

The Honorable James L. Robart

1 ROBERT W. FERGUSON
 2 WSBA #26004
 Attorney General
 3 NOAH G. PURCELL
 4 WSBA #43492
 Solicitor General
 5 COLLEEN M. MELODY
 6 WSBA #42275
 Civil Rights Unit Chief
 7 Office of the Attorney General
 800 Fifth Avenue, Suite 2000
 8 Seattle, WA 98104
 206-464-7744
 9

10 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
 11 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

12 STATE OF WASHINGTON and
 13 STATE OF MINNESOTA,

14 Plaintiffs,

15 v.

16 DONALD TRUMP, in his official capacity as President of the United States; U.S. DEPARTMENT OF 17 HOMELAND SECURITY; JOHN F.
 KELLY, in his official capacity as Secretary of the Department of 18 Homeland Security; TOM SHANNON,
 in his official capacity as Acting
 19 Secretary of State; and the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
 20

21 Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 2:17-cv-00141-JLR

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT
 FOR DECLARATORY AND
 INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

22 I. INTRODUCTION

23 1. The States of Washington and Minnesota (“States”) bring this action to protect 24 the States—including their residents, employers, and educational institutions—against illegal
 25 actions of the President and the federal government. The President’s Executive Order of 26 January 27, 2017 (“the Executive Order”), is separating families, harming thousands of the

1 States' residents, damaging the States' economies, hurting State-based companies, and
2 undermining both States' sovereign interest in remaining a welcoming place for immigrants
3 and refugees. The Court should invalidate the portions of the Executive Order challenged here.

4 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 2. The Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 2201(a).

6 3. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)(2) and 7 1391(e)(1). Defendants are United States agencies or officers sued in their official capacities.
8 The State of Washington is a resident of this judicial district and a substantial part of the events
9 or omissions giving rise to this First Amended Complaint occurred within the Western District
10 of Washington.

11 4. The States bring this action to redress harms to their proprietary interests and 12 their interests as parens patriae, as well as under their authority pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 702 and 13 42 U.S.C. § 2000bb-1(a).

14 III. PARTIES

15 PLAINTIFF STATE OF WASHINGTON

16 5. The Governor is the chief executive officer of the State of Washington. The 17 Governor is responsible for overseeing the operations of the State of Washington and ensuring 18 that its laws are faithfully executed.

19 6. The Attorney General is the chief legal adviser to the State of Washington. The 20 Attorney General's powers and duties include acting in federal court on matters of public 21 concern.

22 7. Washington has declared that practices that discriminate against any of its 23 inhabitants because of race, creed, color, or national origin are matters of public concern that 24 threaten the rights and proper privileges of the State and harm the public welfare, health, and 25 peace of the people. See Wash. Rev. Code 49.60.010.
26

1           8.       Washington's interest in protecting the health, safety, and well-being of its
2 residents, including protecting its residents from harms to their physical or economic health, is 3 a quasi-sovereign interest.

4           9.       Washington also has an interest in ensuring that its residents are not excluded
5 from the benefits that flow from participation in the federal system, including the rights and 6 privileges provided by the U.S. Constitution and federal law.

7           10.      Washington's interest in preventing and remedying injuries to the public's
8 health, safety, and well-being extends to all of Washington's residents, including individuals
9 who suffer indirect injuries and members of the general public.

10          11.      According to the most current American Community Survey data from the U.S.
11 Census Bureau, as of 2015, approximately 7,280 non-citizen immigrants from Iran, Iraq, Syria,
12 Somalia, Sudan, Libya, and Yemen reside in Washington—1,409 Iranian immigrants, 2,275
13 Iraqi immigrants, 360 Libyan immigrants, 2,883 Somalian immigrants, 165 Sudanese
14 immigrants, and 187 Syrian immigrants.

15          12.      Immigration is an important economic driver in Washington. Many workers in 16 Washington's technology industry are immigrants, and many of those immigrant workers are 17 from Muslim-majority countries. Immigrant and refugee-owned businesses employ 140,000
18 people in Washington. Many companies in Washington are dependent on foreign workers to 19 operate and grow their businesses.

