

1
2
3 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
4 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
5 AT SEATTLE

6 M.B., a minor, by and through her
7 mother Helena Baker; and HELENA
8 BAKER, individually,

9 Plaintiffs,

10 v.

11 FEDERAL WAY SCHOOL
12 DISTRICT NO. 210; CITY OF 13 FEDERAL WAY; and DOES 1-30,

14 Defendants.

C14-1273 TSZ

ORDER

15 THIS MATTER comes before the Court on the unopposed motions of defendants 16 Federal Way School District No. 210 (the “District”), docket no. 43, and City of Federal 17 Way (the “City”), docket no. 38. Neither the Complaint, docket no. 1, nor the Amended 18 Complaint, docket no. 11, was verified. See Lew v. Kona Hosp., 754 F.2d 1420, 1423 19 (9th Cir. 1985) (“A verified complaint may be treated as an affidavit to the extent that the 20 complaint is based on personal knowledge and sets forth facts admissible in evidence and 21 to which the affiant is competent to testify.”). Moreover, neither plaintiff M.B., also 22 known as M.P., see M.P. Dep. at 184:11-16, Ex. A to Buchanan Decl. (docket no. 44-2), 23 nor her mother Helena Baker has submitted a declaration or any other material in

1 opposition to the pending motions. Having reviewed the papers filed by the moving 2 parties, the Court enters the following order.

3 Background

4 Plaintiff M.B. is a female juvenile who, from December 2011 until June 2013, 5 attended Saghalie Middle School (“Saghalie”) in Federal Way, Washington. See M.P.
6 Dep. at 14:11-13, 105:23-106:1, Ex. A to Buchanan Decl. (docket nos. 44-1). M.B. is of 7 African-American and Roma descent. Am. Compl. at ¶ 19 (docket no. 11). Between 8 January 13, 2012, and May 30, 2013, M.B. was disciplined at least ten times for 9 disruptive behavior, receiving on each occasion either a half-day in-school suspension or 10 a suspension from school for a period ranging up to five days. Exs. F-M & O-P to 11 Buchanan Decl. (docket nos. 44-4 & 44-5).

12 During this period, on September 19, 2012, M.B. was involved in an altercation 13 with her adult half-sister, Jessica Porter, which took place in a hallway at Saghalie. See 14 Ross Decl. at ¶¶ 5-6 & Ex. A (docket no. 46); Kilcup Decl. at ¶ 3 & Ex. A (docket 15 no. 45). Porter was arrested and removed from the campus. Ex. D to Buchanan Decl.
16 (docket no. 44-3). According to M.B.’s mother, school officials had been told that Porter 17 posed a safety risk to M.B. and was not to have contact with her. See Baker Dep. at 18 115:3-24, Ex. C to Buchanan Decl. (docket no. 44-3). Mark Kilcup, who was the 19 Assistant Principal at Saghalie during the 2012-2013 academic year, and who escorted 20 Porter through the school to meet M.B., denies that he or anyone at the school had notice
21 of any danger Porter might have posed to M.B. Kilcup Decl. at ¶¶ 5-6 (docket no. 45).
22 An independent investigator, Carlos A. Chavez, a partner at Pacifica Law Group, 23

1 concluded that, prior to the September 2012 incident, Saghalie administrators had not 2 been made aware of any threat Porter posed to M.B. See Chavez Decl. at ¶ 6 & Ex. A 3 (docket no. 47).

4 M.B. began the 2013-2014 academic year at Decatur High School (“Decatur”) in 5 Federal Way. M.P. Dep. at 14:14-17, Ex. A to Buchanan Decl. (docket no. 44-1); see 6 Am. Compl. at ¶ 36 (docket no. 11). On November 13, 2013, M.B. assaulted a fellow 7 student by pulling off the student’s wig, which was worn to cover a burn injury, causing 8 the student both physical pain and emotional distress. See Ex. R to Buchanan Decl.
9 (docket no. 44-5). M.B. was arrested, and while being placed in a Federal Way Police 10 patrol car, she kicked an officer in the chest. Id. She was subsequently expelled from 11 school for the remainder of the academic year. See Baker Dep. at 170:5-16, Ex. C to 12 Buchanan Decl. (docket no. 44-3).

13 In this action, plaintiffs allege four types of claims: (i) failing to protect M.B.
14 from Porter; (ii) allowing Porter access to M.B. in retaliation for M.B.’s exercise of First 15 Amendment rights; (iii) violating M.B.’s Fourth Amendment rights in forcibly arresting 16 her; and (iv) discrimination on the basis of gender and/or race. Plaintiffs assert seven 17 overlapping causes of action, five of which are pleaded under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and the 18 other two of which are pleaded under other federal statutes, namely § 901 of Title IX of 19 the Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. § 1681 (“No person in the United States 20 shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or 21 be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal 22 financial assistance . . . .”), and § 601 of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 23

1 42 U.S.C. § 2000d (“No person in the United States shall, on the ground of race, color, or 2 national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be 3 subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial 4 assistance.”). Plaintiffs have named as defendants only the District and the City; they 5 have not identified any of the Does mentioned in their operative pleading and they have 6 not joined any individuals as defendants.

7 Discussion

8 A. Standard for Summary Judgment

9 The Court shall grant summary judgment if no genuine issue of material fact exists 10 and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(a).

