14 has set forth model language for such notices:

15 A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of 16 Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

17 Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for 18 summary judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when 19 there is no genuine issue of material fact – that is, if there is no real 20 dispute about any fact that would affect the result of your case, the party 21 who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of 22 law, which will end your case. When a party you are suing makes a 23 motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own
