UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

CENTRAL FREIGHT LINES, INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

AMAZON FULFILLMENT
SERVICES, INC., et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. C17-0814JLR

ORDER

On April 10, 2018, Plaintiff Central Freight Lines, Inc. (“Central Freight”) filed a motion to compel certain discovery from Defendant Amazon Fulfillment Services, Inc. (“Amazon”). (MTC (Dkt. # 98).) The court admonishes Central Freight and its counsel for filing the motion in contravention of the court’s scheduling order, which requires a party to request a conference with the court before moving for an order related to

1 discovery.¹ (Sched. Order (Dkt. # 53) at 2.) The court expects the parties and their
2 counsel to comply with all court orders and applicable rules; future violations will result
3 in appropriate sanctions. Nevertheless, the court will consider Central Freight’s motion.
4 Accordingly, the court ORDERS the parties to appear at a telephonic hearing on the 5 motion on Monday, April 30, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. The Courtroom Deputy will contact
6 the parties with information about participating in the hearing. The court DIRECTS
7 Amazon to respond to the motion subject to the Local Rules for the Western District of
8 Washington. See Local Rules W.D. Wash. LCR 7(b)(2); id. LCR 7(d). Central Freight
9 may, but is not required to, file a reply brief no later than the noting date. See id. LCR
10 7(b)(3); id. LCR 7(d).

11 Dated this 11th day of April, 2018.

21 ¹ The court further notes that the footer on the first page of Central Freight’s motion
22 references “Lane Powell PC” and provides the contact information for that law firm. (See id. at 1.) However, no attorney from Lane Powell has appeared in this case. (See Dkt.) The court expects counsel to file pleadings that accurately reflect the attorneys and law firms representing the parties.
