No. CV7 0411M
CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

07-CV-00411-CMP

SEA 8079 S 411

Plaintiff Tom Whaley, by and through his undersigned attorneys, Myers & Company,
P.L.L.C., brings this civil action for damages on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated against the above-named Defendants and complains and alleges as follows:

I. NATURE OF ACTION

1.1 Mr. Whaley brings this action as a Class Action pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on behalf of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food

MYERS & COMPANY, P.L.L.C.
1809 SEVENTH AVENUE, SUITE 700
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON 98101
TELEPHONE (206) 398-1128

1 which was produced by any of the above-named defendants and/or has had a dog or cat become
2 ill as a result of eating the food.

3 1.2 The defendants are producers and distributors of, inter alia, dog and cat food.
4 Menu Foods produces dog and cat food under familiar brand names such as Iams, Eukanuba and 5 Science Diet. Menu Foods distributes its dog and cat food throughout the United States to 6 retailers such as Wal-Mart, Kroger and Safeway.

7 1.3 Dog and cat food which the defendants produced has caused an unknown number
8 of dogs and cats to become ill and die.

9 1.4 To date, Menu Foods has recalled 50 brands of dog food and 40 brands of cat
10 food which are causing dogs and cats to become ill. All recalled food to date is of the "cuts and 11 gravy wet" style.

12 1.5 As a result of the Defendants' actions Mr. Whaley and other Class members have 13 suffered emotional and economic damage.

15 II. PARTIES

16 2.1 Plaintiff Tom Whaley has at all material times been a resident of Ontario, Oregon.

17 2.2 Defendant Menu Foods is, upon information and belief, a corporation organized
18 under the laws of Canada which transacts business in Washington State and Oregon State.

19 2.3 Defendant The Iams Company, is upon information and belief, a foreign 20 corporation which transacts business in Washington State and Oregon State.

21
22 III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

23 3.1 Subject matter jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because the 24 Plaintiff and Defendants are citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds 25

1 $75,000.00. This court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state law claims pursuant to 28
2 U.S.C. § 1367.

3 3.2 Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a) because 4 the Defendants systematically and continuously sold their product within this district and 5 Defendants transact business within this district.

6 IV. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATION

7 4.1 Mr. Whaley brings this suit as a class action pursuant to Rules 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(2)
8 and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of himself and a Plaintiff Class (the 9 "Class") composed of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food which was produced by the 10 defendants and/or has had a dog or cat become ill as a result of eating the food. Mr. Whaley
11 reserves the right to modify this class definition prior to moving for class certification.

12 4.2 This action has been brought and may be properly maintained as a class action
13 pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the following reasons:

14 a. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of 15 interest among the members of the Class;

16 b. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring 17 all Class members before the Court. The identity and exact number of Class members is 18 unknown but is estimated to be at least in the hundreds, if not thousands considering the fact that 19 Menu Foods has identified 50 dog foods and 40 cat foods which may be causing harm to pets.
20

21 c. Mr. Whaley's claims are typical of those of other Class members, all of 22 whom have suffered harm due to Defendants' uniform course of conduct.

23 d. Mr. Whaley is a member of the Class.
25

1 e. There are numerous and substantial questions of law and fact common to
2 all of the members of the Class which control this litigation and predominate over any individual
3 issues pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3). The common issues include, but are not limited to, the 4 following:

5 i. Did the defendants make representations regarding the safety of 6 the dog and cat food they produced and sold?

7 ii. Were the defendants' representations regarding the safety of the 8 dog and cat food false?

9 iii. Did the defendants' dog and cat food cause Mr. Whaley and other
10 Class members' pets to become ill?

11 iv. Were Mr. Whaley and other Class members damaged?

12 f. These and other questions of law or fact which are common to the 13 members of the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the 14 Class;

15 g. Mr. Whaley will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in 16 that Mr. Whaley has no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and has 17 retained counsel competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent himself and the Class;

18 h. Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage,
19 Defendants' violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendants will 20 continue to enjoy the fruits and proceeds of their unlawful misconduct;

21 i. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the size of 22 individual Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members, few, if 23
25

1 any, Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs Defendants
2 have committed against them;

3 j. This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class
4 claims, economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision;

5 k. Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to 6 obtain class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted
7 methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of Defendants'
8 common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the individual Class
9 members;

10 l. This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's
11 management of it as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means
12 by which members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendants.

13 m. In the absence of a class action, Defendants would be unjustly enriched
14 because they would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of their wrongful conduct.

15 4.3 The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

17 V. STATEMENT OF FACTS

18 5.1 Plaintiff Tom Whaley was the owner of a female cat named Samoya.