20          13.      The technology industry relies heavily on the H-1B visa program, through 21 which highly skilled workers like software engineers are permitted to work in the United 22 States. Washington ranks ninth in the U.S. by number of applications for high-tech visas.
23 Microsoft, a corporation headquartered in Redmond, Washington, is the State's top employer
24 of H-1B visa holders and employs nearly 5,000 people through the program. Other
25 Washington-based companies, including Amazon, Expedia, and Starbucks, employ thousands 26 of H-1B visa holders.

1           14.     The market for highly skilled workers and leaders in the technology industry is
2 extremely competitive. Changes to U.S. immigration policy that restrict the flow of people may 3 inhibit these companies' ability to adequately staff their research and development efforts and
4 recruit talent from overseas. If recruiting efforts are less successful, these companies' abilities
5 to develop and deliver successful products and services may be adversely affected.

6           15.     Microsoft's U.S. workforce is heavily dependent on immigrants and guest
7 workers. At least 76 employees at Microsoft are citizens of Iran, Iraq, Syria, Somalia, Sudan,
8 Libya, or Yemen and hold U.S. temporary work visas. There may be other employees with 9 permanent-resident status or green cards. These employees may be banned from re-entering the 10 U.S. if they travel overseas or to the company's offices in Vancouver, British Columbia.

11           16.     Seattle-based company Amazon also employs workers from every corner of the 12 world. Amazon's employees, dependents of employees, and candidates for employment with 13 Amazon have been impacted by the Executive Order that is the subject of this First Amended
14 Complaint. Amazon has advised such employees currently in the United States to refrain from 15 travel outside the United States.

16           17.     Bellevue-based company Expedia operates a domestic and foreign travel
17 business. At the time of the filing of the Complaint, Expedia had approximately 1,000
18 customers with existing flight reservations in or out of the United States who hold passports
19 from Iran, Iraq, Syria, Somalia, Sudan, Libya, or Yemen. The Executive Order will restrict 20 business, increase business costs, and impact current employees and customers.

21           18.     Washington is also home to individuals and nonprofit religious organizations 22 that, as part of their religious beliefs and/or mission, provide services to refugees and 23 immigrants in Washington and throughout the world.

24           19.     Up to 13 individuals were detained at Seattle-Tacoma International Airport
25 ("Sea-Tac Airport") one day after President Trump issued the Executive Order that is the 26 subject of this First Amended Complaint.

1           20.     An unknown number of Washington residents from the affected countries may
2 have been prevented from, or may now be prevented from, traveling to Washington through
3 air, land, and sea ports of entry across the United States. It is unknown how many additional 4 Washington residents will reach United States ports across the country and be prevented from 5 returning to Washington while the Executive Order remains in effect.

6           21.     As a result of the Executive Order, Washington residents have been separated
7 from their families. One Somali refugee, who has lived in Seattle for 12 years, went to Sea-Tac
8 Airport to pick up her husband who was flying from Somalia through Vienna, but never saw 9 him before he was sent back on a flight to Vienna. Another individual who was detained is 10 related to a Sea-Tac Airport worker. A third detainee, the sister of a blind Iraqi man who lives
11 in Seattle, was prevented from seeing him after 15 years apart.

12           22.     Other Washington residents will be unable to travel to Canada to visit family.
13 An Iraqi-born software engineer, who works in Facebook's Seattle office and was in Canada
14 watching his little brother perform in a high school play, received a phone call from his 15 immigration attorney shortly before the Executive Order took effect, advising him to rush back 16 across the border.

17           23.     Still other Washington residents will be prevented from being reunited with 18 family members. One Syrian family who recently resettled in Seattle is waiting for an older
19 child still in a refugee camp who was set to arrive next week, but for the Executive Order.

20           24.     In addition to affecting Washington residents, families, and businesses, the 21 Executive Order harms Washington's proprietary interests.

22           25.     In 2015, travelers from the Middle East spent approximately $96 million in 23 Washington. This spending generated more than $6 million in State tax revenue and more than 24 $2 million in local tax revenue.

25           26.     Washington also has a proprietary interest in securing the best possible
26 employees. Washington agencies and institutions of higher education (including the University

1 of Washington and Washington State University) employ a number of people from the affected
2 countries who are here on visas and will be affected by the Executive Order. These employees
3 were hired because of their specialized skills and qualifications.

