UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

STATE OF WASHINGTON, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

DONALD TRUMP, et al.,

Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 2:17-cv-00141-JLR

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746(2), I, Proshat Parsimoghadam, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am over the age of eighteen and competent to testify herein.
2. I live in Washington State.
3. My husband and I migrated to the United States three years ago. My husband is a US citizen by birth. His parents decided to go back to Iran when my husband was three years old, so he grew up in Iran. When we got married, we left Iran, our motherland, our parents and friends because we searched for a freedom and a better life. We came to the land of freedom, land that was built by immigrants, in search of all of this, to make a difference and to be respected and feel no different than others! To have equal opportunities at work, feel belonged, pursue our dreams and call this place home. We always bragged to our friends, that America loves us for who we are and doesn't judge by race, religion or sex but it all feels different today...

4. We tried hard during the past three years to settle down. We finally felt this beautiful city like a home until the executive orders and travel bans happened.
5. We have invited our parents to come and visit us, and see where we live. However, they will not have approval to come here by October 18, 2017. If the President's September 24, 2017 Proclamation is implemented, then my parents will not be able to visit us at all!! This travel ban impacts us and all the people that we care so much about!

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this 6th day of October, 2017
