2 dated January 19, 2017, and without prejudice to 3 future actions based upon a future-filed USCIS
4 petition.

7 Plaintiff has recently retained new legal counsel
8 in the Philippines who, on information and belief, will 9 be presenting Plaintiff's case to the Philippines Inter-
10 Country Adoption Board (ICAB), and seeking approval
11 from that organization, despite the impediments to 12 approval that were identified by previous his legal 13 counsel in the Philippines, and have been alleged by 14 the Complaint in this case.

20 A newly-available ruling by the ICAB – obtained
21 by newly-retained counsel – will allow Mr. Tolentino
22 the opportunity cure the issues in dispute in this case,
23 and re-file a new international adoption application
24 with the USCIS.

Plaintiff's Motion for Voluntary Dismissal - 2

2 asks the Court to grant voluntary dismissal of this 3 action, without prejudice to a future action, based upon 4 a newly-filed USCIS application seeking to obtain an 5 immigrant visa for his daughter.

8 Having conferred with opposing counsel, I am
9 able to represent that Defendants consent to voluntary
