14. Plaintiffs bring this suit as a class action pursuant to Rules 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(2) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themselves and a Plaintiff Class (the "Class") composed of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food which was produced by the defendants and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food. Plaintiffs reserve the right to modify this class definition prior to moving for class certification.

15. This action has been brought and may be properly maintained as a class action pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the following reasons:

a. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest among the members of the Class;

b. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring all Class members before the Court. The identity and exact number of Class members is unknown but is estimated to be at least in the hundreds, if not thousands considering the fact that Menu Foods has identified 50 dog foods and 40 cat foods which may be causing harm to companion animals.

c. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of other Class members, all of whom have suffered harm due to Defendants' uniform course of conduct.

d. Plaintiffs are members of the Class.

e. There are numerous and substantial questions of law and fact common to all of the members of the Class which control this litigation and predominate over any individual issues pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3). The common issues include, but are not limited to, the following:

- i. Did the defendants make representations regarding the safety of the dog and cat food they produced and sold?
- ii. Were the defendants' representations regarding the safety of the dog and cat food false?
- iii. Did the defendants' dog and cat food cause or allow Plaintiffs and other Class members' companion animals to become ill or die?
- iv. Did the defendants produce a hazardous product for nonhuman animal consumption? If so, did this occur as a result of negligent, grossly negligent, reckless, or intentional conduct?

v. Were Plaintiffs and other Class members damaged?

f. These and other questions of law or fact which are common to the members of the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class;

g. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in that Plaintiffs have no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and has retained counsel competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent themselves and the Class;

h. Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage, Defendants' violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendants will continue to enjoy the fruits and proceeds of their unlawful misconduct;

i. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the size of individual Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members, few, if any, Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs Defendants have committed against them;

j. This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class claims, economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision;

k. Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to obtain class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of Defendants' common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the individual Class members;

l. This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's management of it as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means by which members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendants.

m. In the absence of a class action, Defendants would be unjustly enriched because they would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of their wrongful conduct.

16. The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

IV. GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Plaintiffs were the owners and guardians of Shasta, a female Pomcranian.

18. Plaintiffs purchased contaminated Eukanuba Adult Bites in Gravy (lamb & rice, beef & gravy, savory chicken) ("contaminated food") on or about February 16, 2007 from Petsmart.

- 19. Plaintiffs started feeding the contaminated food to Shasta on or about March 15, 2007.
- 20. After eating the contaminated food, Shasta became extremely ill, causing the Plaintiffs to take her to a veterinarian on or about March 19, 2007. The veterinarian informed them that Shasta suffered devastatingly acute renal failure. On or about March 20, 2007, Shasta arrested and died.
- 21. Plaintiffs witnessed Shasta's deceased body shortly after she died and before a substantial change in her condition and location.
- 22. In March 2007 Menu Foods recalled 50 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style dog food and 40 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style cat food which had caused dogs and cats to become ill. One common symptom in the sick animals was kidney failure, also known as acute renal failure.
- 23. The contaminated food that Shasta consumed is one of the brands that Menu Foods recalled.
- 24. The Plaintiffs lost Shasta's intrinsic value, as based on her unique qualities, characteristics, training, and bond, as well as the loss of her utility, companionship, love, affection, and solace. At the time of her death, Shasta had no fair market value and could not be replaced or reproduced. Rather, she had an intrinsic value.
- 25. The Plaintiffs owned and formed a relationship with Shasta for 11 years. She was a close family companion throughout that period and had special value, aiding Plaintiffs in their enjoyment of life, well-being, growth, development, and daily activities.
- 26. As a result of Defendants' actions causing Shasta's death, the Plaintiffs have suffered loss of enjoyment of life, interference with use and quiet enjoyment of their realty and personalty, and general damages pertaining to loss of use.
- 27. As a result of Defendants' acts and omissions the Plaintiffs and other Class members have suffered emotional and economic damage, including but not limited to mental anguish, loss or reduction of enjoyment of life, interference with use and quiet enjoyment of realty and/or personalty, wage loss, current and future veterinary and health-related bills, depreciation in or extinguishment of intrinsic, special, unique, or peculiar value, loss of use and/or companionship, actual, incidental, and consequential damages.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF - UNJUST ENRICHMENT

- 28. Defendants were and continue to be unjustly enriched at the expense of the Plaintiffs and other Class members.