19 5.2 Mr. Whaley purchased Iams brand cuts and gravy wet-style cat food from Wal-
20 Mart for Samoya to consume.

21 5.3 Samoya ate the Iams brand cuts and gravy wet-style cat food between December
22 2006 and February 2007.
23
25

1 5.4 Samoya became extremely ill and Mr. Whaley took her to a veterinarian who
2 informed him that Samoya had suffered kidney failure, also known as acute renal failure.
3 Samoya had to be euthanized.

4 5.5 In March 2007 Menu Foods recalled 50 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style dog
5 food and 40 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style cat food which had caused dogs and pets to 6 become ill. One common symptom in the sick animals was kidney failure, also known as acute
7 renal failure.

8 5.6 The Iams brand cuts and gravy wet-style cat food that Samoya consumed between 9 December 2006 and February 2007 is one of the brands that Menu Foods recalled.

10 5.7 As a result of Defendants' acts and omissions Mr. Whaley and other Class
11 members have suffered emotional and economic damage.
12

13 VI. CAUSES OF ACTION

14 A. Breach of Contract

15 6.1 Plaintiff realleges all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

16 6.2 Plaintiff and Class members purchased pet food produced by the defendants based 17 on the understanding that the food was safe for their pets to consume.

18 6.3 The pet food produced by the defendants was not safe for pets to consume and
19 caused dogs and cats to become ill. The unsafe nature of the pet food constituted a breach of 20 contract.

22 6.4 As a result of the breach Plaintiffs and Class members suffered damages which 23 may fairly and reasonably be considered as arising naturally from the breach or may reasonably
24 be supposed to have been in the contemplation of the parties, at the time they made the contract,
25 as the probable result of the breach of it.

1 B. Unjust Enrichment

2 6.5 Mr. Whaley realleges all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

3 6.6 Defendants were and continue to be unjustly enriched at the expense of Mr.
4 Whaley and other Class members.

5 6.7 Defendants should be required to disgorge this unjust enrichment.

6 C. Unlawful, Deceptive and Unfair Business Practices

7 6.8 Mr. Whaley realleges all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

8 6.9 Defendants' sale of tainted pet food constitutes an unlawful, deceptive and unfair
9 business act within the meaning of the Washington Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86 et
10 seq., and similar statutory enactments of other states (including consumer protection and 11 consumer sales practice acts).

12 6.10 Defendants' sale of hazardous pet food has the capacity to deceive a substantial
13 portion of the public and to affect the public interest.

14 6.11 As a result of Defendants' unfair or deceptive acts or practices Mr. Whaley and
15 other class members suffered injuries in an amount to be proven at trial.

16 D. Breach of Warranties

17 6.12 Mr. Whaley realleges all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

18 6.13 Cat food and dog food produced by Menu Foods are "goods" within the meaning
19 of Uniform Commercial Code Article 2.
20

21 6.14 Defendants' conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied or 22 express warranty of affirmation.

23 6.15 Defendants' conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied
24 warranty of merchantability.
25

1 6.16 Defendants' conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied
2 warranty of fitness for a particular purpose.

3 6.17 As a proximate result of the aforementioned wrongful conduct and breach, Mr.
4 Whaley and other class members have suffered damages in an amount to be proven at trial.
5 Defendants had actual or constructive notice of such damages.

6 E. Negligent Misrepresentation

7 6.18 Mr. Whaley realleges all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

8 6.19 Defendants owed Mr. Whaley and class members a duty to exercise reasonable
9 care in representing the safety of its dog and cat foods.
10

11 6.20 Defendants falsely represented that its dog and cat food was safe for consumption
12 by dogs and cats.

13 6.21 In reality, defendants' dog and cat food caused dogs and cats to become ill and, in 14 some cases, to die.

15 6.22 Mr. Whaley and class members reasonably relied on the information provided by 16 Defendants regarding the safety of its dog and cat food.

17 6.23 As a proximate cause of Defendants' false representations Mr. Whaley and other 18 Class members suffered damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

19 VII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

20 WHEREFORE, Mr. Whaley and Class members request that the Court enter an order of 21 judgment against Defendants including the following:

22 A. Certification of the action as a class action pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3) of the 23 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure with respect to the claims for damages, and appointment of 24 Plaintiffs as Class Representatives and their counsel of record as Class Counsel;

3 12. Venue is proper in this judicial district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a) because the
4 Defendant systematically and continuously sold its product within this district and Defendant
5 transacts business within this district.

6 IV. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATION

7 13. Plaintiffs bring this suit as a class action under Rules 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(2) and
8 (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themselves and a Plaintiff Class (the 9 "Class") composed of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by the 11 reserve the right to modify this class definition before moving for class certification.

