I. BACKGROUND

On September 12, 2016, this Court preliminarily approved a proposed Settlement Agreement, attached as Appendix 1 to the Motion for Preliminary Approval ("Agreement"), between the Class and defendants Lashway and Teeter ("Defendants").

ORDER GRANTING FINAL APPROVAL OF
SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND AWARDED
ATTORNEYS' FEES AND LITIGATION COSTS - 1
[Case No. 2:14-cv-00567-JLR]

1 Dkt. No. 76. In conjunction with that Order, the Court directed notice to be provided by
2 direct mail to all class members by defendants. The Court approved a form of notice.

3 The Order also provided that class members who wished to comment on or object
4 to the proposed Agreement were required to do so by December 12, 2016. Class members
5 were informed of their rights, and of this deadline, in the notices that were mailed to 6 them.

7 The Order further scheduled a final settlement hearing, which was held on 8 January 9, 2017, at 10:00 a.m., to consider objections and comments by class members and 9 to determine whether the proposed Agreement is fair, reasonable, adequate, and should
10 be approved by the Court.
11

12 II. FINDINGS

13 1. The parties have reached a Settlement Agreement that provides for a
14 comprehensive reform of defendants' Pre-Admission Screening and Resident Referral
15 (PASRR) system, required under the Nursing Home Reform Act. The Settlement
16 Agreement establishes procedures for ensuring timely PASRR Level I screenings, Level
17 II evaluations, Post-PASRR Level II meetings and, ultimately, the provision of specialized
18 services to increase class members' independence and/or discharge planning for class
19 members who are medically able and willing to live in an alternative placement in the 20 community.

21 2. The Agreement also establishes metrics for monitoring the implementation
22 of the new PASRR system, with various reporting to class counsel on a quarterly basis.
23

1 During this time, the Agreement anticipates that the Court will retain jurisdiction over
2 the case and the Settlement Agreement.

3 3. The Agreement also provides that Defendants will pay class counsel their
4 actual their actual lodestar attorneys' fees without a multiplier and its actual litigation
5 costs ("Option 1"). Id., ¶¶ 9.1.1; 9.1.2. Plaintiffs submitted an unopposed motion to for 6 the Court to approve an award of attorneys' fees of $590,345.00 and litigation costs of 7 $65,026.59, to be paid by Defendants. Dkt. 79. No class members will be responsible for 8 payment of any attorneys' fees or costs. No class member objected to the amount of the 9 fees or expenses. Hamburger Decl., ¶2.

11 4. The Agreement also releases defendants from any and all claims for 12 injunctive relief related to the claims brought in the litigation pursuant to the Nursing
13 Home Reform Act, Medicaid Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act or Americans with 14 Disabilities Act. Agreement, ¶1.5.

15 5. The Court's Order Granting Preliminary Approval of the Settlement
16 Agreement required the Defendants to mail court-approved notices to class members by
17 direct mail. The notices informed class members that they had an opportunity to object
18 or submit comments to the Court regarding the proposed Agreement and that they must 19 do so in writing by December 12, 2016. The Order also required defendants to post the 20 class notice on its website.

21 6. Defendants reported that they mailed and posted the required class notices.
22 Class counsel also posted the class notice on the Disability Rights Washington website.
23

1 No objections to or comments on the Settlement Agreement were received by either the
2 parties or their counsel.

3 III. CONCLUSIONS

4 7. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e) provides that "a class action shall not
5 be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court..." Compromise and
6 arbitration of complex litigation is encouraged and favored by public policy. See Simula,
7 Inc. v. Autoliv, Inc., 175 F.3d 716, 719 (9th Cir. 1999).

8 8. A presumption of fairness and adequacy attaches to a class action
9 settlement reached in arm's-length negotiations by experienced class counsel after 10 meaningful discovery. See, e.g., Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com., 688 F.2d 615, 625
11 (9th Cir. 1982); Pickett v. Holland Am. Line-Westours, Inc., 145 Wn.2d 178, 209, 35 P.3d 351
12 (2001).

13 9. The following factors are generally considered when determining whether 14 a settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable: the likelihood of success by plaintiffs; the 15 amount of discovery or evidence; the settlement terms and conditions; recommendation
16 and experience of counsel; future expense and likely duration of litigation;
17 recommendation of neutral parties, if any; number of objectors and nature of objections;
18 and the presence of good faith and absence of collusion. Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 19 625.

20 10. Based upon these factors, the Court finds that the Agreement is fair,
21 reasonable, and in the best interests of the Class. The requirement of FRCP 23 and due
22 process have been satisfied.
23

1 11. Specifically, the Court concludes that the Agreement was the result of
2 arm's-length bargaining. It was reached after extensive discovery and motions practice,
3 including a decision by this Court granting partial summary judgment on whether
4 defendants had properly implemented the PASRR program. Although the Class had a
5 strong likelihood of success, a settlement that results in systemic reform of the PASRR
6 system to bring it in compliance with legal requirements, achieves the goals of the 7 litigation. There is no evidence of collusion between the parties, and the agreement was 8 reached in good faith with the assistance of a neutral mediator.
9

10 12. The Class was provided with adequate notice, and due process has been 11 satisfied in connection with the distribution of the notice. There were no objections to or 12 comments on the proposed Agreement.

13 IV. ATTORNEYS' FEES AND LITIGATION COSTS

14 13. As permitted by the Agreement, class counsel have sought an award of 15 their actual lodestar attorneys' fees without a multiplier or reduction. That request is 16 granted, and the Court awards $590,345.00 as attorneys' fees to be paid by defendants.

17 14. No objections were received to class counsel's fee request.

18 15. Class counsel is also entitled to reimbursement of its actual litigation costs.
19 Class counsel seeks reimbursement in the sum of $65,026.59, reflecting its unreimbursed
20 actual out-of-pocket litigation costs and expenses. This request is supported, is 21 reasonable, and is approved.

22 16. No objections were received to class counsel's request for an award of 23 litigation costs.

1 17. Upon the occurrence of the conditions set forth in Section 2 of the
2 Settlement Agreement, and by 35 days from entry of this Order if no appeal is taken,
3 defendants shall pay the award of attorneys' fees and costs to class counsel.

4 V. ORDER

5 It is hereby ORDERED that:

6 1. The Settlement Agreement, Dkt. No. 71-1, Appendix 1 and Dkt. No. 74-1,
7 Appendix A, is approved as fair, reasonable and adequate under FRCP 23, and its terms
8 shall bind class members.

9 2. Class counsel is awarded fees and litigation costs as set forth above.

10 3. The parties to the Settlement Agreement shall perform all of their 11 obligations thereunder. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter until the 12 Settlement Agreement is terminated, pursuant to Section 8 of the Settlement Agreement.
13

14 It is so ORDERED this 9th day of January, 2017.
