UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

SHELDON SOULE,

Plaintiff,

v.

CITY OF EDMONDS; CITY OF EDMONDS POLICE DEPARTMENT;
CHIEF OF POLICE AL COMPAAN;
OFFICER DAVE MACHADO;
OFFICER JASON ROBINSON;
OFFICER KEN PLOEGER; OFFICER
JOSH McCLURE; OFFICER JUSTIN
LEE; OFFICER RYAN SPEER;
OFFICER MIKE RICHARDSON; and
BRIAN J. BAKER,

Defendants.

C14-1221 TSZ
ORDER

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on the motion for summary judgment, docket no. 53, brought by defendants City of Edmonds, City of Edmonds Police Department, Chief of Police Al Compaan, and Edmonds Police Officers Dave Machado, Jason Robinson, Ken Ploeger, Josh McClure, Justin Lee, Ryan Speer, and Mike

1 Richardson. Having reviewed all papers filed in support of the motion, as well as the 2 Verified Complaint,<sup>1</sup> the Court enters the following order.

3 Background

4 Plaintiff Sheldon Soule alleges that he was injured during the course of his arrest
5 by members of the City of Edmonds Police Department on August 11, 2012, after he 6 undisputedly assaulted another man named Brian Baker. Plaintiff has admitted that he 7 struck Baker in the face. Soule Decl. at ¶ 14 (docket no. 45); Compl. at ¶ 3.4 (docket
8 no. 1). Plaintiff was convicted of Assault in the Fourth Degree and Resisting Arrest. See 9 Ex. 1 to Turner Decl. (docket no. 38-1); Ex. B to Bucklin Decl. (docket no. 54 at 16).
10 Plaintiff has named Baker as a defendant in this case, but Baker has not appeared, and the 11 Court has entered default against him. See Minute Order (docket no. 13). The Court has 12 previously granted summary judgment in this matter and dismissed plaintiff's claims 13 against The Taste of Edmonds, The Edmonds Chamber of Commerce, and the Taste of 14 Edmonds Beer Garden Operators (John and Jane Does). See Order (docket no. 52). All 15 remaining defendants other than Baker now move for summary judgment.

18
19 <sup>1</sup> The Verified Complaint serves the same function that an affidavit would under Rule 56. See Schroeder
20 v. McDonald, 55 F.3d 454, 460 (9th Cir. 1995); see also Seals v. Mitchell, 331 Fed. App'x 480 (9th Cir.
21 2009); Lew v. Kona Hosp., 754 F.2d 1420, 1423 (9th Cir. 1985) (“A verified complaint may be treated as 22 an affidavit to the extent that the complaint is based on personal knowledge and sets forth facts admissible 23 in evidence and to which the affiant is competent to testify.”). The Court draws no negative inference from plaintiff's lack of response to defendants' motion for summary judgment. See Lew, 754 F.2d at 1423 (“a party opposing summary judgment need not file any countervailing affidavits or other materials where the movant's papers are insufficient on their face to demonstrate the lack of any material issue of fact” (emphasis in original)); see also Heinemann v. Satterberg, 731 F.3d 914 (9th Cir. 2013).

1 Discussion

2 The Court shall grant summary judgment if no genuine issue of material fact exists
3 and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(a). To 4 survive a motion for summary judgment, the adverse party must present “affirmative 5 evidence,” which “is to be believed” and from which all “justifiable inferences” are to be 6 favorably drawn. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 255, 257 (1986). When 7 the record, taken as a whole, could not lead a rational trier of fact to find for the non-
8 moving party, summary judgment is warranted. See Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S.
9 317, 322 (1986) (Rule 56(c) “mandates the entry of summary judgment, after adequate
10 time for discovery and upon motion, against a party who fails to make a showing 11 sufficient to establish the existence of an element essential to that party’s case, and on 12 which that party will bear the burden of proof at trial.”).

