10 v.

11 LENNAR CORPORATION, et al.,

12 Defendants.

No. C15-1550RSL

ORDER DENYING UNTIMELY
MOTION IN LIMINE

14 This matter comes before the Court on “Defendants’ Motion to Exclude Testimony from 15 James Brown, Based on Prior Ruling (Dkt. 91), and to Avoid Unnecessary Costs and 16 Inconvenience to Non-Party.” Dkt. # 96. This motion, which seeks to exclude evidence or 17 testimony from trial, is an untimely motion in limine. Defendants have not shown good cause for 18 the belated request. The motion is therefore DENIED without prejudice to a timely objection at 19 trial. If an objection is raised, defendants shall be prepared to explain why the failure to 20 supplement the initial disclosures was not harmless given that additional, corrective information
21 in the form of Mr. Brown’s declaration was provided during discovery.
