7 vs.

8 BANK OF AMERICA, N.A., a
9 Delaware corporation,

10 Defendant.

NO. 2:14-cv-00241-JLQ

ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

11
12 BEFORE THE COURT is the parties' Joint Stipulation re: Protective Order
13 Governing Confidential Material (ECF No. 26).

14 It is this court's general policy not to enter "blanket" protective orders. The Ninth
15 Circuit Court of Appeals also does not generally approve of "blanket" protective orders.
16 See Foltz v. State Farm Auto Ins. Co., 331 F.3d 1122 (9th Cir. 2003)(finding it could not 17 sustain the district court's blanket protective order because the district court did not 18 require a specific showing as to particular documents). Rule 26(c) provides that upon a 19 showing of "good cause" the court may enter a protective order. "A party asserting good 20 cause bears the burden, for each particular document it seeks to protect, of showing that 21 specific prejudice or harm will result if no protective order is granted." Foltz, 331 F.3d at 22 1130.

23 The proposed order assuredly states that the "[i]t does not confer blanket 24 protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery; the protection it affords from 25 public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are 26 entitled to confidential treatment under legal principles, and it does not presumptively
27 entitle parties to file confidential information under seal." (ECF No. 26-1 at 3).
28 However, it then broadly defines the scope of protection to "confidential material" and

1 additionally "(1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) all
2 copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential materia; and (3) any
3 testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal
4 confidential information." (ECF No. 26-1 at 3-4). No documents have been provided to 5 the court for a determination of whether good cause exists for a protective order.

6 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

7 1. The Motion for Protective Order (ECF No. 26) is DENIED.

8 2. The parties are free to make agreements concerning the conduct and 9 confidentiality of discovery, and apparently have so agreed. While the court will not 10 enter a Protective Order without a particularized showing as to specific documents, the 11 denial of court participation in the agreement between the parties shall not affect the 12 validity of the agreements as between the parties. The parties have stipulated to terms
13 and conditions to maintain the confidentiality of certain documents. Should the parties 14 have need to file any of the documents with the court, they may file the documents under 15 seal along with a motion to seal, and at that time the court will determine if it is 16 appropriate to seal the documents. The parties shall also comply with Fed.R.Civ.P. 5.2
17 concerning privacy protections for filings made with the court.

18 IT IS SO ORDERED. The Clerk of this court shall enter this Order and furnish 19 copies to counsel.

20 DATED this 6th day of November 2014.