11 The moving party bears the initial burden of demonstrating the absence of a genuine issue 12 of material fact. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323 (1986). A fact is material if 13 it might affect the outcome of the suit under the governing law. Anderson v. Liberty 14 Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). To survive a motion for summary judgment, the 15 adverse party must present affirmative evidence, which “is to be believed” and from 16 which all “justifiable inferences” are to be favorably drawn. Id. at 255, 257. When the 17 record, however, taken as a whole, could not lead a rational trier of fact to find for the 18 non-moving party, summary judgment is warranted. See Scott v. Harris, 550 U.S. 372, 19 380 (2007).

20 B. Municipal Liability under 42 U.S.C. § 1983

21 Both the District and the City seek summary judgment under Monell v. Dept. of 22 Soc. Servs. of N.Y.C., 436 U.S. 658 (1978), which indicates that municipalities cannot be 23

1 held liable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for the torts of their employees. See, e.g., Botello v.
2 Gammick, 413 F.3d 971, 978 (9th Cir. 2005). Municipalities are accountable under 3 § 1983 only for (i) employee actions taken pursuant to official policy or longstanding 4 practice or custom, and (ii) conduct by a person with final policy-making authority, 5 which may take the form of either direct involvement in the alleged constitutional 6 violation or ratification of the decision of a subordinate. Id. at 978-79; see Ulrich v. City
7 & County of San Francisco, 308 F.3d 968, 985 (9th Cir. 2002). Although the Amended
8 Complaint contains conclusory Monell allegations, plaintiffs have provided no evidence 9 that any of the constitutional injuries for which they seek redress, namely substantive due 10 process, free speech, equal protection, and search and seizure violations, were the result 11 of an official policy, a longstanding practice or custom, or the actions or ratification of a 12 final policy maker.

13 For example, with respect to plaintiffs' assertion that the District violated their 14 constitutional rights by failing to prevent M.B.'s half-sister from having contact with and 15 assaulting her on school premises, plaintiffs fail to show that the District had an official 16 policy or longstanding practice or custom of permitting unauthorized visits or promoting 17 violence toward its students. Moreover, plaintiffs offer no evidence that a final policy 18 maker participated in the events leading to the assault or later ratified any precipitating 19 actions. Similarly, with regard to plaintiffs' allegation that, on a different occasion, the 20 City violated M.B.'s Fourth Amendment rights when a Federal Way police officer 21 forcibly arrested her, plaintiffs provide no evidence that, if the officer's actions 22 constituted an unreasonable search or seizure, they were taken pursuant to official policy 23

1 or longstanding practice or custom or were subsequently ratified by a final policy maker.
2 Because plaintiffs have not made the requisite showing under Monell, their § 1983 claims
3 against the District and the City, namely their First, Second, Third, Fourth, and Seventh 4 Causes of Action, are DISMISSED with prejudice.

5 C. Gender-Based and Racial Discrimination

6 With regard to the claims that M.B. was subjected to discipline in a discriminatory 7 manner, plaintiffs fail to establish a prima facie case. Although M.B. testified in her 8 deposition that she felt “picked on” because of her gender and/or race, see M.P. Dep. at 9 164:8-165:12, 190:5-15, Ex. A to Buchanan Decl. (docket no. 44-2), her step-father 10 indicated more than once in his deposition that he did not believe gender or race played 11 any role in M.B.’s various suspensions, see T. Baker Dep. at 113:20-25, 115:21-25, 12 122:19-24, 124:1-7, Ex. B to Buchanan Decl. (docket no. 44-3). Plaintiffs have offered 13 no evidence that male or non-minority students engaging in disruptive behavior similar to 14 M.B.’s were not disciplined or received less severe sanctions. Plaintiffs have also 15 presented no evidence that school officials made any comments in connection with 16 imposing discipline on M.B. that might indicate a gender-based or racial animus.
17 Plaintiffs’ discrimination claims, which are set forth in their Second, Fourth, Fifth, and 18 Sixth Causes of Action, are DISMISSED with prejudice.

19 D. Claims Against Does 1-30

20 The deadline for joining parties expired on April 30, 2015, and the deadline for 21 amending pleadings expired on September 16, 2015. The time for plaintiffs to identify, 22 join, and serve the individuals as to whom the “Does 1-30” allegation serves as a 23

1 placeholder has come and gone. Plaintiffs could not plausibly argue that they do not 2 know the names of the individuals involved in the various events on which they base
3 their claims. M.B. and her parents are well-acquainted with the relevant District
4 personnel, and the police reports related to Porter's ill-fated visit to Saghalie and M.B.'s 5 arrest at Decatur clearly indicate which Federal Way police officers responded to the 6 scenes. Plaintiffs' failure to name any of these individuals as defendants must be viewed 7 as either a tactical decision or a failure to prosecute. Either way, the moment has arrived 8 beyond which plaintiffs may not continue to pursue claims against unknown parties.
9 Plaintiffs' claims against Does 1-30 are therefore DISMISSED with prejudice.

10 Conclusion

11 For the foregoing reasons, the motions for summary judgment brought by the 12 District, docket no. 43, and the City, docket no. 38, are GRANTED. Plaintiffs' claims
13 against the District and the City are DISMISSED with prejudice. Plaintiffs' claims 14 against Does 1-30 are also DISMISSED with prejudice. The Clerk is DIRECTED to 15 enter judgment consistent with this Order, to send a copy of this Order to all counsel of 16 record, and to CLOSE this case.

17 IT IS SO ORDERED.

18 Dated this 27th day of January, 2016.

19
20

21 Thomas S. Zilly
22 United States District Judge
23