

1 Plaintiff's hand injury and Plaintiff's interactions with others in the time period
2 leading up to the alleged assault. ECF No. 36. Plaintiff opposes this discovery, 3 arguing that it is not relevant and that the Court previously denied a similar 4 discovery request. ECF No. 39; see ECF No. 36. Although the Court did deny a 5 prior discovery request as overly broad, the current request is more narrowly 6 tailored in scope. The Court finds that the current request is relevant and 7 proportional to the needs of the case. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1).

8 ACCORDINGLY, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

- 9 1. Defendant's Motion to Produce Medical Records and for Protective 10 Order (ECF No. 36) is GRANTED.
- 11 2. Production of the following medical records and/or mental health records 12 shall be done in accordance with and subject to the following provisions:
- 13 a. Because of the large number of documents which may contain 14 discoverable material and the extraordinary amount of time and 15 expense involved in producing redacted documents, un-redacted
16 documents that include personal information such as social 17 security numbers, dates of birth and home addresses of state 18 employees and/or applicants will be provided in discovery. It is 19 recognized that such personal information is highly confidential 20 and should not be shared or disseminated in any way except in

1 accordance with the terms of this Order. Therefore, the following
2 protective provisions shall be followed.

3 b. All records containing confidential personal information provided 4 in discovery are provided solely for use in connection with the 5 prosecution and/or defense of any claims in this litigation and 6 neither the documents nor their contents may be used or 7 disseminated by any person or entity for any other purpose.

8 c. Dissemination of the documents is limited to the attorneys for the 9 parties to this action who may provide copies of the documents, as 10 necessary, to lay and expert witnesses for review. Any witness 11 who receives any documents must be provided with a copy of this 12 Order, must abide by these protective provisions, and may not 13 provide the documents, the contents of the documents, or copies of 14 the documents to any other person. All copies provided to 15 witnesses must be returned to counsel immediately after they are 16 no longer needed by the witness.

17 d. The documents/contents of the documents containing confidential 18 personal information shall not be otherwise disseminated or 19 distributed or made public in any way and, if it becomes necessary
20

1 to file any of these documents, the documents must be filed under 2 seal.

3 e. Within 30 days of the conclusion of this matter by entry of a final 4 order or order terminating review, all documents and copies
5 thereof must be destroyed and/or returned to counsel for Eastern 6 State Hospital.

7 3. Any and all medical records of Plaintiff produced in discovery either by a 8 signed release or subpoena shall be subject to the terms of this protective 9 order. The Court hereby orders that the following records are relevant 10 and/or may lead to discoverable material and shall be produced in 11 discovery and subject to the protections as set out herein:
