal materials in his cell for other legal materials 13 kept in storage. Property is searched each time it is transferred,
14 and property searches are conducted on a first-come, first-served 15 basis. Mr. Pease states that Mr. Troupe has four boxes of legal 16 materials. He was without his legal materials from February 11-27
17 while they were being searched after his return to WSP. On March 3 18 and 16, he was allowed to access all of his materials to organize and 19 label them. On February 27, Mr. Troupe asked to exchange 10 folders
20 for "any 10" more and also returned 11 folders and requested 21 more.
21 He received the requested materials on March 3rd. On that same day, 22 he returned three folders and requested 15 more, which he received on 23 March 16th (there was a delay because WSP had to clarify which folders 24 he wanted). Since his return to WSP in February, Mr. Troupe has 25 received one infraction for keeping contraband in his legal box in his 26 cell.

1 During the hearing, Mr. Troupe alleged that Mr. Pease lied in 2 his declaration and that Mr. Troupe has proof that the declaration was 3 falsified. Mr. Troupe stated that he only had access to his medical 4 records on April 2, not April 1 and 2 as Mr. Pease declared. Mr.
5 Troupe also stated that another WSP employee swears he has not given 6 Mr. Troupe any compact discs (CD) to review, even though Mr. Pease
7 declared that Mr. Troupe had access to CDs on March 20. Although Mr.
8 Troupe submitted a reply related to his Motion to Compel Amy Clemmons
9 to Destroy all Non-Essential Medical Records of Plaintiff's, 13-CV-10 5028, ECF No. 145; 13-CV-5036, ECF No. 82; 13-CV-5038, ECF No. 75, and 11 filed several new motions, see, e.g., 13-CV-5028, ECF Nos. 143, 144 &
12 146, he did not submit a reply or any other documentation in support 13 of his Injunction Request and Motion to Compel and the allegations he 14 made at the hearing.

15 Having carefully reviewed all of the parties' submissions and 16 listened to their oral argument during the hearing, the Court is 17 satisfied that the Department of Corrections's (DOC) policies are 18 reasonable and are being appropriately followed. The Court finds Mr.
19 Pease's declaration to be credible. The Court concludes that Mr.
20 Troupe has adequate access to his legal work, taking into account the 21 necessary safety measures and appropriate penological objectives.²
22 Though it understands the challenges Plaintiff faces in pursuing this 23 litigation, the Court notes that such challenges are inherent when an 24 individual chooses to litigate multiple lawsuits simultaneously. The 25 ² The fact that Mr. Troupe recently received an infraction for keeping 26 contraband in his legal box demonstrates the continued necessity of heightened safety measures and supports the Court's decision not to interfere with DOC's safety procedures.

1 Court has extended time when appropriate to ensure Mr. Troupe is not
2 denied access to the courts. For the above reasons, Plaintiff's
3 Injunction Request and Motion to Compel is denied.

4 III. PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL AMY CLEMMONS TO DESTROY ALL NON-
5 ESSENTIAL MEDICAL RECORDS OF PLAINTIFF'S

6 Plaintiff argues that Ms. Clemmons is in possession of medical 7 records other than those necessary for the defense. Defendants 8 respond that the records were produced by stipulation, are subject to 9 an agreed protective order, and will be destroyed after the litigation
10 is complete. Plaintiff's reply reiterates the arguments made in his 11 motion. Plaintiff previously filed a similar motion, 13-CV-5028, ECF
12 No. 76, which the Court denied, finding that his records were relevant 13 to the litigation, that they were adequately protected by the Joint 14 Agreed Protective Order, and that there is no evidence Ms. Clemmons
15 has failed to abide by the protective order. 13-CV-5028, ECF No. 87.
16 For these same reasons, Plaintiff's present Motion to Compel Amy
17 Clemmons to Destroy all Non-Essential Medical Records of Plaintiff's
18 is also denied.

19 IV. PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO ALLOW DEPOSITION UNDER RULE 32(B)(3)(A)

20 Plaintiff asks the Court to allow him to depose Defendants.
21 Defendants respond that Plaintiff's request does not comply with the 22 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure because he did not provide written 23 notice to the opposing party, Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(1), has not 24 arranged for an appropriate person before whom depositions may be 25 taken, Fed. R. Civ. P. 28, and did not confer with defense counsel
26 before filing this motion, Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(2)(A).