13 A. The pending motion for summary judgment is GRANTED in part as follows:

14 (1) The City of Edmonds Police Department is not a legal entity subject to suit
15 and plaintiff’s claims against it are DISMISSED with prejudice. See Burton v. Hale, 16 2008 WL 623718 at *2 (W.D. Wash. Mar. 4, 2008) (citing West v. Waymire, 114 F.3d 17 646, 646-47 (7th Cir. 1997), Ricketts v. City of Hartford, 74 F.3d 1397, 1400 n.1 (2d Cir.
18 1996), and Dean v. Barber, 951 F.2d 1210, 1214 (11th Cir. 1992)); see also Bibbs v.
19 Tukwila Police Dep’t, 2009 WL 1531801 at *2 (W.D. Wash. Apr. 16, 2009), adopted in 20 relevant part by 2009 WL 1531797 at *1 (W.D. Wash. May 29, 2009).

22 ///

1 (2) Plaintiff's claims against Officer Ken Ploeger are also DISMISSED with 2 prejudice. Officer Ploeger was not at the scene and was not involved in plaintiff's arrest.
3 Ploeger Decl. at ¶ 3 (docket no. 57).

4 (3) Plaintiff's claim for negligent supervision is DISMISSED with prejudice.
5 Under Washington law, a cause of action for negligent supervision is cognizable only 6 when the employee at issue acted outside the scope of his or her employment. LaPlant v.
7 Snohomish County, 162 Wn. App. 476, 479, 271 P.3d 254 (2011). Negligent supervision
8 is not an appropriate claim when the employer concedes the employee's or employees'
9 actions occurred within the course and scope of employment, as the City of Edmonds 10 does in this matter, and the employer would be subject to vicarious liability if the 11 employee's or employees' conduct was found to constitute negligence. See id. at 479-80.
12 Because negligent supervision is the sole claim against Chief of Police Al Compaan, see 13 Compl. at ¶¶ 4.27-4.37, Chief of Police Compaan is DISMISSED as a defendant.

14 (4) Plaintiff's claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against the City of Edmonds is 15 DISMISSED with prejudice. Plaintiff has not provided any evidence, and has not even 16 alleged, that the City of Edmonds has an "official policy" or "longstanding practice or 17 custom" of using excessive force, as would be required for municipal liability, pursuant 18 to Monell v. Dep't of Soc. Servs. of N.Y.C., 436 U.S. 658 (1978).

19 B. The pending motion for summary judgment is otherwise DENIED for the 20 following reasons:

21 (1) With respect to plaintiff's claim of negligence, contrary to defendants'
22 contention, the public duty doctrine does not shield them from liability. See Conely v.
23

1 City of Lakewood, 2012 WL 6148866 at *12 (W.D. Wash. Dec. 11, 2012); see also 2 Garnett v. City of Bellevue, 59 Wn. App. 281, 286-87, 796 P.2d 782 (1990). Although 3 the public duty doctrine generally forecloses negligence actions against law enforcement 4 personnel and agencies, four exceptions exist, including when a police officer “is 5 answerable to private persons who sustain special damage resulting from the negligent
6 performance of the officer’s imperative or ministerial duties, unless the wrong done is a 7 violation of a duty which he owes solely to the public.” Garnett, 59 Wn. App. at 286.

8 (2) Also contrary to defendants’ assertion, plaintiff’s Alford plea has no
9 preclusive effect with regard to plaintiff’s § 1983 excessive force, assault, intentional
10 infliction of emotion distress (outrage), and negligence claims. See Clark v. Baines, 150 11 Wn.2d 905, 907, 84 P.3d 245 (2004) (“an Alford plea cannot be used as the basis for 12 collateral estoppel in a subsequent civil action”); id. at 916 (“Where a defendant is 13 convicted pursuant to an Alford plea not only has there been no verdict of guilty after a 14 trial but the defendant, by entering an Alford plea, has not admitted committing the crime.
15 As such an Alford plea cannot be said to be preclusive of the underlying facts and issues 16 in a subsequent civil action.” (citations omitted)). Plaintiff is entitled to dispute, and has 17 disputed, the police reports and other materials reviewed by the Edmonds Municipal 18 Court in connection with his Alford plea to find him guilty of Assault in the Fourth 19 Degree and Resisting Arrest.

