8 Plaintiff,

9 v.

10 SEATTLE TUNNEL PARTNERS, et al.,

11 Defendants.

No. C17-0751RSL

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S
MOTION TO COMPEL

12
13 This matter comes before the Court on plaintiff's "Motion to Compel Discovery 14 Responses from HNTB." Dkt. # 66. Written discovery requests were served on June 14, 2018.
15 No answers or responses were made. Communication with counsel proved ineffective, and 16 plaintiff filed this motion to compel. On October 3, 2018, two days after its response to the 17 motion was due, defendant HNTB Corporation filed a declaration of counsel stating that it had,
18 on that date, provided "initial" and "incomplete" objections, answers, and responses to the 19 discovery requests.

20 HNTB has wholly failed to satisfy its discovery obligations under the Federal Rules of 21 Civil Procedure and has made no effort to justify that failure. Plaintiff's motion to compel is 22 therefore GRANTED. Defendant HNTB shall, within seven days of the date of this Order,
23 provide full and complete responses to the four interrogatories and eight requests for production

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S
MOTION TO COMPEL

1 at issue. All objections other than attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine have been
2 waived. If any documents are withheld on privilege grounds, a privilege log sufficient to allow
3 plaintiff and the Court to evaluate the claim of privilege must be provided within the time
4 allowed. At a minimum, the privilege log must identify the nature of the document, its date, the 5 parties thereto (and their connection to the parties and this litigation, if not apparent), the 6 privilege that justifies the failure to disclose, and any other information necessary to show that 7 the privilege applies. If plaintiff intends to seek an award of expenses incurred because of the 8 delay in responding, he may file an appropriate motion.
