1 order states, “[i]t suffices to hold that Seaway violated at least two regulations...” The Court
2 clearly meant FFIC, rather than Seaway, and the Parties request that the Court substitute “FFIC”
3 where line 25 currently begins with “Seaway.” While this may seem trivial, the order has now
4 been published, and the Parties believe it important that material which may later be quoted in
5 other cases accurately state what the Court intended to say.

6 RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 12th day of May, 2014.