20 (3) Whether Officers Machado, Robinson, McClure, Lee, Speer, and/or 21 Richardson are entitled to qualified immunity involves genuine issues of material fact.
22 With regard to a claim brought under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, an individual defendant is

1 entitled to qualified immunity if either of the following criteria are satisfied: (i) the 2 alleged facts do not demonstrate a constitutional violation; or (ii) the constitutional right
3 allegedly violated was not “clearly established” at the time of the events at issue. See
4 Pearson v. Callahan, 555 U.S. 223, 232 (2009); A.D. v. Cal. Highway Patrol, 712 F.3d
5 446, 453-54 (9th Cir. 2013). The question of whether an individual has been subjected to 6 excessive force requires a balancing of “the nature and quality of the intrusion on the 7 individual’s Fourth Amendment interests against the countervailing governmental
8 interests at stake.” Luchtel v. Hagemann, 623 F.3d 975, 980 (9th Cir. 2010) (quoting
9 Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S. 386, 396 (1989)). The facts and circumstances of each 10 particular case must be examined, including “the severity of the crime at issue, whether 11 the suspect poses an immediate threat to the safety of the officers or others, and whether 12 he is actively resisting arrest or attempting to evade arrest by flight.” Id. Other 13 considerations include the “quantum of force” used, the availability of alternative 14 methods of capturing or detaining the suspect, and the suspect’s mental and emotional 15 state. Id. The Court must evaluate “the totality of the circumstances,” judging the 16 reasonableness of the particular use of force from the perspective of a reasonable officer
17 on the scene, not with “the 20/20 vision of hindsight,” and bearing in mind that police 18 officers “need not use the least intrusive means available to them.” Id. at 980, 982.

19 In this case, the parties disagree about the exact sequence of events, the quantum 20 of force that was used, and whether plaintiff was resisting arrest or posed a threat to the 21 officers involved. Sergeant Machado has stated that, on August 11, 2012, he saw 22 plaintiff punch Baker in the face with a closed fist, he ordered plaintiff to get on the 23

1 ground, and he drew his Taser when plaintiff did not comply. Ex. A to Machado Decl.
2 (docket no. 55 at 6). According to Sergeant Machado, plaintiff showed no concern about 3 the possible effects of being struck by the Taser, and plaintiff displayed signs of 4 intoxication. Id. (docket no. 55 at 6-7). In contrast, plaintiff indicates that, when 5 Sergeant Machado pointed the Taser, he did not identify himself as a police officer.
6 Compl. at ¶ 3.6 (docket no. 1). Plaintiff was “blinded” by the light on the Taser and 7 could not see the person holding it, but he asked the person not to aim at his heart
8 because he had had a heart attack about six months earlier. Id. at ¶¶ 3.5-3.6. Plaintiff has 9 denied consuming any alcohol on the day in question. Id. at ¶ 3.3.

10 Sergeant Machado has described plaintiff as taking a “bladed” or fighting stance
11 and actively resisting his commands. Ex. A to Machado Decl. (docket no. 55 at 6-7).
12 Plaintiff contends, to the contrary, that he covered his heart with his hands and turned 13 slightly to his side. Compl. at ¶ 3.5. Sergeant Machado did not apply the Taser, but 14 instead attempted to perform a “straight arm bar takedown.” Ex. A to Machado Decl.
15 (docket no. 55 at 7). The effort resulted in plaintiff falling to his knees, after which 16 Sergeant Machado grabbed plaintiff’s hair on each side of his head, pulled his head
17 forward, and yelled for him to lie on the ground. Id. Officer Speer arrived to assist,
18 grabbing plaintiff’s left arm. Id. Sergeant Machado has indicated that he applied three 19 “hammer fist strikes” to the thumb-side of plaintiff’s right hand, telling him to open or 20 relax his hand to allow for cuffing. Id. Plaintiff asserts that the number of “hammer fist 21 strikes” was closer to a dozen, and that, rather than resisting cuffing, he was merely using

1 his right hand to protect his head, which had been repeatedly slammed into the ground.
2 Compl. at ¶ 3.6.

