

1 The Court finds that the second and third factors support the appointment of counsel to 2 represent Mr. Perryman. His pro se status is clearly impairing his ability to identify applicable
3 legal theories, to focus his discovery and argument on the elements of potentially viable causes
4 of action, and to pursue some of the forms of relief he seeks. Plaintiff has not, however, provided 5 information regarding his financial circumstances. If plaintiff is able to afford an attorney, he 6 would not be entitled to counsel at the expense of another.² Plaintiff shall, therefore, complete 7 under penalty of perjury the attached Financial Affidavit and filed it within fourteen days of the 8 date of this Order.
