Plaintiffs,

TIG INSURANCE COMPANY, as successor by merger to AMERICAN SAFETY INDEMNITY COMPANY, a foreign insurer, Defendant.

This matter involves both proceedings in the Snohomish County Superior Court and in this Court over a construction insurance and consent judgment dispute. Plaintiffs elected to seek a reasonableness determination in state court. An initial reasonableness hearing was held on June 2, 2017, in which the Court denied the request for a reasonableness finding without prejudice so that plaintiffs could conduct further investigations into the alleged construction defects. In this Court, plaintiffs filed a motion for summary judgment on August 31, 2017, and defendant filed a cross-motion for summary judgment on October 5, 2017. These motions are still pending.

The parties jointly request that the deadline for exchanging expert reports, currently set for December 6, 2017 per the May 24, 2017 scheduling order (Dkt. 8), be extended from December 6, 2017 to a date six weeks after the Court rules on the pending cross motions for summary judgment. This will still allow time for expert depositions prior to the currently scheduled discovery cutoff, but will avoid unnecessary effort to prepare and submit expert reports on issues that may well become moot depending on the Court's ruling on the pending motions.

DATED this 5th day of December, 2017.