31. Defendants' sale of hazardous dog and cat food has the capacity to deceive a substantial portion of the public and to affect the public interest.

32. As a result of Defendants' unfair or deceptive acts or practices, Plaintiffs and other class members suffered injuries in an amount to be proven at trial.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF – BREACH OF WARRANTY

33. Cat food and dog food produced by Menu Foods are "goods" within the meaning of Uniform Commercial Code Article 2.

34. Defendants' conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied or express warranty of affirmation.

35. Defendants' conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied warranty of merchantability.

36. Defendants' conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose.

37. As a proximate result of the aforementioned wrongful conduct and breach, Plaintiffs and other class members have suffered damages in an amount to be proven at trial. Defendants had actual or constructive notice of such damages.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – DECLARATORY RELIEF

38. This court has the authority to render a declaratory judgment pertaining to Plaintiffs and Class Members' rights, status and other legal relations.

39. Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to a declaratory judgment that, as a matter of law, their companion animals had no fair market value, no replacement value, but, rather, an intrinsic, peculiar, unique, or special value premised on their non-fungible and irreplaceable nature.

40. Defendants owed Plaintiffs and class members a duty to exercise reasonable care in representing the safety of its dog and cat foods.

41. Defendants falsely represented that its dog and cat food was safe for consumption by dogs and cats.

42. In reality, defendants' dog and cat food caused dogs and cats to become ill and, in some cases, to die.

43. Plaintiffs and class members reasonably relied on the information provided by Defendants regarding the safety of its dog and cat food.

44. As a proximate cause of Defendants' false representations, Plaintiffs and other Class members suffered damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

45. IN THE ALTERNATIVE that Defendants' acts are not deemed intentional or reckless, Defendants' conduct was negligent insofar as they failed to take reasonable care to avoid causing Plaintiff and Class Members emotional distress in relation to the failure to warn and failure to produce safe food for nonhuman animal consumption. These actions or inactions caused Plaintiff and Class Members emotional distress. Said emotional distress was manifested by objective symptomology by some of the Class Members.

SEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – NUISANCE

46. Defendants' behavior described above constitutes a private nuisance and public nuisance.

47. Under Washington law, specifically RCW 7.48.010 and 7.48.150 (private nuisance) and RCW 7.48.130 and RCW 7.48.210 (public nuisance), and similar anti-nuisance laws (at common law and by statute), Defendants are liable to plaintiffs for general damages sustained by virtue of their omission to perform a duty, which act, namely, allowing contaminated and poisoned food products to enter Plaintiff and Class Members' households under false pretenses of safety, resulting in pain, suffering, illness, and death to Class Members' companion animals, annoyed, injured, and endangered the comfort, repose, and safety of Plaintiffs and Class Members, essentially interfering in the comfortable enjoyment of their real and personal property and their lives.

EIGHTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – BREACH OF CONTRACT

based on the understanding that the food was safe for their companion animals to consume.

49. The dog and cat food produced by the defendants was not safe for companion animals to consume and caused dogs and cats to become ill or die. The unsafe nature of the pet food constituted a breach of contract.

50. As a result of the breach, Plaintiffs and Class members suffered damages which may fairly and reasonably be considered as arising naturally from the breach or may reasonably be supposed to have been in the contemplation of the parties, at the time they made the contract, as the probable result of the breach of it.

51. To the extent defendants' breach was reckless, wanton, or intentional and defendants knew or had reason to know that, when the contract was made, breach would cause mental suffering for reasons other than pecuniary loss, defendants inflicted upon Plaintiffs and Class members emotional distress.

NINTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – GROSS NEGLIGENCE

52. In the event Defendants are not found to have acted recklessly, Plaintiffs and Class Members plead IN THE ALTERNATIVE that Defendants knew and/or should have known that there was a strong possibility that harm would be inflicted on Plaintiffs and Class Members as a result of their disregard in ensuring that safe foodstuffs entered the commercial dog and cat food supply, recalling the tainted product before the illness and death toll rose further, and/or not warning consumers of the tainted product.

53. Defendants acted indifferently to the high degree of manifest danger and erroneous destruction of sentient property, to wit, Class Members' companion animals, to which Plaintiffs and Class Members would be and was exposed by such conduct.

54. The proximate cause of Plaintiffs and Class Members' injuries was the grossly negligent conduct of Defendants in the above regard.

TENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – PRODUCTS LIABILITY

55. Defendants are strictly liable under RCW 7.72.030 (and analogous products liability statutes around the nation) for proximately causing harm to Plaintiffs by manufacturing a product that was not reasonable safe in construction.

56. The proximate cause of Plaintiffs and Class Members' injuries was the grossly negligent conduct of Defendants in the above regard.

Plaintiff,

MENU FOODS, a foreign corporation,

Defendant.

RSL

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Laura Migliore ("Plaintiff"), by and through her undersigned attorneys, brings this civil action for damages on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated against the above-named Defendant and complain and allege as follows:

I. NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff bring this action as a Class Action under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on behalf of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by defendant Menu Foods and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food.

2. The Defendant is a producer of, inter alia, dog and cat food. Menu Foods produces dog and cat food sold under familiar brand names such as Iams, Eukanuba and Science Diet. Menu Foods distributes its dog and cat food throughout the United States to retailers such as Wal-Mart, Kroger and Safeway.

Case No.

COPY

1 3. Dog and cat food that the Defendant produced caused an unknown number of
2 dogs and cats to become ill, and many of them to die.

3 4. To date, Menu Foods has recalled 50 brands of dog food and 40 brands of cat
4 food that have sickened and killed dogs and cats. All recalled food to date is of the “cuts and 5 gravy wet” style.

6 5. As a result of the Defendant’s actions, Plaintiff and other Class members have 7 suffered economic damage.

8 II. PARTIES

9 6. Plaintiff Sheryl Puett has at all material times been a resident of Queens, New 10 York. Ms. Migliore had a dog that became sick after eating Defendant’s pet food.

11 7. Defendant Menu Foods is, upon information and belief, a corporation organized 12 under the laws of Canada that transacts business in Washington State.

13 III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14 8. Subject-matter jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because the 15 Plaintiff and Defendant are citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds 16 $75,000.00. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state-law claims under 28 U.S.C.
17 § 1367.

18 9. Venue is proper in this judicial district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a) because the 19 Defendant systematically and continuously sold its product within this district and Defendant
20 transacts business within this district.

21 IV. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATION

22 10. Plaintiff bring this suit as a class action under Rules 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(2) and 23 (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themselves and a Plaintiff Class (the 24 “Class”) composed of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by the 25 Defendant and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food. Plaintiff 26 reserve the right to modify this class definition before moving for class certification.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT - 2
Case No.

1 11. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest
2 among the members of the Class.

3 12. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring all
4 Class members before the Court. The identity and exact number of Class members is unknown
5 but is estimated to be at least in the hundreds, if not thousands considering the fact that Menu
6 Foods has identified 50 dog foods and 40 cat foods that may be causing harm to pets.

7 13. Plaintiff's claims are typical of those of other Class members, all of whom have
8 suffered harm due to Defendant's uniform course of conduct.

9 14. Plaintiff is a member of the Class.

10 15. There are numerous and substantial questions of law and fact common to all of
11 the members of the Class that control this litigation and predominate over any questions affecting 12 only individual members of the Class. The common issues include, but are not limited to, the 13 following:

14 (a) Was the Defendant's dog and cat food materially defective and unfit for 15 use as dog or cat food?

16 (b) Whether Defendant breached any contract, implied contract or warranties
17 related to the sale of the dog and cat food?

18 (c) Did the Defendant's dog and cat food cause Plaintiff's and other Class
19 members' pets to become ill?

20 (d) Were Plaintiff and other Class members damaged, and, if so, what is the
21 proper measure thereof?

22 (e) The appropriate form of injunctive, declaratory and other relief.

23 16. The prosecution of separate actions by members of the Class would create a risk
24 of establishing incompatible standards of conduct for the Defendant – for example, one court
25 might decide that the Defendant is obligated under the law to pay damages to Class members,
26

1 and another might decide that the Defendant is not so obligated. Individual actions may, as a
2 practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the Class.

3 17. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in that she has
4 no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and have retained counsel
5 competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent themselves and the Class.

6 18. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient
7 adjudication of this controversy. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the
8 size of individual Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members,
9 few, if any, Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs
10 Defendant has committed against them.

11 19. Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage, Defendant's
12 violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendant will continue to enjoy
13 the fruits and proceeds of its unlawful misconduct.

14 20. This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class claims,
15 economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision.

16 21. Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to obtain
17 class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted
18 methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of Defendant's
19 common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the individual Class
20 members.