4 27. Washington expends time and funds to sponsor H-1B employees. Washington
5 wastes that time and money, and loses the value of employee labor, if employees are not able 6 to fully work and travel due to the Executive Order.

7 28. The University of Washington and Washington State University are the two 8 largest public universities in the State. More than 95 students from Iran, Iraq, Syria, Somalia, 9 Sudan, Libya, and Yemen attend the University of Washington, based in Seattle. More than 10 135 students from those countries attend Washington State University, based in Pullman.
11 Affected students also attend Washington colleges, community colleges, and technical 12 colleges.

13 29. The Executive Order prohibits these students from traveling abroad for research
14 or scholarship, and may cause some to leave the universities. Future students from these 15 countries may be prevented from enrolling. These harms damage the educational mission of 16 Washington's institutions of higher education.

17 PLAINTIFF STATE OF MINNESOTA

18 30. Lori Swanson is the chief legal officer of the State of Minnesota. Her powers
19 and duties include filing lawsuits in federal court on behalf of the State of Minnesota.

20 31. The Executive Order has had immediate and significant effects in Minnesota.
21 According to the American Community Survey data from the U.S. Census Bureau, as of 2015, 22 over 400,000 of Minnesota's approximately 5.4 million residents were born outside the United 23 States, including more than 30,000 from Somalia, Sudan, Iran, Iraq, Syria, and Yemen. These 24 Minnesotans now face considerable uncertainty about whether they may travel overseas or 25 whether relatives may visit or move here.
26

1           32.     The Executive Order is also harming Minnesota's educational institutions. For
2 example, at the University of Minnesota, the State's largest public research university,
3 immigrants have been a vital part of the University's student body, faculty and staff, research,
4 scholarship, and innovation. Currently, across the five campuses, there are approximately 120
5 students and international scholars from Iran, Iraq, Syria, Somalia, Sudan, Libya, or 6 Yemen. These individuals are now restricted from traveling outside the United States for 7 research and academic collaborations or other personal reasons, since they have no reasonable
8 expectation of being able to return to continue their studies. Several of these individuals were 9 anticipating the arrival of their families for various reasons this spring, among them the 10 celebration of graduations, which may no longer be possible due to the Executive Order.

11           33.     The University of Minnesota student-body, faculty, and staff also includes 12 refugees who have expressed concern about reunifying with family members. Others who 13 immigrated to the United States years ago and still maintain close ties to families and friends in 14 their home countries have also expressed concern.

15           34.     Likewise, at Macalester College, a nationally ranked liberal arts college in 16 St. Paul, Minnesota, the executive order has negatively affected students from Syria and Libya,
17 as well as domestic students from Somalia, who may be unable to visit family and friends or 18 participate in study abroad programs.

19           35.     Minnesota's businesses and economy are also impacted. For example, the Mayo
20 Clinic, an internationally-known healthcare institution that treats patients who travel to it for 21 healthcare services from around the world, has publicly stated that approximately 80 staff,
22 physicians, and scholars have ties to the affected countries.

23           36.     Many travel plans to and from Minnesota have been disrupted. For example, a
24 4-year-old Somali girl, who was separated from her mother and two sisters shortly after being
25 born in a refugee camp in Uganda, was scheduled to arrive on January 30, 2017. Her mother 26 had received visas for herself and her other two daughters, but she was pregnant when they

1 were approved, so her newborn was not covered. She was told that her whole family would
2 have to start the visa process over if she tried to get one for her youngest daughter or she could
3 move to the United States and apply for reunification which would take less than one year.
4 Four years later, the youngest daughter finally received a visa to come to the United States.
5 The young girl was at the airport in Uganda on January 30, 2017, ready to board the plane, but
6 she was not allowed due to the Executive Order.

7 DEFENDANTS

8 37. Defendant Donald Trump is the President of the United States, and issued the 9 January 27, 2017, Executive Order on which Defendants rely for authority to detain, remove,
10 or refuse admission to non-citizen immigrants from Iran, Iraq, Syria, Somalia, Sudan, Libya,
11 and Yemen who are traveling or returning to the States via air, land, and sea ports across the 12 United States, including Sea-Tac Airport and Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport. He is 13 sued in his official capacity.

