7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9 AT SEATTLE

10 LAVELL D. LEWIS,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 KING COUNTY JAIL, et al.,

14 Defendants.

CASE NO. C15-1633JLR

ORDER

15 On February 2, 2017, the court received Plaintiff Lavell D. Lewis's objections to 16 United States Magistrate Judge James P. Donohue's report and recommendation 17 ("R&R") on Defendants' motion for summary judgment. (Obj. (Dkt. # 43); see also 18 R&R (Dkt. # 31); MSJ (Dkt. # 24).) Despite several extensions from the court (see
19 11/10/16 Order (Dkt. # 34); 12/28/16 Order (Dkt. # 40)), Mr. Lewis filed his objections
20 after the ultimate deadline of January 27, 2017 (see 12/28/16 Order at 3; Dkt.). In 21 addition, Mr. Lewis mailed his objections rather than filing them in accordance with the 22 prisoner e-filing initiative, about which he has been warned on several occasions. (See

1 Dkt.) As a result, the court had adopted Magistrate Judge Donohue's R&R, granted
2 Defendants summary judgment, and entered judgment against Mr. Lewis before receiving
3 his objections. (See 2/2/17 Order (Dkt. # 41); Judgment (Dkt. # 42).)

4 Despite their untimeliness, the court has reviewed Mr. Lewis's objections and 5 determined that they do not alter the court's conclusion that Defendants are entitled to 6 summary judgment. (See 2/2/17 Order at 1.) Accordingly, the court rejects Mr. Lewis's
7 objections to the R&R.

8 Dated this th14 day of February, 2017.
