Fiander, in this stipulated motion to extend the initial scheduling dates in this matter as follows:

[Case No. 2:16-cv-01874-RSL] - 1

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
700 Stewart Street, Suite 5220
Seattle, Washington 98101-1271
206-553-7970

1 This extension is necessary because the United States has not yet filed an answer
2 and is still working with federal agencies to review the ten claims in this matter and
3 respond to Plaintiff's assertions that the fifteen individual defendants were employees
4 acting within their scope of employment on behalf of the United States. As such, the
5 United States, and the individual defendants, are not in a position to meaningfully
6 participate in a discovery conference, submit initial disclosures or prepare a discovery
7 plan. The United States' responsive pleadings are due on July 17, 2017. As such, the
8 parties are requesting an extension of time for the initial scheduling dates to allow them
9 time to review the initial pleadings and participate meaningfully in the FRCP 26 process.

9 SO STIPULATED

10 Dated this 20th day of June, 2017.

ORDER

The Court, having reviewed the parties' stipulated motion and the record in this matter and being fully informed, finds good cause exists to extend the initial scheduling dates as requested. Counsel for the United States has not yet filed an answer or had sufficient time to review the case, such that neither party would be in a position to meaningfully participate in the FRCP 26 process. As such, and the parties having so stipulated and agreed, it is hereby ORDERED that the initial scheduling dates are extended as follows:

Deadline for FRCP 26(f) Conference:	07/27/2017
Initial Disclosures Pursuant to FRCP 26(a)(1):	08/17/2017
Combined Joint Status Report and Discovery Plan as Required by FRCP 26(f) and Local Civil Rule 26(f):	08/28/2017

DATED this 27th day of June, 2017.

HONORABLE ROBERT S. LASNIK
United States District Court Judge