14 38. Defendant U.S. Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) is a federal cabinet
15 agency responsible for implementing and enforcing the Immigration and Nationality Act
16 (“INA”). DHS is a Department of the Executive Branch of the U.S. Government, and is an 17 agency within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(f). The U.S. Customs and Border Protection is an 18 Operational and Support Component agency within DHS. The U.S. Customs and Border
19 Protection is responsible for detaining and/or removing non-citizen immigrants from Iran, Iraq,
20 Syria, Somalia, Sudan, Libya, and Yemen arriving at air, land, and sea ports across the United 21 States, including Sea-Tac Airport and Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport.

22 39. Defendant John F. Kelly is the Secretary of the Department of Homeland
23 Security. He is responsible for implementing and enforcing the INA, and oversees the U.S.
24 Customs and Border Protection. He is sued in his official capacity.

1 40. Defendant Tom Shannon is the Acting Secretary of State. The Secretary of State
2 has authority to determine and implement certain visa procedures for non-citizens. He is sued
3 in his official capacity.

4 41. Defendant the United States of America includes all government agencies and
5 departments responsible for the implementation of the INA and responsible for the admission,
6 detention, removal of non-citizen immigrants from Iran, Iraq, Syria, Somalia, Sudan, Libya,
7 and Yemen who are traveling to or returning to the States via air, land, and sea ports across the 8 United States, including Sea-Tac Airport and Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport.

9 IV. ALLEGATIONS

10 42. Prior to his election, Donald Trump campaigned on the promise that he would 11 ban Muslims from entering the United States.

12 43. On December 7, 2015, candidate Trump issued a press release calling for “a 13 total and complete shutdown of Muslims entering the United States.” As of the date of this
14 filing, the press release remains available on Trump’s campaign website and is attached hereto
15 as Exhibit 1.

16 44. In defending his decision shortly thereafter, candidate Trump compared the 17 Muslim ban to former President Franklin Roosevelt’s decision to intern Japanese Americans
18 during World War II, and stated, “This is a president highly respected by all, [Roosevelt] did 19 the same thing.” A media report of this interview is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

20 45. On June 14, 2016, candidate Trump reiterated his promise to ban all Muslims
21 entering this country until “we as a nation are in a position to properly and perfectly screen
22 those people coming into our country.” A transcript of this speech is attached hereto as Exhibit 23 3.

24 46. Asked during a July 24, 2016, interview about whether he was “backing off on 25 his Muslim ban[,],” candidate Trump stated, “I actually don’t think it’s a pull-back. In fact, you
26 could say it’s an expansion.” A transcript of this interview is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

1           47. In a foreign policy speech delivered on August 15, 2016, candidate Trump
2 noted that the United States could not “adequate[ly] screen[]” immigrants because it admits
3 “about 100,000 permanent immigrants from the Middle East every year.” Trump proposed 4 creating an ideological screening test for immigration applicants, which would “screen out any
5 who have hostile attitudes towards our country or its principles – or who believe that Sharia
6 law should supplant American law.” During the speech, he referred to his proposal as 7 “extreme, extreme vetting.” A copy of the prepared remarks is attached hereto as Exhibit 5. A
8 video link to the delivered speech is available at: [https://www.c-span.org/video/?413977-
9 1/donald-trump-delivers-foreign-policy-address](https://www.c-span.org/video/?413977-1/donald-trump-delivers-foreign-policy-address) (quoted remarks at 50:46).

10           48. On January 20, 2017, Donald Trump was inaugurated as the President of the 11 United States. In his first television interview as President, he again referred to his plan for 12 “extreme vetting.” A transcript of this interview is attached hereto as Exhibit 6.

13           49. On January 27, 2017, one week after being sworn in, President Trump signed an 14 executive order entitled, “Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United 15 States.” The Executive Order directs a series of changes to the manner in which non-citizens 16 may seek and obtain entry to the United States. The Executive Order is attached hereto as 17 Exhibit 7.

18           50. Section 3(c) of the Executive Order proclaims that entry of immigrants and 19 nonimmigrants from countries referred to in section 217(a)(12) of the Immigration and 20 Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1187(a)(12), i.e., Iran, Iraq, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, and 21 Yemen, “would be detrimental to the interests of the United States.” The Executive Order
22 “suspend[s] entry into the United States, as immigrants and nonimmigrants, of such persons for 23 90 days from the date of this order.”