21 22. This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's management of it
22 as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means by which
23 members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendant.

24 23. In the absence of a class action, Defendant would be unjustly enriched because it
25 would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of its wrongful conduct.

26 24. The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT - 4
Case No.

V. STATEMENT OF FACTS

25. Plaintiff Laura Migliore is the owner of a female dog named Nikki.

26. Ms. Migliore purchased Science Diet wet dog food for Nikki to consume.

27. Nikki ate the Science Diet brand wet-style dog food before becoming ill.

28. Nikki became extremely ill with vomiting and excessive thirst. Nikki stopped eating altogether. Ms. Migliore took Nikki to a veterinarian, who informed her that Nikki had suffered kidney failure, also known as acute renal failure. Nikki has survived, although she will need continued treatment from the veterinarian.

29. In March 2007, Menu Foods recalled 50 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style dog food and 40 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style cat food that had caused dogs and pets to become ill. One common symptom in the sick animals was kidney failure.

30. The Science Diet wet dog food that Nikki consumed before becoming ill is one of the brands that Menu Foods recalled.

31. As a result of Defendant's acts and omissions Plaintiff and other Class members have suffered economic damage.

VI. BREACH OF CONTRACT

32. Plaintiff realleges all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

33. Plaintiff and Class members purchased pet food produced by the Defendant based on the understanding that the food was safe for their pets to consume.

34. The pet food produced by the Defendant was not safe for pets to consume and caused dogs and cats to become ill. The unsafe nature of the pet food constituted a breach of contract.

35. As a result of the breach Plaintiff and Class members suffered damages that may fairly and reasonably be considered as arising naturally from the breach or may reasonably be supposed to have been in the contemplation of the parties, at the time they made the contract, as the probable result of the breach of it.

VII. UNJUST ENRICHMENT

36. Plaintiff realleges all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

37. Defendant was and continues to be unjustly enriched at the expense of Plaintiff and other Class members.

38. Defendant should be required to disgorge this unjust enrichment.

VIII. UNLAWFUL, DECEPTIVE AND UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES

39. Plaintiff realleges all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

40. Defendant's sale of tainted pet food constitutes an unlawful, deceptive and unfair business act within the meaning of the Washington Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86 et seq., and similar statutory enactments of other states (including consumer protection and consumer sales practice acts).

41. Defendant's sale of hazardous pet food has the capacity to deceive a substantial portion of the public and to affect the public interest.

42. As a result of Defendant's unfair or deceptive acts or practices, Plaintiff and other Class members suffered injuries in an amount to be proven at trial.

IX. BREACH OF WARRANTIES

43. Plaintiff realleges all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

44. Cat food and dog food produced by Menu Foods are "goods" within the meaning of Uniform Commercial Code Article 2.

45. Defendant's conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied or express warranty of affirmation.

46. Defendant's conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied warranty of merchantability.

47. Defendant's conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose.

1 48. As a proximate result of the aforementioned wrongful conduct and breach,
2 Plaintiff and other Class members have suffered damages in an amount to be proven at trial.
3 Defendant had actual or constructive notice of such damages.

4 X. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

5 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and Class members request that the Court enter an order of 6 judgment against Defendant including the following:

7 Certification of the action as a class action under Rule 23(b)(1) - (3) of the Federal Rules
8 of Civil Procedure with respect to the claims for damages, and appointment of Plaintiff as Class
9 Representative and their counsel of record as Class Counsel;

10 Actual damages (including all general, special, incidental, and consequential damages), 11 statutory damages (including treble damages), punitive damages (as allowed by the law(s) of the 12 states having a legally sufficient connection with Defendant and its acts or omissions) and such 13 other relief as provided by the statutes cited herein;

14 Prejudgment and post-judgment interest on such monetary relief;

15 Equitable relief in the form of restitution and/or disgorgement of all unlawful or illegal
16 profits received by Defendant as a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or deceptive conduct alleged 17 herein;

18 Other appropriate injunctive relief;

19 The costs of bringing this suit, including reasonable attorneys' fees; and v.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

MENU FOODS, a foreign corporation,

Defendant.

Plaintiff, Gail Moran, ("Plaintiff"), by and through her undersigned attorneys, brings this civil action for damages on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated against the above-named Defendant and complain and allege as follows:

I. NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff brings this action as a Class Action under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on behalf of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by defendant Menu Foods and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food.

