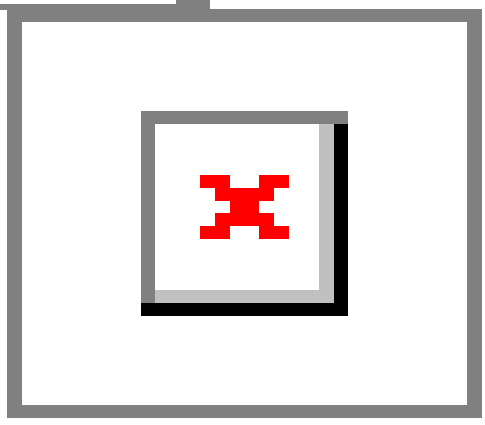
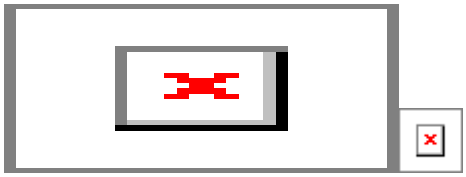
Learning you have advanced prostate cancer can be overwhelming for you and your loved ones. But you can do a lot to help manage your condition by taking an active role in learning about the disease and the treatment options available to you. Of course an important step is to get accurate, reliable information to help you work closely with your healthcare team. Enrolling in PCare can be a great first step to getting information about advanced prostate cancer.





PCare is a free program created specifically to help patients and their loved ones get credible information about the possible ways to manage advanced prostate cancer. PCare also provides tools to help patients and their loved ones work with their healthcare providers.

By simply enrolling in PCare today, you'll receive a complimentary personalized Doctor Discussion Guide. This Guide is instantly created based on your individual responses to a brief advanced prostate cancer enrollment questionnaire, and is designed to help you:

- Understand the importance of preparing for your doctor visits ahead of time
- Learn how to make the most of your visits by asking questions
- Provide you with suggested questions to ask your doctor
- Offer ways which may help you cope with the stress of living with advanced prostate cancer

Beyond this initial Doctor Discussion Guide, PCare will also send you regular E-mails with useful information and practical hints on managing your condition, a possible treatment option, along with a range of supportive resources based on the specific information you provide at enrollment.

If you prefer not to receive future PCare E-mails, click here

The original message was not completely plain text, and may be unsafe to open with some email clients; in particular, it may contain a virus, or confirm that your address can receive spam. If you wish to view it, it may be safer to save it to a file and open it with an editor.