24           51. Sections 5(a)–(b) of the Executive Order suspend the U.S. Refugee Admissions
25 Program in its entirety for 120 days and then, upon its resumption, direct the Secretary of State
26

1 to prioritize refugees who claim religious-based persecution, “provided that the religion of the 2 individual is a minority religion in the individual’s country of nationality.”

3 52. Section 5(c) of the Executive Order proclaims that entry of Syrian refugees is 4 “detrimental to the interests of the United States” and suspends their entry indefinitely.

5 53. In a January 27, 2017, interview with the Christian Broadcasting Network,
6 President Trump confirmed his intent to prioritize Christians in the Middle East for admission
7 as refugees. A copy of the transcript of this interview is attached hereto as Exhibit 8.

8 54. During a signing ceremony for the Executive Order on January 27, 2017,
9 President Trump stated that the purpose of the Executive Order was to “establish[] new vetting
10 measures to keep radical Islamic terrorists out of the United States of America.” He continued, 11 “We don’t want them here.” A media report of these statements is attached hereto as Exhibit 9.

12 55. That same day, a Deputy Assistant Secretary for Visa Services at the U.S.
13 Department of State, Edward J. Ramotowski, issued a letter which, subject to limited
14 exceptions, “provisionally revoke[d] all valid nonimmigrant and immigrant visas of nationals 15 of Iraq, Iran, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, and Yemen.” The letter is attached hereto as 16 Exhibit 10.

17 56. Also that day, the U.S. Department of State and some U.S. embassies and 18 consulates abroad posted a notice online advising immigrant visa applicants that visa issuance
19 had been suspended and visa interviews cancelled. The online notice is attached hereto as 20 Exhibit 11. A copy of the notice posted in the U.S. embassy in Iraq is attached hereto as 21 Exhibit 12.

22 57. On January 28, 2017, a spokeswoman for DHS stated that lawful permanent 23 residents, or green card holders, would be barred from entry pursuant to the Executive Order.
24 A media report of these statements is attached hereto as Exhibit 13.

1           58. On January 29, 2017, DHS reversed its decision through a statement by
2 Secretary Kelly that purported to exempt lawful permanent residents from the Executive Order.
3 The statement is attached hereto as Exhibit 14.

4           59. Two days later, however, on January 31, 2017, the U.S. Customs and Border
5 Protection, a DHS sub-agency, issued a statement entitled “Protecting the Nation from Foreign
6 Terrorist Entry into the United States.” Although it repeated Secretary Kelly’s earlier
7 statement, it also confirmed in its “Questions and Answers” section that the Executive Order
8 applies to lawful permanent residents and that their entry would depend on receipt of a 9 “national interest waiver[] consistent with the provisions of the Executive Order.” The 10 statement is attached hereto as Exhibit 15.

11           60. On January 29, 2017, President Trump issued a statement defending the 12 Executive Order, stating “[t]his is not a Muslim ban.” The statement is attached hereto as 13 Exhibit 16.

14           61. President Trump’s statement conflicts with the statement made by his 15 cybersecurity advisor the day before. In an interview with Fox News on January 28, 2017,
16 Rudolph Giuliani confirmed that the Executive Order was crafted to be a “legal” ban on 17 Muslims. Specifically, Giuliani stated that Trump asked him for a “Muslim ban” and instructed
18 Giuliani to “put a commission together” to “show [Trump] the right way to do it legally.” A
19 media report of Giuliani’s statements is attached hereto as Exhibit 17. A video of Giuliani’s
20 statements is also available at: <https://youtu.be/19GKL6i38pI>.

21                           V. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
22                           (Fifth Amendment – Equal Protection)

23           62. The States reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each
24 of the preceding paragraphs of this First Amended Complaint.

25           63. The Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment prohibits the federal 26 government from denying equal protection of the laws.

1           64.     Sections 3 and 5 of the Executive Order, together with statements made by
2 Defendants concerning their intent and application, target individuals for discriminatory
3 treatment based on their country of origin and/or religion, without lawful justification.

4           65.     The Executive Order was motivated by animus and a desire to harm a particular 5 group.

6           66.     The discriminatory terms and application of the Executive Order are arbitrary
7 and cannot be sufficiently justified by federal interests.

