

Honorable J. Robert S. Lasnik

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

RAJU A.T. DAHLSTROM,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES,

Defendant.

CASE NO. 2:16-cv-01874-RSL

STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER FOR
EXTENSION OF DISPOSITIVE
MOTION DEADLINE

Noted for Consideration:

June 11, 2019

COME NOW the parties, by and through their respective counsel, stipulate and respectfully request that the Court extend the dispositive motion deadline by one week:

Deadline	Old Deadline	New Deadline
Dispositive Motion Deadline	June 11, 2019	June 18, 2019

Assistant United States Attorney Tricia Boerger, the attorney that has been litigating this case on behalf of the United States since 2017, is currently preparing for an upcoming trial commencing on July 1, 2019, as well as handling the rest of her litigation docket. The undersigned Assistant United States Attorney was recently assigned to handle this case for the purpose of dispositive motion practice to provide assistance to Ms. Boerger. The undersigned is currently reviewing the docket, including the Court's

1 | prior orders, pleadings, and discovery, to ensure accuracy of any motion filed with the
2 | Court. Moreover, it is likely that the undersigned will have to coordinate with multiple
3 | federal agencies and potentially the Sauk-Suiattle Indian Tribe. The current deadline to
4 | file a dispositive motion is inadequate for completion of this review in light of the
5 | undersigned's recent assignment. However, a one-week extension would be sufficient
6 | for any dispositive motion on the part of the United States to be prepared and filed.
7 | Plaintiff's counsel has agreed to stipulate to the extension.

8 |         Accordingly, the parties stipulate to the extension and respectfully request a one-
9 | week extension of the dispositive motion deadline.

10 |         This requested extension will not affect the scheduled trial date.

12 | DATED this 11th day of June, 2019.