2. The Defendant is a producer of, inter alia, dog and cat food. Menu Foods produces dog and cat food sold under familiar brand names such as Iams, Eukanuba and Science Diet. Menu Foods distributes its dog and cat food throughout the United States to retailers such as Wal-Mart, Kroger and Safeway.

Case No.

COPY

1 11. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest
2 among the members of the Class.

3 12. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring all
4 Class members before the Court. The identity and exact number of Class members is unknown
5 but is estimated to be at least in the hundreds, if not thousands considering the fact that Menu
6 Foods has identified 50 dog foods and 40 cat foods that may be causing harm to pets.

7 13. Plaintiff's claims are typical of those of other Class members, all of whom have
8 suffered harm due to Defendant's uniform course of conduct.

9 14. Plaintiff is a member of the Class.

10 15. There are numerous and substantial questions of law and fact common to all of
11 the members of the Class that control this litigation and predominate over any questions affecting 12 only individual members of the Class. The common issues include, but are not limited to, the 13 following:

14 (a) Was the Defendant's dog and cat food materially defective and unfit for 15 use as dog or cat food?

16 (b) Whether Defendant breached any contract, implied contract or warranties
17 related to the sale of the dog and cat food?

18 (c) Did the Defendant's dog and cat food cause Plaintiff's and other Class
19 members' pets to become ill?

20 (d) Were Plaintiff and other Class members damaged, and, if so, what is the
21 proper measure thereof?

22 (e) The appropriate form of injunctive, declaratory and other relief.

23 16. The prosecution of separate actions by members of the Class would create a risk
24 of establishing incompatible standards of conduct for the Defendant – for example, one court
25 might decide that the Defendant is obligated under the law to pay damages to Class members,
26

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT - 3
Case No.

1 and another might decide that the Defendant is not so obligated. Individual actions may, as a
2 practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the Class.

3 17. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in that she has
4 no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and have retained counsel
5 competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent themselves and the Class.

6 18. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient
7 adjudication of this controversy. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the
8 size of individual Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members,
9 few, if any, Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs
10 Defendant has committed against them.

11 19. Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage, Defendant's
12 violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendant will continue to enjoy
13 the fruits and proceeds of its unlawful misconduct.

14 20. This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class claims,
15 economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision.

16 21. Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to obtain
17 class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted
18 methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of Defendant's
19 common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the individual Class
20 members.

21 22. This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's management of it
22 as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means by which
23 members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendant.

24 23. In the absence of a class action, Defendant would be unjustly enriched because it
25 would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of its wrongful conduct.

26 24. The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

V. STATEMENT OF FACTS

25. Plaintiff Gail Moran is the owner of a male cat named Sheldon.

26. Ms. Moran purchased Iams Tuna in Sauce wet cat food for Sheldon to consume.

27. Sheldon ate the Iams Tuna in Sauce brand wet-style cat food for at least a year before his death.

28. Sheldon became extremely ill with vomiting and excessive thirst. Sheldon stopped eating altogether. Ms. Moran took Sheldon to a veterinarian, who informed her that Sheldon had suffered kidney failure, also known as acute renal failure. Sheldon was euthanized on March 9, 2007.

29. In March 2007, Menu Foods recalled 50 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style dog food and 40 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style cat food that had caused dogs and pets to become ill. One common symptom in the sick animals was kidney failure.

30. The Iams Tuna in Sauce wet cat food that Sheldon consumed, for at least a year before his death, is one of the brands that Menu Foods recalled.

35. As a result of the breach Plaintiff and Class members suffered damages that may fairly and reasonably be considered as arising naturally from the breach or may reasonably be

2 the probable result of the breach of it.

3 VII. UNJUST ENRICHMENT

4 36. Plaintiff realleges all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

5 37. Defendant was and continues to be unjustly enriched at the expense of Plaintiff
6 and other Class members.

7 38. Defendant should be required to disgorge this unjust enrichment.

8 VIII. UNLAWFUL, DECEPTIVE AND UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES

9 39. Plaintiff realleges all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

10 40. Defendant's sale of tainted pet food constitutes an unlawful, deceptive and unfair
11 business act within the meaning of the Washington Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86 et

20 44. Cat food and dog food produced by Menu Foods are "goods" within the meaning 21 of Uniform Commercial Code Article 2.

22 45. Defendant's conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied or

24 46. Defendant's conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied
25 warranty of merchantability.

26
CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT - 6