8           67.     Through their actions above, Defendants have violated the equal protection
9 guarantee of the Fifth Amendment.

10          68.     Defendants' violation causes ongoing harm to the States and their residents.

11                                   VI.     SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
12                                   (First Amendment – Establishment Clause)

13          69.     The States reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each
14 of the preceding paragraphs of this First Amended Complaint.

15          70.     The Establishment Clause of the First Amendment prohibits the federal 16 government from officially preferring one religion over another.

17          71.     Sections 3 and 5 of the Executive Order, together with statements made by
18 Defendants concerning their intent and application, are intended to disfavor Islam and favor
19 Christianity.

20          72.     Through their actions above, Defendants have violated the Establishment
21 Clause of the First Amendment.

22          73.     Defendants' violation causes ongoing harm to the States and their residents.

23                                   VII.    THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
24                                   (Fifth Amendment – Procedural Due Process)

25          74.     The States reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each
26 of the preceding paragraphs of this First Amended Complaint.

1 75. The Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment prohibits the federal
2 government from depriving individuals of their liberty interests without due process of law.

3 76. Where Congress has granted statutory rights and authorized procedures
4 applicable to arriving and present non-citizens, minimum due process rights attach to those 5 statutory rights.

6 77. Sections 3 and 5 of the Executive Order conflict with the statutory rights and 7 procedures directed by Congress. In issuing and implementing the Executive Order,
8 Defendants have violated the procedural due process guarantees of the Fifth Amendment.

9 78. Defendants' violation causes ongoing harm to the States and their residents.

10 VIII. FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
11 (Immigration and Nationality Act – Discriminatory Visa Procedures)

12 79. The States reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each
13 of the preceding paragraphs of this First Amended Complaint.

14 80. The Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1152(a)(1)(A), prohibits 15 discrimination in the issuance of immigrant visas on the basis of race, nationality, place of 16 birth, or place of residence.

17 81. Sections 3 and 5 of the Executive Order, together with statements made by 18 Defendants concerning their intent and application, discriminate on the basis of race,
19 nationality, place of birth, and/or place of residence in the issuance of visas, in violation of the 20 Immigration and Nationality Act.

21 82. Defendants' violation causes ongoing harm to the States and their residents.

22 IX. FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
23 (Immigration and Nationality Act – Denial of Asylum and Withholding of Removal)

24 83. The States reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each
25 of the preceding paragraphs of this First Amended Complaint.
26

1 84. The Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. §§ 1158 and 1231(b)(3), entitles
2 certain non-citizens arriving at the States' ports of entry to apply for asylum and withholding
3 of removal.

4 85. As implemented, the Executive Order suspends all immigrant and
5 nonimmigrant entry into the States by individuals from seven countries and forecloses their
6 ability to apply for asylum and withholding of removal.

7 86. Defendants' violation causes ongoing harm to the States and their residents.

8 X. SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
9 (Foreign Affairs Reform and Restructuring Act – Denial of Convention Against Torture
10 Relief)

11 87. The States reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each
12 of the preceding paragraphs of this First Amended Complaint.

13 88. The Foreign Affairs Reform and Restructuring Act of 1998, 8 U.S.C. § 1231
14 note, implements the United Nations Convention Against Torture, which the United States
15 ratified in 1994. Pub. L. 105-277, div. G, subdiv. B, title XXII, § 2242. Under the Convention
16 Against Torture, the United States may not involuntarily return any person to a country where 17 there are substantial grounds for believing the person would be in danger of being subjected to 18 torture.

19 89. As implemented, the Executive Order suspends all immigrant and
20 nonimmigrant entry into the States by individuals from seven countries and forecloses their 21 ability to apply for relief under the Convention Against Torture.

22 90. Defendants' violation causes ongoing harm to the States and their residents.

23 XI. SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
24 (Religious Freedom Restoration Act)

25 91. The States reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each
26 of the preceding paragraphs of this First Amended Complaint.

1 92. The Religious Freedom Restoration Act, 42 U.S.C. § 2000bb-1(a), prohibits the
2 federal government from substantially burdening the exercise of religion, even if the burden
3 results from a rule of general applicability.

