1. I am the president of the Washington State Labor Council (“WSLC”). I have held the position since 2010. DECLARATION OF JEFF JOHNSON - 1
Case No. 2:17-cv-00141

1 Network and Alliance for Jobs and Clean Energy; and I serve as Co-Chair of the Washington
2 State Blue Green Alliance.

3           2.       The WSLC comprises more than 600 local unions and represents more than 4 450,000 rank-and-file union members working in Washington State. It is widely considered 5 to be the “voice of labor” in Washington State. WSLC has a strong interest in advocating for 6 the liberty interests of Washington State workers.

8           3.       The WSLC provides many services to its affiliated unions. The Council has a 9 focus on legislative advocacy, political action, communication through its website “The 10 Stand,” supporting affiliated unions’ organizing drives by rallying community leaders and 11 elected officials, and programs that provide affiliate and direct worker assistance like 12 dislocated worker assistance, increasing student awareness about apprenticeship programs
13 within community and technical colleges, Project Help, education and training for union 14 members, and assistance for unions with contract and economic research.

16           4.       On January 30, 2017, I issued the following statement regarding President
17 Donald Trump’s Executive Order that banned all refugees from entering the country for 120
18 days, bans all refugees from Syria indefinitely, and bans immigrants and non-immigrants
19 from seven majority-Muslim countries from entering the U.S. for 90 days:

21           President Trump’s Executive Order on Friday de facto banning Muslims 22 from certain Middle Eastern countries from entering/re-entering the 23 country for 90 days went beyond the pale of common decency, human 24 dignity, and further fans the flames of racism, xenophobia, and anti-25 Islamism that he thoughtlessly spewed during his campaign. Legal 26 permanent residents, green card holders and vetted refugees from certain Muslim countries — only countries where the Trump Corporation has no business dealings — were detained at airports, refused entry, and in some cases, sent back to the country they had just arrived from. This reckless action further contributes to the rising attacks on Muslims and others in

1 America. The Southern Poverty Law Center reports a dramatic rise in hate 2 incidents over the past two years, now at 260,000 hate incidents a year.
3 This hateful and shameful Executive Order was met by thousands 4 protesting at airports across the country as well as an emergency stay 5 against the Executive Order by a federal judge.

6 As union members and as a labor movement we stand with immigrants
7 and refugees. We cannot and will not allow the president to pick us off 8 one group at a time. Another leader did this in the 1930s and 1940s with 9 horrific consequences.

10 America was built by immigrants and refugees and they will continue to 11 play a part in the values upon which we define America.

12 The new executive order, while somewhat narrower in scope, is an expression of the same
13 shameful expression of discrimination and reinforces the original incitation of Islamophobia 14 and xenophobia.

15 5. The WSLC filed in this suit an earlier amicus brief in support of Washington
16 State's motion for a Temporary Restraining Order, Dkt. 46-1, and an amicus brief in support
17 of the State of Washington in the appeal taken by the Defendants from this Court's order 18 granting injunctive relief.

19 6. Among WSLC's affiliated unions, unions who have signed a Solidarity 20 Charter with the WSLC, and other labor allies are unions whose members are directly 21 impacted by the most recent Executive Order, because they are non-immigrant temporary 22 workers from one of the six banned countries whose ability to travel into and out of the 23 United States is prohibited outright or whose inability to re-enter the United States after 24 traveling will put their livelihoods in jeopardy. Therefore, although the new executive order 25 no longer covers Iraq or affects lawful permanent residents, its effect on members who are 26 temporary or one entry visa holders is just as harmful as the first executive order. The new

1 order will also continue the adverse effect on our members who wish to reunite with family
2 members who are in the process of applying for visitor or student visas or residency status
3 and will be delayed during the 90-day hiatus. The members of unions affiliated or allied with 4 WSLC affected by the ban include hospitality workers, retail employees, health-care industry 5 workers, laborers, factory workers, and state, county and municipal employees, among 6 others. These union members are exceptionally diverse, comprised of an array of races, 7 nationalities and religions. Many of these union members are immigrants from the six 8 countries affected by the executive order or are non-immigrants whose heritage is from one 9 or more of those six countries. A significant proportion of these members identify as Muslim 10 and are American citizens, lawful permanent residents or lawful visitors.

12 7. The negative policies the United States government establishes concerning 13 immigrants, non-immigrant visitors and refugees of certain national origins or religions 14 reflects the attitudes the government has of its own citizens of those same national origins 15 and religions: that they are less valued, less than equal. Such policies cause harm to our 16 unions' members that cannot be undone.

18 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the 19 foregoing statements are true and correct.

21 Signed in Seattle, Washington, this 14th day of March, 2017.