3 According to defendants, Officer Lee placed a knee onto plaintiff's upper back,
4 and Sergeant Machado used a "counter joint technique" on plaintiff's right thumb to 5 release his grasp while cuffs (supplied by Officer Robinson) were placed and double 6 locked around plaintiff's wrists. Id. (docket no. 55 at 7-8); see also Ex. A to Lee Decl.
7 (docket no. 59 at 4). Corporal McClure came to the scene and, with Officers Speer and 8 Lee, applied a "hobble device" to plaintiff's legs. Ex. A to McClure Decl. (docket no. 58 9 at 5). Officer Robinson states that he attempted to take photographs of plaintiff, but after 10 plaintiff spat at him, a "spit hood" was placed over plaintiff's head. Ex. A to Robinson
11 Decl. (docket no. 56 at 4). All of the officers have indicated that plaintiff yelled racial 12 slurs, profanity, and threats throughout the entire encounter. Ex. A to Machado Decl.
13 (docket no. 55 at 7-9); Ex. A to Robinson Decl. (docket no. 56 at 4); Ex. A to McClure
14 Decl. (docket no. 58 at 5); Ex. A to Lee Decl. (docket no. 59 at 5); Ex. A to Speer Decl.
15 (docket no. 60 at 4); Ex. A to Richardson Decl. (docket no. 61 at 4).

16 In contrast, plaintiff accuses the officers of mocking and laughing at him, asking
17 him if he thought he was "a tough guy now," Compl. at ¶¶ 4.41 & 4.44, and saying 18 "smile for the camera" when they attempted to take a photograph of his bloody face, with 19 eyes nearly swollen shut, id. at ¶ 4.45. Plaintiff alleges that the officers smashed his head
20 repeatedly into the concrete sidewalk, kned him in the back and in the kidneys, applied
21 choke holds, and knelt on his neck. Id. at ¶ 3.11. No assertion has been made that 22 plaintiff was armed or tried to flee the scene. Given the vastly different accounts of the 23

1 activities surrounding plaintiff's arrest, the Court cannot decide, as a matter of law,
2 whether the individual officers named as defendants in this case are entitled to qualified 3 immunity.

4 (4) Likewise, the Court cannot decide, as a matter of law, whether plaintiff's
5 claims of excessive force under § 1983, assault, intentional infliction of emotional
6 distress (outrage), and negligence have merit. Genuine disputes of material fact exist
7 concerning the quantum of force used to effect plaintiff's arrest and whether such force 8 was reasonable and lawful.

9 Conclusion

10 For the foregoing reasons, the Court ORDERS:

11 (1) Defendants' motion for summary judgment, docket no. 53, is GRANTED
12 in part and DENIED in part.

13 (2) The City of Edmonds Police Department, Chief of Police Al Compaan, and 14 Officer Ken Ploeger are DISMISSED as defendants.

15 (3) Plaintiff's claim for negligent supervision and his claim under 42 U.S.C.
16 § 1983 against the City of Edmonds are DISMISSED with prejudice.

17 (4) The oral argument scheduled for September 4, 2015, at 9:00 a.m., is hereby 18 STRICKEN.

19 (5) Trial on the remaining claims of excessive force, assault, and intentional
20 infliction of emotional distress (outrage) against Officers Machado, Robinson, McClure, 21 Lee, Speer, and Richardson, and the claim of negligence against these officers and the 22 City of Edmonds remains set for November 9, 2015.