4 93. Section 3 of the Executive Order, if implemented, will result in substantial
5 burdens on the exercise of religion by non-citizen immigrants by, for example, preventing
6 them from exercising their religion while in detention, returning to their religious communities
7 in the States, and/or taking upcoming, planned religious travel abroad. Such burdens on 8 religion violate the Religious Freedom Restoration Act.

9 94. Sections 3 and 5 of the Executive Order also will result in substantial burdens
10 on the exercise of religion by individuals and religious organizations in Washington that 11 provide services to refugees and immigrants as part of their religious beliefs/mission.

12 95. Defendants' violation causes ongoing harm to the States and their residents.

13 XII. EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
14 (Procedural Violation of the Administrative Procedure Act)

15 96. The States reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each
16 of the preceding paragraphs of this First Amended Complaint.

17 97. The Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. §§ 553 and 706(2)(D), requires that 18 federal agencies conduct formal rule making before engaging in action that impacts substantive 19 rights.

20 98. In implementing Sections 3 and 5 of the Executive Order, federal agencies have 21 changed the substantive criteria by which individuals from affected countries may enter the 22 United States. Federal agencies did not follow the procedures required by the Administrative 23 Procedure Act before taking action impacting these substantive rights.

24 99. Through their actions above, Defendants have violated the Administrative 25 Procedure Act.

26 100. Defendants' violation causes ongoing harm to the States and their residents.

XIII. NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Substantive Violation of the Administrative Procedure Act)

101. The States reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each of the preceding paragraphs of this First Amended Complaint.

102. The Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. § 706(2), prohibits federal agency action that is arbitrary, unconstitutional, and contrary to statute.

103. In implementing Sections 3 and 5 of the Executive Order, federal agencies have taken unconstitutional and unlawful action, as alleged herein, in violation of the Administrative Procedure Act.

104. In implementing Sections 3 and 5 of the Executive Order, federal agencies have applied provisions arbitrarily, in violation of the Administrative Procedure Act.

105. Defendants' violation causes ongoing harm to the States and their residents.

XIV. TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Tenth Amendment)

106. The States reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each of the preceding paragraphs of this First Amended Complaint.

107. The Tenth Amendment reserves all powers not enumerated in the Constitution to the states and prohibits the federal government from commandeering state legislative processes.

108. The Tenth Amendment prohibits the federal government from directly compelling states to enact and enforce federal law.

109. Sections 3 and 5 of the Executive Order, together with statements made by Defendants concerning their intent and application, target individuals for discriminatory treatment based on their country of origin and/or religion, without lawful justification.

110. The States and their employers, housing providers, and businesses have long been prohibited by their States' laws from discriminating against people based on national origin and religion in employment, housing, and in places of public accommodation.

1 111. The Executive Order effectively mandates that the States engage in
2 discrimination based on national origin and/or religion, thereby rescinding the States’ historic
3 protection of civil rights and religious freedom.

4 112. Through their actions above, Defendants have violated the Tenth Amendment.

5 113. Defendants’ violation causes ongoing harm to the States.

6 XV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

7 114. Wherefore, the States pray that the Court:

- 8 a. Declare that Sections 3(c), 5(a)–(c), and 5(e) of the Executive Order are 9 unauthorized by and contrary to the Constitution and laws of the United 10 States;
- 11 b. Enjoin Defendants from implementing or enforcing Sections 3(c), 5(a)– 12 (c), and 5(e) of the Executive Order, including at all United States
13 borders, ports of entry, and in the issuance of visas, pending further 14 orders from this Court;
- 15 c. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(b)(2), set an expedited
16 hearing within fourteen (14) days to determine whether the Temporary 17 Restraining Order should be extended; and
- 18 d. Award such additional relief as the interests of justice may require.

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26

DATED this 1st day of February, 2017.

Respectfully submitted,

Bob Ferguson, WSBA #26004
Attorney General
Noah G. Purcell, WSBA #43492
Solicitor General
Colleen M. Melody, WSBA #42275
Civil Rights Unit Chief
Anne E. Egeler, WSBA #20258
Deputy Solicitor
Marsha Chien, WSBA #47020
Patricio A. Marquez, WSBA #47693
Assistant Attorneys General
Office of the Attorney General
800 Fifth Avenue, Suite 2000
Seattle, WA 98104
(206) 464-7744
Noahp@atg.wa.gov

LORI SWANSON
Attorney General
State of Minnesota