UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

TIMOTHY A. MCCAMEY,

Plaintiff,

v.

SERGEANT SMITH,

Defendant.

CASE NO. C17-0433-RSL-MAT

AMENDED ORDER DIRECTING
SERVICE OF CIVIL RIGHTS
COMPLAINT

15 This is a civil rights action brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Plaintiff proceeds with 16 this action pro se and in forma pauperis. While currently incarcerated by Snohomish County
17 Corrections, plaintiff's claim regards his prior incarceration by the Washington State Department
18 of Corrections (DOC) at the Washington Corrections Center (WCC) in Shelton, Washington and 19 includes as the sole remaining defendant DOC/WCC employee Sergeant Smith. (See Dkts. 5, 8-20 11.)

21 A review of the docket appears to reflect the Court directed delivery of a prior Order 22 Directing Service to the wrong address. (See Dkt. 11 at 5 (directing a copy of the order and 23 courtesy copy of plaintiff's amended complaint to the Snohomish County Prosecuting Attorney's

1 office.) The Court, therefore, now ORDERS as follows:

2 (1) Service by Clerk

3 The Clerk is directed to send to DOC/WCC employee Sergeant Smith a copy of plaintiff's
4 amended complaint¹, a copy of this Order, two copies of the Notice of Lawsuit and Request for 5 Waiver of Service of Summons, a waiver of service of summons, and a return envelope, postage
6 prepaid, addressed to the Clerk's Office.

7 (2) Response Required

8 Defendant(s) shall have thirty (30) days within which to return the enclosed waiver of 9 service of summons. A defendant who timely returns the signed waiver shall have sixty (60) days
10 after the date designated on the notice of lawsuit to file and serve an answer to the amended
11 complaint or a motion permitted under Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

12 A defendant who fails to timely return the signed waiver will be personally served with a 13 summons and complaint, and may be required to pay the full costs of such service, pursuant to 14 Rule 4(d)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. A defendant who has been personally served 15 shall file an answer or motion permitted under Rule 12 within thirty (30) days after service.

16 (3) Filing and Service by Parties, Generally

17 All attorneys admitted to practice before this Court are required to file documents
18 electronically via the Court's CM/ECF system. Counsel are directed to the Court's website, 19 www.wawd.uscourts.gov, for a detailed description of the requirements for filing via CM/ECF.

20 All non-attorneys, such as pro se parties and/or prisoners, may continue to file a paper original
21 with the Clerk. All filings, whether filed electronically or in traditional paper format, must indicate
22

23 ¹ It should be noted that the only claim remaining in this matter is plaintiff's claim of retaliation in violation of his First Amendment rights. (See Dkts. 9-10)

1 in the upper right hand corner the name of the magistrate judge to whom the document is directed.

2 For any party filing electronically, when the total of all pages of a filing exceeds fifty (50)
3 pages in length, a paper copy of the document (with tabs or other organizing aids as necessary)
4 shall be delivered to the Clerk's Office for chambers. The chambers copy must be clearly marked
5 with the words "Courtesy Copy of Electronic Filing for Chambers."

6 Any document filed with the Court must be accompanied by proof that it has been served
7 upon all parties that have entered a notice of appearance in the underlying matter.

8 (4) Motions, Generally

9 Any request for the court action shall be set forth in a motion, properly filed and served.
10 Pursuant to LCR 7(b), any argument being offered in support of a motion shall be submitted as a 11 part of the motion itself and not in a separate document. The motion shall include in its caption 12 (immediately below the title of the motion) a designation of the date the motion is to be noted for 13 consideration upon the Court's motion calendar.

14 Stipulated and agreed motions, motions to file over-length motions or briefs, motions for 15 reconsideration, joint submissions pursuant to the option procedure established in LCR 37(a)(2), 16 motions for default, requests for the clerk to enter default judgment, and motions for the court to 17 enter default judgment where the opposing party has not appeared shall be noted for consideration 18 on the day they are filed. See LCR 7(d)(1). All other non-dispositive motions shall be noted for 19 consideration no earlier than the third Friday following filing and service of the motion. See LCR
20 7(d)(3). All dispositive motions shall be noted for consideration no earlier than the fourth Friday 21 following filing and service of the motion. Id.

22 For electronic filers, all briefs and affidavits in opposition to either a dispositive or non-
23 dispositive motion shall be filed and served not later than 11:59 p.m. on the Monday immediately

1 preceding the date designated for consideration of the motion.

2 The party making the motion may electronically file and serve not later than 11:59 p.m. on 3 the date designated for consideration of the motion, a reply to the opposing party's briefs and 4 affidavits.

5 (5) Motions to Dismiss and Motions for Summary Judgment

6 Parties filing motions to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil 7 Procedure and motions for summary judgment pursuant to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil 8 Procedure should acquaint themselves with those rules. As noted above, these motions shall be 9 noted for consideration no earlier than the fourth Friday following filing and service of the motion.

10 Defendants filing motions to dismiss based on a failure to exhaust or motions for summary
11 judgment are advised that they MUST serve a Rand notice concurrently with motions to dismiss
12 based on a failure to exhaust and motions for summary judgment so that pro se prisoner plaintiffs
13 will have fair, timely, and adequate notice of what is required of them in order to oppose those 14 motions. Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934, 941 (9th Cir. 2012). The Ninth Circuit has set forth
15 model language for such notices:

16 A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of 17 Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

18 Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary
19 judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no 20 genuine issue of material fact—that is, if there is no real dispute about any 21 fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for 22 summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will 23 end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 963 (9th Cir. 1998)(emphasis added).

Defendants who fail to file and serve the required Rand notice on plaintiff may have their motion stricken from the Court’s calendar with leave to re-file.

(6) Direct Communications with District Judge or Magistrate Judge

No direct communication is to take place with the District Judge or Magistrate Judge with regard to this case. All relevant information and papers are to be directed to the Clerk.

(7) The Clerk is directed to send copies of this Order and of the Court’s pro se instruction sheet to plaintiff. The Clerk is further directed to send a copy of this Order and a courtesy copy of plaintiff’s amended complaint to the Washington State Attorney General’s Office, by first-class mail.

DATED this 5th day of October, 2017.

Mary Alice Theiler
United States Magistrate Judge