12 14. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest

14 15. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring all

22 the members of the Class that control this litigation and predominate over any questions affecting 23 only individual members of the Class. The common issues include, but are not limited to, the 26 use as dog or cat food?

1 (b) Whether Defendant breached any contract, implied contract or warranties
2 related to the sale of the dog and cat food?

3 (c) Did the Defendant's dog and cat food cause Plaintiffs' and other Class
4 members' pets to become ill?

5 (d) Were Plaintiffs and other Class members damaged, and, if so, what is the
6 proper measure thereof?

7 (e) The appropriate form of injunctive, declaratory and other relief.

8 19. The prosecution of separate actions by members of the Class would create a risk
9 of establishing incompatible standards of conduct for the Defendant – for example, one court
10 might decide that the Defendant is obligated under the law to pay damages to Class members,
11 and another might decide that the Defendant is not so obligated. Individual actions may, as a
12 practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the Class.

13 20. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in that they
14 have no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and have retained counsel
15 competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent themselves and the Class.

16 21. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient
17 adjudication of this controversy. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the
18 size of individual Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members,
19 few, if any, Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs
20 Defendant has committed against them.

21 22. Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage, Defendant's
22 violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendant will continue to enjoy
23 the fruits and proceeds of its unlawful misconduct.

24 23. This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class claims,
25 economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision.

1 24. Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to obtain
2 class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted
3 methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of Defendant's
4 common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the individual Class
5 members.

6 25. This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's management of it
7 as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means by which
8 members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendant.

9 26. In the absence of a class action, Defendant would be unjustly enriched because it
10 would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of its wrongful conduct.

11 27. The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

12 V. STATEMENT OF FACTS

21 another of the brands that Menu Foods recalled.

22 46. The Iams wet cat food from QFC that Yoda consumed years before his death is 23 also one of the brands that Menu Foods recalled.

24 47. As a result of Defendant's acts and omissions Plaintiffs and other Class members
25 have suffered economic damage.

51. As a result of the breach Plaintiffs and Class members suffered damages that may fairly and reasonably be considered as arising naturally from the breach or may reasonably be supposed to have been in the contemplation of the parties, at the time they made the contract, as the probable result of the breach of it.

VII. UNJUST ENRICHMENT

52. Plaintiffs reallege all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

53. Defendant was and continues to be unjustly enriched at the expense of Plaintiffs and other Class members.

IX. BREACH OF WARRANTIES

59. Plaintiffs reallege all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

60. Cat food and dog food produced by Menu Foods are “goods” within the meaning of Uniform Commercial Code Article 2.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs Audrey Kornelius and Barbara Smith ("Plaintiffs"), by and through their undersigned attorneys, bring this civil action for damages on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated against the above-named Defendant and complain and allege as follows:

I. NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiffs bring this action as a Class Action under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on behalf of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by defendant Menu Foods and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food.

2. The Defendant is a producer of, inter alia, dog and cat food. Menu Foods produces dog and cat food sold under familiar brand names such as Iams, Eukanuba and Science

1 Diet. Menu Foods distributes its dog and cat food throughout the United States to retailers such 2 as Wal-Mart, Kroger and Safeway.

3 3. Dog and cat food that the Defendant produced caused an unknown number of 4 dogs and cats to become ill, and many of them to die.

5 4. To date, Menu Foods has recalled 50 brands of dog food and 40 brands of cat
6 food that have sickened and killed dogs and cats. All recalled food to date is of the "cuts and
7 gravy wet" style.

8 5. As a result of the Defendant's actions, Plaintiffs and other Class members have 9 suffered economic damage.

10 II. PARTIES

11 6. Plaintiff Audrey Kornelius has at all material times been a resident of Ferndale,
12 Washington. Ms. Kornelius has a pet that became sick after eating Defendant's pet food.

13 7. Plaintiff Barbara Smith has at all material times been a resident of Bremerton,
14 Washington. Ms. Smith has a pet that became sick after eating Defendant's pet food.

15 8. Defendant Menu Foods is, upon information and belief, a corporation organized
16 under the laws of Canada that transacts business in Washington State.

17 III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

18 9. Subject-matter jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because the 19 Plaintiffs and Defendant are citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds 20 $75,000.00. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state-law claims under 28 U.S.C.
21 § 1367.

22 10. Venue is proper in this judicial district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a) because the
23 Defendant systematically and continuously sold its product within this district and Defendant
24 transacts business within this district.

IV. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATION

11. Plaintiffs bring this suit as a class action under Rules 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(2) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themselves and a Plaintiff Class (the "Class") composed of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by the Defendant and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food. Plaintiffs reserve the right to modify this class definition before moving for class certification.

12. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest among the members of the Class.

13. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring all Class members before the Court. The identity and exact number of Class members is unknown but is estimated to be at least in the hundreds, if not thousands considering the fact that Menu Foods has identified 50 dog foods and 40 cat foods that may be causing harm to pets.

14. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of other Class members, all of whom have suffered harm due to Defendant's uniform course of conduct.

15. Plaintiffs are members of the Class.

16. There are numerous and substantial questions of law and fact common to all of the members of the Class that control this litigation and predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class. The common issues include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Was the Defendant's dog and cat food materially defective, and unfit for use as dog or cat food?

(b) Whether Defendant breached any contract, implied contract or warranties related to the sale of the dog and cat food?

(c) Did the Defendant's dog and cat food cause Plaintiffs' and other Class members' pets to become ill?

1 (d) Were Plaintiffs and other Class members damaged, and, if so, what is the
2 proper measure thereof?

3 (e) The appropriate form of injunctive, declaratory and other relief.

4 17. The prosecution of separate actions by members of the Class would create a risk
5 of establishing incompatible standards of conduct for the Defendant – for example, one court
6 might decide that the Defendant is obligated under the law to pay damages to Class members,
7 and another might decide that the Defendant is not so obligated. Individual actions may, as a
8 practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the Class.

9 18. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in that they
10 have no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and have retained counsel
11 competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent themselves and the Class.

12 19. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient
13 adjudication of this controversy. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the
14 size of individual Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members,
15 few, if any, Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs
16 Defendant has committed against them.

17 20. Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage, Defendant's
18 violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendant will continue to enjoy
19 the fruits and proceeds of its unlawful misconduct.

20 21. This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class claims,
21 economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision.

22 22. Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to obtain
23 class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted
24 methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of Defendant's
25 common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the individual Class
26 members.

1 23. This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's management of it
2 as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means by which
3 members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendant.

4 24. In the absence of a class action, Defendant would be unjustly enriched because it
5 would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of its wrongful conduct.

6 25. The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

7 V. STATEMENT OF FACTS

8 26. Plaintiff Audrey Kornelius is the owner of a puppy named Shiwa.

9 27. Ms. Kornelius purchased Nutro-Natural Choice Puppy for Shiwa to consume.

10 28. Shewa became extremely ill after consuming Defendant's dog food.

11 29. Plaintiff Barbara Smith is the owner of a cat named Neko.

12 30. Ms. Smith purchased Priority U.S. brand cat food from Safeway for Neko to 13 consume.

14 31. Neko became extremely ill after consuming Defendant's cat food. Ms. Smith's
15 veterinarian has informed her that Neko will need monitoring for life.

16 32. In March 2007, Menu Foods recalled 50 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style dog
17 food and 40 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style cat food that had caused dogs and pets to become 18 ill. One common symptom in the sick animals was kidney failure.

19 33. The Nutro Natural Choice Puppy food that Shiwa consumed is one of the brands
20 that Menu Foods recalled.

21 34. The Priority U.S. brand cat food from Safeway that Neko consumed is also one of 22 the brands that Menu Foods recalled.

23 35. As a result of Defendant's acts and omissions Plaintiffs and other Class members

3 38. The pet food produced by the Defendant was not safe for pets to consume and
4 caused dogs and cats to become ill. The unsafe nature of the pet food constituted a breach of
5 contract.

6 39. As a result of the breach Plaintiffs and Class members suffered damages that may 7 fairly and reasonably be considered as arising naturally from the breach or may reasonably be 8 supposed to have been in the contemplation of the parties, at the time they made the contract, as 9 the probable result of the breach of it.

10 VII. UNJUST ENRICHMENT

11 40. Plaintiffs reallege all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

12 41. Defendant was and continues to be unjustly enriched at the expense of Plaintiffs
13 and other Class members.

14 42. Defendant should be required to disgorge this unjust enrichment.

15 VIII. UNLAWFUL, DECEPTIVE AND UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES

16 43. Plaintiffs reallege all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

17 44. Defendant's sale of tainted pet food constitutes an unlawful, deceptive and unfair
18 business act within the meaning of the Washington Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86 et
19 seq., and similar statutory enactments of other states (including consumer protection and 20 consumer sales practice acts).

21 45. Defendant's sale of hazardous pet food has the capacity to deceive a substantial
22 portion of the public and to affect the public interest.

23 46. As a result of Defendant's unfair or deceptive acts or practices, Plaintiffs and 24 other Class members suffered injuries in an amount to be proven at trial.
