UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

MEREDITH MCGLOWN,

Plaintiff,

v.

HARPER & ROBERTS, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. C17-924-RAJ

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS
AND RECOMMENDATION FOR REVIEW

Plaintiff, proceeding pro se, has filed an application to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”) in the above-entitled action. Dkt. 1. After careful consideration of the application, the governing law and the balance of the record, the Court ORDERS as follows:

(1) On her IFP application, plaintiff indicates that she is unemployed, has no cash or savings, is currently receiving “state aid,” but also has “unsecured grants” worth $256 trillion. As the Court has granted Ms. McGlown IFP status on numerous occasions in the past, despite her dubious representation that she has “over 1 trillion” in assets, the Court finds that plaintiff does not actually have funds available to afford the $400.00 filing fee and that she financially qualifies for IFP status pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1). Therefore, plaintiff’s IFP application, Dkt. 1, is GRANTED. However, the undersigned recommends review under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B).
