8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

9 Advanced Hair Restoration, LLC,

10 Plaintiff,

11 v.

12 Hair Restoration Centers, LLC,

13 Defendant.
14

Case No.: 2:17-cv-00709-RSM

JOINT MOTION TO AMEND CASE
SCHEDULE

15 I. RELIEF REQUESTED

16 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(4) and this Court's May 11, 2017 Order Regarding Initial
17 Disclosures, Joint Status Report, and Early Settlement (Dkt # 5), Plaintiff Advanced Hair
18 Restoration, LLC and Defendant Hair Restoration Centers, LLC jointly move to amend the initial 19 case schedule. Having met and conferred, the parties jointly request that each of these deadlines
20 be extended by 60 days.

21 II. AUTHORITY

22 Plaintiff filed suit on May 5, 2017 and this Court issued an Order Regarding Initial 23 Disclosures, Joint Status Report, and Early Settlement shortly thereafter. Dkt. # 1, 5. However, 24 despite several attempts through a process server using the information obtained through the 25 Division of Corporations, Secretary of the State of Florida, Plaintiff was not able to successfully
26 locate and serve the Defendant until June 1, 2017. Defendant retained counsel on June 22 and 27 counsel for the parties briefly conferred later that day. At Defendant's request, Plaintiff agreed to

1 a 30-day extension of time to answer the Complaint, and the parties immediately scheduled a case-
2 scheduling conference for June 26, 2017. This motion follows.

3 This Court may modify case management deadlines for good cause. Fed. R. Civ. P.
4 16(b)(4). Good cause considers the diligence of the parties seeking the modification; a district
5 court may modify the pretrial schedule “if it cannot reasonably be met with the diligence of the 6 party seeking the extension.” See Johnson v. Mammoth Recreations, Inc., 975 F.2d 604, 609 (9th
7 Cir. 1992) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 16((b)(4) advisory committee notes (1983)).

8 Good cause exists here. Defense counsel were not retained until June 22, 2017; per the 9 scheduling order the parties were to have already conducted their FRCP 26(f) Conference,
10 presented their initial disclosures, and submitted their Combined Joint State Reports and Discovery
11 Plans. Doc. No. 5 at 1. Clearly, the parties could not have held a FCRP 26(f) conference, provide 12 initial disclosures, or prepared to submit a joint status report until after counsel appeared. However,
13 after counsel appeared, Plaintiff’s counsel immediately initiated communications with Defense
14 counsel and, after conferring, the parties prepared this joint motion. Accord Doc. No. 5 at 4.

15 III. CONCLUSION

16 The parties were unable to comply with the Court’s initial scheduling order. Now that all
17 of the parties have appeared, the parties jointly request a 60-day extension on each of the deadlines
18 imposed by the initial order.

19 The parties propose that the Court’s initial scheduling dates be reset, as follows:

20	Deadline for FRCP 26(f) Conference:	8/07/2017
21	Initial Disclosures Pursuant to FRCP 26(a)(1):	8/14/2017
22	Combined Joint Status Report and Discovery
23	Plan as Required by FRCP 26(f)
23	and Local Civil Rule 26(f):	8/21/2017
